FOR FIFTY-FOUR YEARS A SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER

Tribute Paid to the Weir Family Which Has Served in Market Square Sunday School for One Hundred Years—Judge McCarrell Spoke

The loyalty of one family which has served, officially, the Market Square Presbyterian church for more than one hundred years, was the theme of Judge S. J. McCarrell, principal speaker at the ninety-ninth anniversary exercises held yesterday in the church.

For fifty-four years Miss Anna Weir has served as a teacher and superintendent of the Sunday school of Market Square church. The first member of the family to associate himself with the church and its work, was Samuel Weir, grandfather of Miss Weir, who came to this country from Londonderry Ireland, serving as an elder in the church from 1794 to 1814. James Wallace Weir, an uncle of Miss Weir, served as an elder from 1834 to 1878. John Andrew Weir, father of Miss Weir, was superintendent of the Sunday school from 1858 to 1876 and an elder from 1858 to 1881.

Miss Weir retired several months ago and is now the first superintendent emerita of the school. At the time of her retirement the State Sabbath School Association presented her with a gold medal, similar to the one presented to her yesterday, by Judge McCarrell, in behalf of the session of the church in recognition of her long and faithful service.

Judge McCarrell spoke on "What One Family Did For Our Ninety-ninth Anniversary" and so closely has the history of the Weirs run in the same channel with that of the Sunday school, of which Samuel Weir was one of the founders, that the occasion might have been appropriately called "Weir Day."

A splendid program of music and addresses featured the day and prizes were awarded the following good attendance:

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary
 Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Spengler celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding at their home, 2041 Green street, to-day. Edgar A. Spengler and Miss Louise Bucher were married February 22, 1900, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bucher, 1414 Derry street, by the Rev. J. G. Pfuhl, pastor of the St. Michael's German Lutheran church.

A family dinner was served at noon, and this evening an informal reception will be held with the following members of the family and a few friends in attendance:
 Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bucher, father and mother of Mrs. Spengler; Mrs. Zeppe and children, Louise and Richard, of Mt. Joy, the former a sister of Mrs. Spengler; H. M. Spengler, of Altoona; Miss Moselle K. Spengler and Maxwell F. Spengler, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bucher and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Spengler.

Harrisburg Chapter Celebrates

Harrisburg Chapter, D. A. R., held its annual celebration of Washington's birthday this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Fahnestock hall. One of the most interesting programs ever presented by the chapter was a feature of the celebration followed by a tea with Mrs. Thomas M. Gross pouring, assisted by Mrs. E. Z. Gross and Mrs. S. F. Dunkle.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Martin A. Cumbler, pianist, and Mrs. William K. Brumbaugh, soprano, accompanied by Nowell Albright.
 Mrs. Keala Peay told of the work at the Settlement School at Hindman, Ky., where the chapter supports a little girl and Miss Lois K. Booker, president of the Story Telling Club, told "The Toy Shop," a beautiful story of Lincoln lore.

"Current Events" by the historian, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, "Early Celebrations of Washington's Birthday," an outline of the plans of Legislators for preserving historical sites, and tributes to Miss Sarah Wilhelm, of Paxtang, and Mrs. Ann Moore, of Wayne county, whose deaths occurred recently.

Two delegates were elected to the National Congress which will be held in Washington, D. C., in April. Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., as regent alternate, and Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones as chapter delegate.

The resignation of Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley, regent, was also recorded, and during her absence Mrs. Henry McCormick, presided.

Decorations of small American flags were used about the assembly hall, and a fine portrait of George Washington was suspended directly over the platform. An oriental silver vase filled with red carnations and tall silver candlesticks graced the tea table.
