

The Star-Independent

(Established in 1876) Published by THE STAR PRINTING COMPANY, Star-Independent Building, 10-20-22 South Third Street, Harrisburg, Pa. Every Evening Except Sunday

Officers: President, JOHN L. L. KUHN; Vice-President, WM. E. METZGER; Secretary and Treasurer, WM. W. WALLOWER; Business Manager, WM. H. WARNER; Editor, V. HUMMEL BERGMAN, JR.

THE STAR-INDEPENDENT Circulation Examined by THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN ADVERTISERS. TELEPHONE: 2280. CUMBERLAND VALLEY No. 245-2266.

Delivered by carriers at 6 cents a week. Mailed to subscribers for Three Dollars a year in advance.

Calendar for February 1915 showing days of the week and dates from Sun. to Sat.

MOON'S PHASES—Last Quarter, 7th; New Moon, 13th; First Quarter, 21st.

WEATHER FORECASTS Harrisburg and vicinity: Partly cloudy and cooler to-night with lowest temperature about freezing. Wednesday fair.

YESTERDAY'S TEMPERATURE IN HARRISBURG Highest, 47; lowest, 40; 8 a. m., 44; 8 p. m., 43.

POSSIBILITIES OF AN INFANT

It is well that President Wilson's grandson, the White House baby whose entrance into the world has been considered so very important an event, is blissfully unaware of the predictions about him which are being made and the grand possibilities which are being ascribed to him.

That Francis Sayre will at some future date be the political ruler of the world is the interpretation which has been made of a Persian savant's reading of the stars.

It is not unlikely that for the present Master Francis would rather have the moon than the earth, if he follows at all the inclinations of normal infants upon their first glimpse of the bright heavenly bodies.

This country cannot but feel honored that from it is to spring a ruler of the whole world, yet the revelation has come upon it so suddenly that it can hardly believe that the Persian's prophecy properly applies to the unsuspecting White House baby.

However, that may be, it seems that the Persian prophet who thinks a world president has been born, has been laboring under the delusion that a ruler must be the offspring of a ruler, a not uncommon idea in his corner of the world.

Setting a time to pay debts They have established what they call "Pay-Up Week" in Waukon, a little town in Wisconsin.

They have established what they call "Pay-Up Week" in Waukon, a little town in Wisconsin. The object is for creditors to take particular pains to make collections and for debtors to endeavor especially to meet their obligations.

The idea of setting apart one week each year for the payment of debts may seem strange to persons who pass through a pay-up period the first of each month, year in and year out; yet all bills are not always paid on the first of the month, and there are even some bills, between friends for instance, that are not submitted periodically like ordinary duns.

It can readily be seen how a generally observed pay-up week would do much to remedy thoughtlessness in the matter of meeting obligations.

What a joy a successful pay-up week might be in Harrisburg if such a thing were possible, to the grocers, the butchers, the bakers, the doctors and all the other business and professional men who keep extensive records of patrons failing to make return for goods received or services rendered!

VOTE-BUYING IN A RURAL DISTRICT

The finding of 1,104 indictments in Pike county, Kentucky, the largest county, territorially, in that state, against men who sold their votes regularly at every election, in many cases for a mere pittance, makes a most interesting story of political corruption at this particular time when purity of elections has been the foremost theme in the preachments of the modern reformer.

Had we heard of this wholesale indictment in New York, or Chicago or Philadelphia we might not have been so much amazed at the disclosures, but here was a strictly rural district and it was shown in court that votes were bought and sold as a regular traffic, and the man who had the most money was almost certain to be elected.

It is interesting to note that of the entire voting population but three women have been found thus far who have been indicted for selling their votes.

The trials were not without their pathetic incidents. One man who had sold his ballot for $3 was fined $125, but so pitifully did he beg to be permitted to go free to work for his starving family that the court paroled him to work out the fine.

From all accounts this is the worst instance of corruption at the polls that has been made public since the conviction of 1,200 voters in Adams county, Ohio, a few years ago for the same offense.

There are rumblings that may grow to the proportions of a full-sized boom for Taft in 1916.

James J. Hill is starting a campaign to increase the amount of live stock raised in the Northwest. Here's hoping it will bring down the price of beef!

A statue of Venus has been stolen from a park in Hoboken. Perhaps the idea of a goddess living in Hoboken did not appeal to the thief's idea of the fitness of things.

The Pennsylvania Threshermen's and Farmers' Protective Association is in convention here and will ask for some legislation designed to benefit the agriculturists the delegates represent.

