Mechanical Cotton Picker Mechanical Cotton Picker
Should a mechanical cotton picker, recently invented, prove practical it will revolutionize the industry in this country. It is a huge contrivance, driven by one man, much as an automobile is operated, and claim is made that it will pick 95 per cent. of the cotton without injury to the unripe bolls or the plants.

GERMAN MOVEMENT UPON WARSAW NOW PREDICTED

Petrograd, Feb. 26, 12.08 P. M., via London, 1.15 P. M.—Members of the staff of the Russian fermy, comenting on the recent military developments in Northern Poland, all agree that from Przsanysz and Novogorod the Germans hope to develop a movement upo Warsaw. (Przsanysz is the town north of Warsaw and about 15 miles south of the East Prussian frontier which has been the seene of heavy fighting recently and which Berlin declared yesterday had been captured by German troops with a Russian loss of 10,000 prisoners). This movement is being assisted, in their opinion, by the recommencement of an energetic offensive in the vicinity of Moghely.

Against this powerful German advance, which evidently has assumed larger proportions than any previous movement in Russian Poland, the Russian had three strong lines of defense. The first runs from Koyante Olites the ment lake of which was felt keeping.

Rise Most Noticeable in Special Group -Metal Shares Also Prominent-By Noon Most Issues Dropped Back to Near Yesterday's Figures

New York, Feb. 26 .- Wall Street .-Gains were the rule in to-day's early stock market with a fair degree of ac tivity. The rise was most noticeable in the special group, where advances of a point or more were registered. Metal shares also were prominent, the sucess of the Anaconda Copper not offering, acting as a stimulate to those issues. U. S. Steel and Bethlehem Steel reflected a moderate demand. Baldwin Locomotive pfd., with a one noir said. This action hitherto had point decline to 99, was the only stock been spared. oners). This movement is being assisted, in their opinion, by the recommencement of an energetic offensive in the vicinity of Moghely.

Against this powerful German advance, which evidently has assumed larger proportions than any previous movement in Russian Poland, the Russians had three strong lines of defense: The first runs from Kovno to Olita, the latter town being on the Niemen river 30 miles south of Kovno. The second runs from Olita to Grodno and the third line is known as the Bobr-Narew line.

The German advance against these defending lines is proceeding slowly on account of the marshy country and the preparations in order to keep open communication with the German bases.

There have been attacks in the neighborhood of Stabine conducted with great energy and daring. This fighting has been virtually uninterrupted and it invariably has been bayonet engagements, in which the Russians have been checked in their efforts to reach Halicz, an important strategic point on the Dniester river.

Paris, Feb. 26, 5.10 A. M.—The bombardment of Rheims was more se vere on the night of February 21-22 than at any other time, according to C. The memorandum shows that from February 18, when the German blockade began, until February 24, 708 vessels arrived and 673 sailed. The admiralty also gave out the following list of British vessels which have been "sunk by German submarines:" the steamers Cambank, Downshire, Branksome, Chine, Oakby, Rio Parana, Western Coast and Harpalon. It says the steamer Deptford probably struck a mine.

Merely Point of View

It was about 3 o'clock and the fading light in the art gallery of the Public library was beginning to bother the painter woman who faced the sunset canvas with lumpy palette impaled on one thumb and paint brush held hesitatingly in the other hand, while she scrutinized again the intricate blending of sunset colors and backed away a few steps farther to squint at the perspective of the old whaler she was copying as it lurched in painted waves. Details of color blending, of light and shade, of form after the fashion of a painter's sensitive appreciation, undoubtedly filled her mind.
