HARRIS STREET CHURCH WILL OBSERVE FOURTH ANNIVERSARY

Sermon in Morning to Be Preached by Dr. H.B. Hartzler, "Evangelical" Editor

DR. D. S. KENNEDY AT PINE STREET

Men's Bible Class Will Hold Memorial Services in Evening at Zion Lutheran—Junior Choir at Stevens Memorial

The Harris Street United Evangelical church, the Rev. George F. Schaum, minister, will celebrate the fourth anniversary of the dedication of the new church to-morrow. The organization is more than forty years old, the first church having been built at the corner of Broad and Fulton streets. This church was started by a number of English-speaking Evangelical people who withdrew from the German church that occupied the building on North street now used as the Consistory building.

On the first quarterly conference record of the church appears the name of the Rev. M. Steckley, who for many years was one of the leaders in the Evangelical church in this city. This is the only name associated with the first quarterly conference that has been perpetuated in the church to the present day, many prominent families of the denomination have been connected with this church at various periods. The families of three former bishops of the Evangelical church now attend this church regularly.

The anniversary sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. H. B. Hartzler, editor of "The Evangelical," at 10.30 to-morrow morning. The evening sermon will be preached by the pastor, Dr. D. S. Kennedy.

The preacher at Pine Street Presbyterian church to-morrow will be the Rev. Dr. David S. Kennedy, the well-known editor of "The Presbyterian." Dr. Kennedy is well-known as a preacher and an editor. At the morning service of the church he will speak on "Preparedness," Matthew 25:12. In the evening his topic will be "Opportunity," Matthew 25:12. The musical program will be as follows:

Morning—Anthem, "Glorious things of Thee are spoken," Shelly; anthem, "How long, O Lord, wilt Thou forget me?" Blueger.

Evening—Quartet, "I will lay me down in peace," Gadsby; anthem, "What are these," Stainer; solo by Mr. Sutton, "O God have mercy," (St. Paul), Mendelssohn.

The last of the men's missionary discussion groups will be held on Monday evening at 8.30 o'clock. The attendance at these meetings has averaged about eighty-five and much interest has been shown. The mission study campaign for the women of the church is planned to begin the week of February 21, when it is hoped to enlist many in a definite study of mission work.

The Pine Street Christian Endeavor Society is having interesting prayer meetings on Sunday evenings at 6.30. Attendance and interest are both increasing. More than eighty were present at the last meeting. The fifty-seventh anniversary of Pine Street Sunday school will be observed in the Technical High school auditorium on February 21 at 1.30 p. m. The program is being arranged at the present time and promises to be very interesting. This large school is growing in enrollment and attendance. The topic for consideration at the mid-week service on Wednesday evening will be "The Profitableness of Prayer."

Bible Class Memorial
The Rev. S. W. Herma will preach a special sermon to the Men's Bible class of Zion church to-morrow evening when the annual memorial service will be held. The class will attend in a body.

The Immanuel Presbyterian Sunday school will observe its eighth anniversary to-morrow. Frank Palmer will address the school.

Foreign mission Sunday will be observed at Salem Reformed church. To-morrow night will be "Song Night" at the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal church. Thirteenth and Vernon streets. The new junior choir with one hundred and thirty-one members will sing. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker will talk on "The Measureless Might of Song." A half hour of social fellowship and conversation will follow the service. At the morning service at 10.30 o'clock the sermon subject will be "The Undeified Statesman."

The Rev. Floyd Appleton, rector of St. Paul's church, will conduct a service and preach at 4 o'clock to-morrow at the residence of Edward Knabe, Beal avenue and State road, Enola.

WILLIAM H. BODMER DIES
Succumbs After Short Illness From Pneumonia—Had Been Suffering for Years, However

William H. Bodmer, aged 69 years, died yesterday afternoon after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia. Although Mr. Bodmer had not been in good health for a number of years, his illness did not prevent him from being about.

Mr. Bodmer was born September 4, 1845, in Highspire. At an early age he learned the stone mason trade, working in that capacity until seven years ago, when he was disabled by an accident. Mr. Bodmer was an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for many years and assisted in constructing many of the large bridges along the main line.

Mr. Bodmer is survived by the following sons and daughters: Edwin G. W. Hillorius A., Israel C., Augustus G. and Clarence F. Bodmer, Mrs. Margaret A. Potter, Mrs. Ivy L. Clouser and Miss Justina Bodmer, and nine grandchildren. Brothers and sisters who survive are Edward Bodmer, Highspire; Mrs. W. E. Orth, Mrs. Sadie Crownschild and Mrs. Carrie Douglas, all of this city.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Edward W. Bodmer, 1711 Walnut street. The Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren church, will be in charge of the services. Interment will be in the East Harrisburg cemetery.

E. spread to Ceylon, three years after, and then to many other countries. Last year was the best year in the history in the line of progress. Chicago, Pittsburgh and other places are far greater than ever before. The purpose of C. E. week is to take a new enthusiasm and look forward for a great spiritual uplift. I congratulate you on the coming State convention, and invite you to the world's convention at Chicago.

I attended a convention where the program was printed in twelve different languages. God blessed this work because we have a fundamental principle. He further made mention of the efficiency campaign, increase campaign, C. E. experts, twenty field secretaries, C. E. National Peace Union, Endeavorers in seven armies at war, the quiet hour, international world's building to be erected at Boston to which forty-three different countries have contributed; C. E. week gathering day and great decision day on next Sunday and the tenth league.

The Peace Pledge was recited and adopted by the Endeavorers. It is as follows:
