

SUBURBAN

NEWPORT

Jr. O. U. A. M. to Hold Annual Banquet Next Wednesday
Special Correspondence.
Newport, March 1.—Joseph W. Hunter, first deputy commissioner of the State Highway Department, delivered a lecture with illustrations on Thursday evening in the Men's Association rooms.

The Newport Council No. 614, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold their annual banquet Wednesday.
On the evening of March 15, Stanley L. Krebs, the noted lecturer will deliver his lecture "Two Snakes in Eden" in the Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Myers attended the Billy Sunday meeting in Philadelphia on Thursday.
G. M. Hoffman was in town Thursday evening.
Elias and Samuel Leiby, of Marysville, spent part of last week with their brother, James B. Leiby, who is sick in this place.

H. Stewart Potter, foreman and associate editor of the Halifax " Gazette," formerly of this place, was in town on Thursday.
The Rev. R. M. Ramsey was in Philadelphia last week attending the Billy Sunday meetings.
Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Brimmer spent Wednesday in Philadelphia.

DAUPHIN

Mrs. W. F. Reed Entertains in Honor of Son's Birthday
Special Correspondence.
Dauphin, March 1.—Mrs. W. F. Reed entertained at her home on Erie street, on Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her son Harry. The traditional candle-take graced the center of the table. Dinner was served to Rev. Samuel Maury; address of welcome, I. P. Bogner; address, Edward H. Weigel, Harrisburg, Pa.; address to Old Soldiers, John A. Parthemore, of Steelton; response, secretary, W. P. Clark; address, L. Ira Cargill, ex-district president. Banquet and social followed the program which was enjoyed by all present.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dornier, Camp 424, Penbrook; W. E. Rheim, Camp 424, Progress; Mr. and Mrs. L. Ira Cargill, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Parthemore, of Steelton; Frank Linsay, Camp 8; D. E. Lucas, Camp 424, Harrisburg.
Mrs. Charles Lyter entertained at her home on Erie street, at dinner on Sunday. The guests were: Miss Myrtle Bailets, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Glass and children, James and Grant; Miss Mary Bailets, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyter and children, Rebecca and Vernon; Miss Lydia Mowrey and W. A. Bailets.

LEMOYNE

Firemen's Food Sale and Supper Being Well Patronized
Special Correspondence.
Lemoyne, March 1.—Mrs. Snyder and Miss Klinefelter, of York, visited their sister, Mrs. David Smith, of West Herman avenue.
Miss Fisher, of Goldsboro, was a guest of Mrs. Harry Shank last week.

The firemen's food sale and supper now being held in the Firemen's hall, West Herman avenue, is very successful.
Mrs. Minnie Kimmel and daughter, Beatrice, of Beaver Station, are visiting relatives in this place, their former home.
Leslie Kennedy is recovering from a severe abscess in his head.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Strayer are visiting relatives in York county.
Mrs. Albert Fuller is ill.

MIDDLETOWN

Solomon Gingrich Sells Farm on Which He Lived 55 Years
Special Correspondence.
Middletown, March 1.—The meeting held at the Girls' Club yesterday afternoon was largely attended and was led by Mrs. Fuller Bergstresser. Miss Agnes Markley sang a solo.
Harry Shaffer, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. J. B. Hillman, who had been the guest of Mrs. and Mrs. H. A. McKee for some time, returned to her home at Pittsburgh today.
Mrs. J. C. Lingle has returned home from a several days' visit to Philadelphia.
Solomon Gingrich sold his farm in Londonderry township to W. E. Leshner, of Middlesex, who will take possession April 1. Mr. Gingrich was born and raised on the farm, having lived there for fifty-five years. He will have sale for his farming implements and stock March 23, and will then move to this place.
The special service held yesterday morning by the Junior League of the Riverside chapel and the M. E. church, were largely attended, fully 125 juniors being present. At the evening services the members of the Riverside chapel Sunday school marched to the church in a body, fully 200 being in line. The Rev. W. R. Ridington preached a special sermon to them. Both services were largely attended. At the morning services seven were admitted to church membership.
Charles Mayer left on Saturday for Renovo where he will visit relatives for several days.
Jacob Singer who had been clerk in J. G. Peters' store, resigned his position and left yesterday for Williamsport, where he will spend several days visiting relatives. He will leave for Rochester, N. Y., where he has accepted a position in a large clothing store.
Mrs. Martin Crull and daughter, Miss Laura, have returned home from a week's visit to relatives at New Cumberland.
Mrs. John Brandt and daughter, Annie, of Pike street, have returned home from a several days' visit to relatives at Fairmount.
James Myers moved to-day from Emaus street to the Huntzberger property on Spring street, Benjamin Martin of Kingston, having purchased from Ralph Schaeffer, the home made vacant by Mr. Myers.
John Hite, of Boylston, is ill at his home from the result of a stroke yesterday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. David Durbendorf and two children will leave on Thursday for Washington, Pa., where they will make their future home.

Miss Nora Myers is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, of Water street, Royalton.
W. C. Bailey is spending several days at Baltimore, Md., as the guest of relatives.
Frank Wagner, of Wilson street, who had attack of appendicitis, is improving.

HUMMELSTOWN

Derry Council No. 40, Jr. O. U. A. M., to Hold Banquet March 15
Special Correspondence.
Hummelstown, March 1.—Arrangements are being made by Derry Council No. 40, Junior Order United American Mechanics, to hold a banquet in Jr. O. U. A. M. hall on Monday evening, March 15. An invitation will be extended to every member of the council to be present. Frank C. Witmer, Harry Hemperly and H. Wells Buser, chairman, are the committee on arrangements for the banquet.
Thomas Jacks has returned from Allentown, where he spent two weeks with his brother, David Jacks.
Mrs. Emma Brinser and Miss Alma Brinser were visitors in Harrisburg Saturday.
Dr. Nile Crist has returned from a week's visit to Philadelphia.
The Rev. Scott R. Wagner, pastor of the Second Reformed church, Reading, will preach at the Lenten services in the Reformed church on Wednesday evening.
H. L. McCoy has sold his frame dwelling house on West High street to Samuel Shope, who will occupy the property April 1.
The third anniversary of the dedication of the United Brethren church was observed yesterday. The Rev. A. K. Wier, of Steelton, preached the sermon at the morning service and last evening about forty new members were admitted to church fellowship.
Mrs. Caroline Nisley will entertain the members of the Women's Missionary Society and ladies of the Reformed church at her home on West Main street on Thursday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCormick, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mrs. McCormick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCall, yesterday.
Harry Schaffner, formerly employed in H. Frank's restaurant, has opened an auto supply store in the old postoffice building in Centre square.
The patrons' meeting which was to have been held in the High school last week will be held on Tuesday evening. The interesting program arranged for the previous meeting will be rendered and an address delivered by Elmer E. Erb, of Hockersville.
The consistency of the Reformed church will meet this evening at the home of Newton Gordon on West Main street.
Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wright, of Wormleysburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacks yesterday.
Mrs. Dolly Anderson, of Rutherford Heights, spent yesterday with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wolaver.
During the past week subscriptions for stock in the new mop manufacturing industry were solicited and nearly the entire amount of stock sold. The old band hall has been secured for a manufacturing plant and the machinery for the making of the mops will likely be placed in the building during the next few weeks.
Mrs. Victor Dippell, of Lancaster, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fox.
Miss Nelda Hummel has returned to the Cumberland Valley State Normal School at Shippensburg after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hummel, for several days.
Herbert Schaffner, of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schaffner.

TOWER CITY

Funeral of the Late Mrs. John Shomper Held Saturday Morning
Special Correspondence.
Tower City, March 1.—Christian Neidinger spent several days at Harrisburg, serving as a witness in the Budd-Phillips land case.
John Kuntzelman spent a day at Pottsville.
Prof. H. M. Rieckert attended the funeral of a relative at Reading.
William A. Jones, George Neyer and Samuel Fesig transacted business at Pottsville.
Mrs. Roy Lebo and the Misses Helen and Adolphine Long transacted business at Philadelphia.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heary, of Reading, were the guests of his parents, Prof. and Mrs. F. P. Henry.
The body of the late Frank B. Schneider, who died in Philadelphia on last Sunday, was brought to this place on Friday forenoon. The body was taken to Orwin for burial. The funeral services were held in the Lutheran and Reformed church at that place and were conducted by a clergyman from Philadelphia, assisted by the Rev. Ira P. Frankfield, of this place. The deceased was aged 49 years and is survived by an aged mother, his wife, two sons and three daughters.
This community was shocked when the death of Violet, wife of John Shomper, which took place on Tuesday evening, was announced. She had been ailing for several months with rheumatism, but her condition was not considered serious. She was aged 37 years and is survived by a husband and seven small children, the youngest being only six weeks old. The funeral was held on Saturday and the services were conducted by the Rev. Ira P. Frankfield. Interment was made at Orwin.
The Rev. O. G. Romig preached at the revival services in the Methodist church on Friday evening.
Miss Laura Keck and Miss Ruth Frankfield visited relatives at Kutztown.