Another Historic Relic Removed If the ancient Penn charter has gotten away from the State Capitol for good it will not be the first historical relic that has gotten away from the seat of government and cannot now be returned.

TOLD IN LIGHTER VEIN

OUR FLAG The American flag is neither a subterfuge nor a target.—Baltimore American.

RETRIBUTION All wounded feelings over a stolen kiss can sometimes be healed by giving it back.—Washington Post.

CABBAGE? Hokus—"What makes you think he is a vegetarian?" Pokus—"I have smoked his cigars."—Judge.

EVENTUALLY Of course we shall soon be rid of wooden railway cars. They'll all burn after collisions.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

RESURRECTED Heiny—"Say, I've got a new joke for you, Omar." Omar—"Where did you dig it up—in a graveyard?"—Indianapolis Star.

AMONG THE BRIC A BRAC The modern idea of house decoration is to have nothing that is not useful. Out go many ornamental wives.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

RIGHTLY INDIGNANT "I understand your husband lost his suit on a technicality, Mrs. Nurich."

"Pardon me, sir; I'll have you understand that my husband pays cash for his clothes."—Buffalo Express.

Tongue-End Topics

McClain for an Orderly Senate

For years certain slipshod methods of transacting business in the Senate have been the bane of the desk clerks, they finding it almost impossible to keep an accurate journal because of the fact that the regular order of business was constantly being broken in upon.

Two "Originals" of Charter

It is barely possible that the "original" charter of the land patent granted by Charles II, King of England, to William Penn, first Governor of Pennsylvania, now on exhibition in a shop on Fifth avenue, New York, is one of the "originals" brought to this country, but it is not possible to say whether it is "the" first copy of that highly interesting document.

Skillful Pen Copy of Charter

While the old charter hung in the State Department a clever penman in that department made a copy of it, and it is this latter copy, handsomely framed, that hangs now in the Division of Public Records in the State Library building.

Another Historic Relic Removed

If the ancient Penn charter has gotten away from the State Capitol for good it will not be the first historical relic that has gotten away from the seat of government and cannot now be returned.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the restlessness with which many people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects.

Escaped the Capitol Fire

Of course, fifty years' possession means that Philadelphia will never again permit the famous chair to be taken from Independence Hall, and nobody cares to dispute Philadelphia's ownership at this day, all agreeing that the chair is in its proper place.

THE GULFER AND THE CADDY

For the Harrisburg Reservoir Park Golf Club On a bright Tuesday we were up and off,

I carried the bag and made the tee, She scarcely deigned a kind look for me,

But when I ventured her game to praise, She met my words with a stoney gaze,

She drove with grace and she drove with skill, She drove right through my heart and will,

But when I ventured her game to praise, She met my words with a stoney gaze,

And when I was slow the ball to find She mimed no words as she spoke her mind,

Humbled, yet happy I trudged by her side, Doubting, yet hoping to make her my bride,

The weather changed to a scorching heat, She scolded me then in terms not meet,

She sat her down on a shady bank, On the soft green grass by her side I sank,

She edged away with an angry frown, Swept from my touch the fold of her gown,

But my love leaped forth from my hungry eyes, And my hand stretched out to seize the prize,

How dare you sir! Was her stern command, I was the caddy, she was the boss.

I dared her wrath and I grasped her hand, She was the caddy, I was the boss.

My lady fair you will have to hear I have loved you well for many a year, She was the caddy, I was the boss.

My ardent love I plead with power We plighted our troth in that same hour, She was the caddy, I was the boss.

We turned our steps on the homeward way, Oh! life was sweet on that bright June day! She was the caddy, I was the boss.

At the altar we pledged our sacred vows, She was the caddy, I was the boss.

Once we had entered our little house I was the caddy, she was the boss.

A few brief months of a lover's life She was the caddy, I was the boss.

Through the long, long years to save me strife, I am the caddy, she is the boss.

Photoplay Chaplin's initial appearance in Essanay comedies at the Photoplay Saturday was received by a record-breaking crowd and "His New Job" was a winner.

Omega Oil

FOR Swellings & Inflammation Rub Omega Oil gently over the place that hurts. Then soak a piece of flannel with the Oil, lay it on the painful part and cover with a piece of dry flannel.

Harrisburg Hospital

The Harrisburg Hospital is open daily except Sunday, between 1 and 2 o'clock p. m. for dispensing medical advice and prescriptions to those unable to pay for them.

