TABERNACLE CAMPAIGN TO CONTINUE FEW DAYS LONGER

Evangelistic Services at Mechanicsburg Not to Close To-night, as Originally Intended—The Usual Services to Be Held To-morrow

Mechanicsburg, Feb. 15.—The tabernacle campaign will not close to-night, as planned. The revival fires are burning so brightly that it was decided last night to continue the meetings for a few days longer. So the farewell meeting announced for to-night will not be held, but Evangelist Miller and his party kept to-day as rest day, and the usual services will be held to-morrow.

On Saturday evening, for the third time, a large delegation was present from Eberly's Mills. They brought with them a substantial evidence of their appreciation of the Miller party in the form of a large cake and a money gift.

Ham, fried chicken and valentines were new items among the numerous gifts to the Miller party. The Rev. George Fulton, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, was surprised by receiving a large cake with a valentine greeting.

The choir sang "Some One's Last Call" and the male octet sang "The Wayside Cross," with Prof. Hohgatz as soloist, with the electric cross illuminating the darkened tabernacle.

Evangelist Miller preached from the text, "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian," Acts 26:28.

He showed that to become a Christian means not simply believing in Jesus Christ, but believing on him; means a complete change of heart, the casting of our sins into the depths of the sea and hope beyond the grave.

"Almost cannot avail. The saddest tragedies of life are those that are almost averted." "Paul was not insane as Festus thought, but every man or woman who refuses to be altogether persuaded to escape eternal destruction is playing the part of a madman."

Six men rushed down the aisle to clasp the evangelist's hand before the first woman came. Husband and wives came together, or met at the front of the tabernacle as penitents. One woman came with a child in her arms. In all, fifty-five responded to the appeal.

Yesterday morning the co-operating churches held a short Sunday school service, after which Evangelist Miller preached in the tabernacle. He preached more particularly to Christians, basing his sermon on Jesus' experience in Gethsemane, when eight of the disciples went with Him into the garden, but only three went with Him to the inner recesses and none in His deepest agony.

Before the afternoon preaching service over 300 men met with Mr. Miller and Mrs. Bowman in the tabernacle to make preliminary arrangements for continuing the work and conserving the results of the campaign. A men's Bible class was formed which it is believed will be preliminary to the organization of a Y. M. C. A. The following men were elected officers: President, Charles Eberly; vice president, J. L. Young; secretary, R. H. Thomas, Jr.; treasurer, Robert H. Ross; directors, Dr. H. A. Surface, J. W. Geiger, Guy H. Lucas, A. B. Harshbarger, E. F. Stone, Dr. J. A. Kilmore, John L. Weaver, John A. Davis, George B. Hurst, J. Z. Prowell, J. G. Bentz.

Two great meetings were held yesterday afternoon, the men's meeting in the tabernacle and the women's meeting in the First U. B. church. Mr. Miller spoke to 1,200 men on the subject,

"Be Sure Your Sin Will Find You Out"

Special music was rendered by a quartet composed of Dr. Eisenhower and Messrs. Hollinger, Brandt and Lucas. At this meeting thirty-four men decided for Christ. At the women's meeting Mrs. Bowman spoke to a crowded house on "The Second Coming of Christ." There were seven decisions at this meeting.

At 6 o'clock last evening Mrs. Bowman met the converts in the Bethel of the Church of God. Seats were reserved for them in the tabernacle.

When, near the beginning of last evening's service in the tabernacle, Professor Hohgatz announced that the decisions had passed the one thousand mark, the strains of "Old Hundred" sounded out for squares away, as everybody sang "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow."

From the word "To-morrow," Pharaoh's answer to Moses in Exodus 8:10, Mr. Miller preached an impressive warning. "I agree with you that Pharaoh was a fool; but you are doing the very same thing. He hoped to be saved in some other way than by putting himself under obligations to God; you know there was no other way for him; you know there is no other way for you. The greatest tragedies of the world's history are written because people say 'To-morrow.' To-day is the day of salvation."

Again thrilling scenes were enacted as husbands and wives, parents and children, met as they came forward to confess their sins and accept Christ. Three times as the evangelist was about to close the meeting he was interrupted by the coming of another penitent, the last man coming just as the benediction was about to be pronounced.

At all the services yesterday a free will offering was received for the evangelist. The amount received was about $1,400. Mr. Miller came with no stipulation or suggestion as to the amount of his compensation, but simply with the arrangement for a free will offering on the last Sunday of the campaign. What he has done for Mechanicsburg can never be estimated in dollars and cents.

Last evening the Citizen Fire Company presented to the evangelist a cross of hardwood, with decorations of ribbons in the company's colors, with the legend "God Will Take Care of You" (a hymn which many of our brethren have learned to sing with new meaning), and a unique arrangement of gold half-eagles and quarter-eagles, making the gift substantial as well as beautiful.

Acute Indigestion Fatal to Woman

Simple Living Economy

Isn't scrimping one's food, or subsisting on an unpalatable diet, but it's cutting out indigestibles, surplus quantities; and planning meals to balance up essential food values.

The ordinary diet is generally deficient in some of these values, such as the mineral elements, the lack of which is often responsible for anemia, listlessness, nervous breakdown, and general inefficiency.

A daily ration of

Grape-Nuts

has been a boon to thousands. Made of prime, hard wheat and malted barley, it contains all nutriment—including the vital mineral elements, phosphate of potash, etc., which Nature has bountifully stored in these rich food grains.

Grape-Nuts is long-baked, very easy to digest, and comes ready to eat from the package. A crisp, appetizing food that combines good, simple living and true economy.
