Showing Three Smart, New Coat Models For Present Wear

These coats have just been received and are intended for immediate wear, the styles of which will dominate spring fashions.

Very attractive styles in black and navy poplin; in half-belted or plain back styles; also semi-tailored models—all lined with fine peau d'egyne. (Sizes up to 46.)

Prices are $10.00, $12.98 and $15.00.

There's Evidence of Spring In New Suit Models

Like the coats, they can be worn at once, and will be correct for spring wear. Especially for young girls are striking models, in black, navy and putty. Poplin and gabardine seem to be in the lead.

Prices are $15.00, $20.00, $25.00 and $30.00.

New Skirts

The coming season promises to be a season of skirts. We've been fortunate in our selection of the right styles, fine tailoring and beautiful materials. Priced at $5.98 to $12.50

Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Just Two Prices on the Winter Coats: $5.00 and $7.50

They'll be good if not worn until next winter. Excellent qualities—good colors—the wanted materials and the right styles. All of the wool winter coats are included in these two prices.

The Last Word of Winter Suits: $9.98 is the Highest Price. Others at $5.98, $6.98 and $7.50

This includes suits that sold up to $25.00. Broadcloths, poplins, gabardines and serges. Most of them are black or navy—but some other colors are among them.

Hundreds and Hundreds of Flannelette Garments Have Been Carried Away This Week

And still the assortments remain intact. In the first place, there were 13,000 to be sold, (because we couldn't think of carrying that number in stock), and a moment's thought will convince you that it will take days to dispose of them. However, we might remind you of the "early bird" story.

These Are Not to be Confused With Flannel

They're made of a cotton fabric that resembles flannel, but lacks the fuzzy-wool surface that many folks object to. Come in pink and blue stripes; plain white and other shades.

Note the Wonderful Values

Women's and Misses' Flannelette Gowns, 49¢; values 75¢ to 89¢.

Children's Flannelette Gowns, 25¢; value 50¢.