THE GLOBE THE GLOBE

The February Final Clearaway Presents a Timely Sale of Custom-Tailored Ready-to-Wear Serge and Worsted Suits

The Serge Suits Are $20 Values at $13.75

The Worsted Suits $16.75 Are $22.50 & $25 Values at

The Serge Suits are medium weight "fade-proof" blues—plain or self striped—an all year round dressy garment—very popular model. Neat, conservative Silk Mixed Worsted Suits—worsted as pure as can be woven—as true as steel in wear—and in appearance—always right.

Hundreds of Shirts In Our February Clearaway

Shirts for work—for dress—for every practical use—at exceptional savings.

$1.00 and $1.50 Shirts at 79c $2.50 Silk Shirts are $1.75 $3.50 $1.50 Silk Striped Shirts, 1.00 50c Work Shirts are 35c $2.00 Shirts are $1.29 Or 3 for $1.00

THE GLOBE

TOWER CITY

Funeral of Robert Adams, Who Died in Pottsville Hospital

Tower City, Feb. 16.—The funeral of Robert I. Adams, a resident of Clark's Valley, who died in the Pottsville hospital, was held at this place on Saturday morning.

Charles Knecht spent a few days with relatives at Pottsville. The Rev. O. G. Romig, pastor of the United Brethren church, spent several days last week with his family at Hershey.

Miss Luau E. Brosius spent several days at Reading and Pottsville. Miss Isabelle Rosegrant, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stephens.

The revival services in the Methodist Episcopal church are still in progress. The Rev. O. G. Romig preached on Saturday evening.

Miss Marion Sheeple, assistant teacher of the High school, died on Thursday morning, aged 18 years. She came from Gettysburg to this place last August. Her body was taken to Gettysburg for burial. She is survived by a mother and two brothers.

At a medical college a class was being examined in anatomy, and one student was asked, "What muscles have their origin in the popliteal space?" "Well," said the bright student, "there's that one with the darned long name, and I don't remember the other two."—Boston Transcript.

YOU'RE going to want a new Spring hat one of these days—Well, this time, let it be a hat that will not need a word of explanation—in short a Stetson.

This exclusive hat store is headquarters for Stetsons. Pick yours to-day.

POULTON 5 N. THIRD ST. "WHERE THE STYLES ORIGINATE"

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC ALL THIS WEEK CHAS. K. CHAMPLIN TO-NIGHT THE LITTLE REBEL TO-MORROW

Mat.—The Stranger, Night.—The Reformer, Thur. Mat.—The Master of the House, Thur. Eve.—The Heart of Maryland.

PRICES: Mats, 10c and 20c; Nights, 10c, 20c, 30c, 50c; Sat. Mat., 10c, 20c and 30c.

REGENT P. Magaro, Owner and Manager Hours, 12 Noon to 11 P. M. FARMOUNT PROGRAM TO-DAY—MARY PICKFORD IN "Behind The Scenes"

A Story of Stage Life—5 Reels Also High Grade Comedies "The Minuteman," "The Girl and the Waiter," "His Last Dollar," A Powerful dramatic feature, 5 reels Admission, 10c Children, 5c

ORPHEUM MARX BROTHERS and a company of 16, in the Musical Comedy Hit, HOME AGAIN Van and Schenck Monarchs of Song BIG SUPPORTING BILL

COLONIAL AL LEWIS & CO. Presenting THE NEW LEADER A Big Time Vaudeville Act—First Time at Cheap Prices Laughs For Everybody MILE, RIALTO "THE ARTIST'S DREAM" Country Store Wednesday Night

PHOTOPLAY TO-DAY

EXTRA Charles Chaplin in His Second Essanay Release "HIS NIGHT OUT"

Another 2 reeler. It's Got "His New Job," (which you saw at our theatre Saturday) beaten to a frazzle.

CHAPLIN'S THE GUY THAT HAS THE WORLD LAUGHING "THE APARTMENT HOUSE MYSTERY"—2 Reel Kalem Girl Detective Series, featuring Ruth Roland, "A NIGHT'S ADVENTURE"—2 Act Lubin.

Special Wednesday and Thursday "THE PERFECT WOMAN," ANNETTE KELLERMAN In "NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER," a wild, weird, startling spectacle. Special Admission, from 5 a. m. to 8 p. m.—Children, 5c; Adults, 10c. From 8 p. m. to 11 p. m.—Children, 10c; Adults, 20c.

VICTORIA "The Woman in Black"

Special To-day An Extraordinary Social Drama A Biograph Feature in Four Reels