Harrisburg. He was a member of the Lancaster county and State medical societies and at the time of his death he had a large town and rural practice. He was the attending physician at the Masonic Home and was the prime mover in getting the Masonic fraternity to select this site here for the present home. His funeral was private and was held from his late home at 1 o'clock this afternoon and was in charge of a committee of Masons from Columbia Lodge No. 286, of which he was an active member. The interment was in Mt. Tunnel cemetery, under Masonic rites.
Senator E. E. and Mrs. Beidleman and daughter, Katharine, of Harrisburg, were the guests of Mrs. Beidleman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. R. Nisley, South Market street, Sunday.
The J. C. Witmer livery stable outfit and transfer lines has been purchased by Mr. Keefer, of Harrisburg.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Buch and daughter, Mary, spent Sunday at Hummelstown as the guests of Mrs. Buch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Nisley.

WEST FAIRVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. John Seifert Give Dinner to Their Friends
Special Correspondence.
West Fairview, March 1.—Mr. and Mrs. John Seifert gave a dinner to some of their many friends yesterday at their home on what was formerly the Sample farm, at Sample's bridge, but is now owned by H. W. Neidig, of this place. Mr. Seifert has been tenant on this farm for twenty years, but will retire from farming this spring, and therefore the dinner. The guests of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Adams Enolis; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Zeigler, Mrs. Mary McCartney, Mrs. Jerry McCartney, Mrs. William Musser and daughter, John Vopelung and Daniel Lauver, of Mechanicsburg; Mrs. Emma Penacov, of Penbrook; Mrs. Cora Kauffman, Mr. and Mrs. George Mann, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Neidig, of this place.
James Gladfelter sold the island farm above town to Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, of Philadelphia.
Mrs. Carrie Gandy, of Marysville, visited her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Enzor.
Miss Aveline Richmond and friend, Winfield Wilson, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mrs. A. E. Marzoff on Saturday.
Miss Myrtle Paules and Miss Rebecca Hershey, of Red Lion, and Miss Mary Peiphe, of Harrisburg, were guests at the U. B. paragon Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Alvena Richmond left to-day for Mt. Alto, where she will accept a position at the sanitarium.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Curry and children, Sophia, Albert and Paul, were at Philadelphia yesterday.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Williams Valley Mining Institute To Meet Tomorrow Evening
Special Correspondence.
Williams town, March 1.—The Williams Valley Mining Institute will hold its monthly meeting in the Parochial Hall to-morrow evening when an excellent program will be rendered as follows: Selection, Thompson's Orchestra; vocal solo, C. Roy Evans; "Modern Preparation of Coal," Dennis Doras, Coal Inspector of the Wyoming District; piano solo, Raymond Miller; vocal quintet "Annie Laurie," John E. Phillips, Thomas Bond, Sr., Thomas Bond, Jr. and Charles Parker; piano and violin duo, James Thompson and Miss Beatrice Bond; "Safety in and About the Mines," Charles Parker; song and chorus, William Phillips, chorus, quintet; selection, Thompson's Orchestra.
Monroe Adams who died at his home in Shenandoah early Monday morning, was buried from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Adams, West Broad street, Thursday afternoon. Interment was in the M. E. cemetery with the Rev. E. E. Bender officiating. The deceased is survived by a wife.
The colliery worked three days last week.
Miss Minnie Mace was a caller at Tower City, Thursday evening.
The hardware store of Edward Rowe was broken into late Wednesday evening and robbed of several revolvers, knives, cartridges and safety razors. Paul Bates and Thomas Procasco, who were seen loitering around the store earlier in the evening were suspected and Chief of Police Reisig was sent to place them under arrest, when Bates attempted to escape. He was about a mile below town when sighted by Reisig. He ran through a field and was wading through the Wisconsin Creek when he was ordered to stop. He then gave himself up and had two loaded revolvers in his possession. The suspects were given a hearing before Squire Wren and committed to the county jail.

ELIZABETHTOWN

Dr. A. C. Treichler Dies After a Week's Illness
Special Correspondence.
Elizabethtown, March 1.—Dr. Abraham C. Treichler, aged 70 years, one of the oldest physicians of the borough, died on Saturday evening at his residence on South Market street after an illness of a week following a stroke of apoplexy. He is survived by a wife and the following children: Mrs. Frank Seaman, Camp Hill; Annie Treichler, nurse, New York City; Walter H. Treichler, Rock Island, Ill.; Mrs. Walter H. Engle, Miss Ray Treichler and Dr. Vene Treichler, all of town. The deceased was a member of St. Elizabeth chapel of the Episcopal church, of this place. He was also a member of Elizabethtown Lodge No. 128, I. O. O. F.; Cyrene Commandery, Knights Templar of Masons, at Columbia, and Zemo Temple, A. A. N. M. S., of

LINGLESTOWN

Miss Mabel Feser Entertains in Honor of Her Sister
Special Correspondence.
Linglestown, March 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Craber, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Raber and daughter, Mildred, of Penbrook, spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Crum, the former being seriously afflicted with rheumatism.
Mrs. William Hoster, of Penbrook, on Sunday, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Hetrich.
Mrs. William Look and Mrs. George Goss spent Friday at Harrisburg. They visited Mrs. Fann B. Kenestoe, who is improving under the care of her daughter, Sara, a trained nurse.
James Snyder will erect a bungalow with all the modern conveniences on his fruit farm this spring.
Prof. H. B. King visited Zion's school on Friday afternoon.
Miss Vera Care, of Irving College, Mechanicsburg, was the weekend guest of her mother, Mrs. Fannie Care.
Mrs. Emma Horst, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Berger.
Samuel Balthaser, of Newark, N. J., was the weekend guest of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Balthaser.
The Misses Sallie and Ellen Myers, of Oberlin, spent Sunday in the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Hetrich.
Nevin W. Moyer, teacher of Morganza school, will be glad to receive all information relating to the earlier years of Linglestown, its inhabitants, their occupation or trade, incidents connected therewith in order to make the anniversary of the town's one hundred and fiftieth year to be celebrated some time in 1915. The deep interest Mr. Moyer manifests for the town of his birth as well as many others, should be encouraged.
Miss Mabel Feser delightfully entertained at her home on Saturday evening in honor of her sister, Dorothy's twenty-first birthday. Games, music and contests were features of the Advertisement for Bowman's Silks. Features include: 'Demonstrating to-morrow how rice may boil dry in Wear-Ever Aluminum without burning.' 'New Silks--Exquisite in Design; Splendid Qualities; And Yards By the Hundreds--Enter This Spring Sale of Silks.' 'Commencing To-morrow--Tuesday And Continuing Until March 11th.' 'They're new--they're gorgeous! The weaves represent the latest that Fashion has authorized. Designs are rich in new features and clever effects, while a beautiful lustre gives distinction.' 'Effort has been made to secure only the most serviceable qualities from reliable manufacturers, and as to values, well, The Following Low Prices Speak for Themselves.' Lists prices for various silk items like Silk Marquisette, Wash Habutai, Silk Gros DeLondres, etc. Includes an illustration of a woman in a dress.

Advertisement for H.M. Kelley & Co. Features include: 'March Winds Chill the Home' 'You can't afford to grow careless with regard to your furnace and your coal supply, simply because it's March. March winds, especially if there's cold weather, as often happens, will play havoc with the comfort of your home unless you keep the furnace doing full duty with Kelley's Coal.' 'Kelley's Hard Stove at $6.70 is best for the average furnace.' 'H. M. KELLEY & CO. 1 N. Third Street Tenth and State Streets' 'LABORING MEN DEFRAUDED' 'Five Hundred Pay 50 Cents Each to Obtain Employment' 'Pittsburgh, March 1.—The dream of employment of 500 persons who had paid 50 cents dues to join a union which entitled them to a "job" in $2,000,000 steel-rail plant, to be built at McKees Rocks, were shattered when the "agent" for the company was jailed. The baggage of the agent, who registered as "Mr. Walter Riggs," contained a few pieces of old clothing. Riggs said he represented a big Eastern corporation which was looking for site. Hensel Funeral To-morrow Lancaster, Pa., March 1.—The body of ex-Attorney General W. U. Hensel, who died in Savannah, Ga., on Saturday morning, arrived home last night. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, this city.' 'DIVER WILL SEEK $200,000 Gets Permit to Go After Gold in Long-Sunken Ship' 'Port Townsend, Wash., March 1.—F. Stagger, a marine diver, received an official permit from the War Department to save the Russian sloop of war Neva, wrecked off Cape Discomb, near Sitka, Alaska, about 60 years ago. The Neva was en route to Sitka with about $200,000 in gold to pay the crews of the Government vessels stationed at Sitka and other Government officers. After striking the reef she was abandoned and later slid into deep water. The Russian Government tried to obtain the gold, but abandoned the effort for lack of a proper wrecking outfit. Stagger will begin work about May.' 'Bible Class held a very interesting study hour. The meetings this month will be held in Grace Evangelical church, Miss Leile George is the teacher.' 'The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Trinity Lutheran church held a meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. A. Ort, E. Main street.' 'Main Floor--BOWMAN'S.'