L., 1914;" a bundle of affectionate letters, bits of ribbons, hair and other trinkets. An envelope addressed to the finder, saying that the contents be destroyed, asked that "I cannot, for my life's hopes are all herein contained." PRETENDED SUICIDE REAL

Girl Took Poison to Frighten Parents —Fiance Seeks to End Life New York, Feb. 25.—Charles Rollberg, uncle of Gertrude L. Pearsall, 17 years old, of Inwood, L. I., who died Saturday night from the effects of poison, said yesterday that the girl took the poison with the idea of "pretending" suicide in order to gain the consent of her parents to her marriage with Henry Holtzuse, also of Inwood. According to the uncle's statement the girl had refused to elope with Holtzuse and arranged to take a mild dose of poison. When she learned that she was dying she begged the physicians to save her life.

Holtzuse, according to Rollberg, has tried three times to kill himself since the death of his fiancee, once by poison, once by hanging and once by throwing himself under a moving train.
