SNYDER COUNTY BAR DINES President Judge Johnson Is Host at Banquet Selinsgrove, Feb. 24.—President Judga Albert W. Johnson, of the Sny-der Union Judicial District, tendered a banquet last night to the attorneys of the Snyder county bar at the Wash-ington House. After the feast a paper was read by Attorney Andrew A. Leist-er, of Lewisburg, entitled, "Prepara-tion of a Case For Trial." C. Larue Munson, of Williamsport, a law lecturer of Yale College, spoke on "The Trial of a Case in Court." Ex-Judge Harrold M. McClure, of Lewisburg, spoke on the subject, "How the Court Is Assisted by the Bar." All the members of the Snyder coun-Banquet

CONTINUED were generally book covers, they repelled or attracted; and she fo large and undiminishing interest in the faculty of pressing back the covers and reading the text. Often bat-tered covers held treasures, and often the editions de luxe were swindles. But in between the battered covers and the exquisite Florentine hand-tooling there ranged a row of mediocre books; and it was among these that Elsa found that her instinct was not wholly infallible, as will be seen.

Today she was facing the first prob-m of her young life, epochal. She lem of was, as it were, to stop and begin life. And she didn't know she anew. wasn't sure. There were few passengers aboard.

There were three fussy old English maidens under the protection of a still old colonel. The quartet greatly amused Elsa. Their nods were and they spoke in the most formal manner. She was under grave suspicion; in the first place, she was traveling alone, in the second place, she was an American. At table there was generally a desultory conversation and many a barb of malice Elsa shot from her bow. Figuratively, the colonel walked about like a porcupine, bristling with arrows instead of quills. Elsa could have shouted at times, for the old war dog was perfectly obliv-ious. There was, besides, the inevi-
