CHILD GETS SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

Bethlehem, March 2.—In the appointments announced last night by Bishop W. H. Fouke at the closing session of the East Pennsylvania conference of the United Evangelical church, the Rev. G. F. Schaum was returned to the Harris street church, Harrisburg, and Rev. A. E. Hangen, of Mohnton, was named pastor of the Park street church to succeed the Rev. J. A. Sellers, who left the pastorate last September to study for the Presbyterian ministry.

Since the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Sellers, the Park street church has been temporarily in charge of the Rev. A. M. Samsel. The Rev. Mr. Hangen, who will now enter upon the duties of the pastorate, goes to Harrisburg from Mohnton, near Reading, where he has preached for many years.

Thomas Krause received credentials to the Northwestern Conference, and the Rev. Newton Hess, of Shillington, to the church at large.

In the appointments of ministers to new charges chief interest centered, and to the Rev. C. H. Haman, who is celebrating his sixtieth anniversary, as a minister, was presented a huge bouquet of carnations, and Bishop R. Dabs, who is ill at Harrisburg, was sent also a bouquet of flowers.

Can You Play the Piano?

A PIANO is always a fascination—particularly to the person who loves music, but is not a musician; that is a trained musician. Can you play a piano? How often, though, do you sit down and "pick out" with one finger the melody of some composition of which you are fond, and always turn away with a suppressed wish that you could play? You are the one for whom the Player-Piano—was conceived. A piano which an untrained musician might play. You perhaps "know all about" this and that player-piano. Nearly every player-piano is called "Best." You've heard it time and again. All we ask is, that you see and hear and play the Angelus before you make a final decision. You'll be more than glad you did so.

Angelus prices range from $700 up, payable monthly, quarterly or otherwise. Your present piano accepted in exchange. Ask about our music-roll Library.

3 BLONDE SISTERS IN ONE COMPANY

Here are three sisters, and all blondes, who are appearing in the same cast. They are the Misses Dana, Ethel and Gladys Sykes. They are members of Charles B. Dillingham's musical comedy company in "Watch Your Step," now playing in New York, and this is their first season together. Several years separate the sisters in age, yet they resemble one another closely. Each of the girls has been equipped with special training outside of stage work. Miss Gladys Sykes is an interior decorator and designer and Miss Dana Sykes holds a pilot's license on Lake Michigan, following her father's profession. They have sworn allegiance to one another, however, and so long as one is in musical comedy the others will remain in the same company. It's an agreement, signed and sealed.

QUAY SUIT IS AMICABLE

Richard R. Quay Present When Sister's Action Was Filed

Beaver, Pa., March 2.—Mrs. Mary Quay Davison's move in court for an accounting from the executors of the estate of her father, the late Senator Matthew Stanley Quay, is an amicable move, in which all the family are agreed, it was declared yesterday, to bring about equitable division of about $100,000 in income piled up through a clause in the late Senator's will.

Senator Quay, willing one-fifth of his estate of about $1,000,000 to Major A. G. C. Quay, stipulated he should be paid not to exceed $4,000 a year of the income, with the result that a considerable surplus has collected since the Senator's death. This the heirs now join, it is declared, in asking to have distributed.

R. R. Quay, one of the executors, was in court when his sister's action was filed Saturday by ex-Lieutenant Governor Walter Lyon.

She is 23 years old, while her husband has almost reached the four-score mark.

She left the mansion of the multimillionaire over a year ago. The filing of the divorce proceedings ended a pretty romance which started at Lake Toxaway, North Carolina. Five years after the acquaintance started, Alsop and Miss Hill were married.

Mrs. Alsop since leaving her husband has said that it made her feel uneasy being constantly in the company of people many years her senior.
