LECTURE FUND MISSING Police Seek Manager For the Niece of

Father Mathew
Wilkes-Barre, Feb. 18.—Joseph Collins, who posed as a former secre tary to John Redmond, the Irish leader, and who managed a lecture tour for Miss Kathleen Mathew, niece of Father Mathew, the great Irish temperance advocate, is being sought by the police of this city because he is alleged to have decamped with the proceeds of a lecture given here by Miss Mathew in the interest of the Lady of Victory House.

Miss Mathew lectured here in Klingston and Archbald to well-filled houses, the receipts being $640.

CHARGE IS WITHDRAWN

Suit Against Congressman Brodbeck Not to Be Pressed

York, Feb. 18.—Announcement was made yesterday that the prosecution instituted against Comgressman Brodbeck for an alleged violation of the criminal code of the United States by giving William House, a federal employe, a sum of money to promote his candidacy has been withdrawn.

The action was expected to follow the discontinuance of the contest by Mr. Brodbeck against the seating of C. William Beales, Republican, from the York-Adams district.
