U.S. WILL ANSWER THE ALLIES' NOTE

President Wilson Says No Nation Has Right to Change Rules of Warfare

AMERICA NOT TO CHANGE POSITION

Chief Executive Says United States Will Continue to Make Efforts to Have Belligerents Respect American Non-Contraband Shipping

Washington, March 2.—The United States will send a note to Great Britain and France in answer to the one received yesterday inquiring what means will be taken in carrying out the policy of holding up supplies being carried to and from Germany. President Wilson told callers to-day that the British-French note outlined in very general terms a policy but did not define the means of carrying it into effect.

President Wilson refused to discuss the subject in detail, but said that no nation has the right to change the rules of warfare because the methods of war have changed. He indicated that the United States will not change its previously announced position but will continue to make efforts to have the belligerents respect American shipping of a non-contraband character.

Not Clear on Blockade

The President said it was not clear in his own mind whether the new action of the British and French governments established a blockade of Germany, although that would be the general effect of the order. He indicated that even though a real blockade were established, no questions affecting the neutrality of the United States would be precipitated by the continued voyages of American ships to Germany.

The President added he had not had opportunity as yet to thoroughly digest the contents of the communication from Great Britain and France but that the question was under serious consideration. He reiterated that he was still uncertain whether he would be able to follow out his plan of going to the San Francisco Exposition this month, and that was taken as another indication that the European situation was considered of such importance as to keep the President in Washington.

CHORUS FOR LOCAL OPTION

Evangelistic Singers Endorse Governor's Stand on Question

The regular monthly meeting of the Harrisburg Evangelistic Chorus was held last evening in the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, when nine hundred out of a membership of nine hundred and seventy reported for practice.

The chorus voted as a unit that a resolution be drawn up endorsing Dr. Brumbaugh's local option platform and each member pledged an individual support it is possible to give the Governor.

Plans were outlined for a visit to the Lancaster Stough tabernacle March 16. The trains will leave the Pennsylvania station at 6 p. m. and get into Lancaster at 6:50 p. m. Leave Lancaster 10:30 p. m. and arrive at Harrisburg at 11:20 p. m. Identification cards for the trip will be sent to the Central Book Store, D. W. Cotterell's Book Store, Shell's Seed Store, at the grocery store of G. Runkle, S. R. Harris and S. T. Kensingler, this city, and at McCurdy's Drug Store, Steinton.

TREASURY MONEY

At the close of business at the State Treasury for February, it was found that there was an increase of about $1,500,000 in the balance in the general fund over the January balance. The official figures are as follows: Receipts, general fund, $3,155,520.36; sinking fund, $23,445; transferred from general sinking fund, $15,510; school fund, $909.63; motor licenses, $117,584; total, $3,274,037.45.

Payments, general fund, $1,824,393.25; transferred to sinking fund for payment of interest on bonds held by the State for benefit of State College and paid from sinking fund, $15,510; motor license fund, $50,000; total, $1,889,902.25.

Balances, general fund, $5,617,031.47; sinking fund, $18,058,54; school fund, $5,594,490; motor license fund, $602,725; total, $7,039,119.91. Total at end of January, $5,654,955.72.

Pierce Announces Members of Brotherhood Will Meet Sunday to Consider Calling Off the Order

With a view of determining the present attitude of the members of the Brotherhood of Federated Railway Employees, many of whom went on strike against the Pennsylvania railroad here and in Enola last winter, a special meeting will be held in the Eagles' hall, Sixth and Cumberland streets, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made this morning by W. H. Pierce, president of the Brotherhood.

Pierce stated that reports have reached him that the striking employees wish to call off the strike. If such is the case, Pierce said, he is quite willing that such a course should be followed, as the matter rests entirely with the men.

At the present there are about two hundred of the striking employees, mostly shop men, in this city or Enola, who are members of the lodge. Other members of the lodge still are on strike along the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad, and the meeting on Sunday will affect them also.

NEW TAX PLAN IN 3D CLASS CITIES

Measure Introduced To-day Provides Assessments for Both Buildings and Land

$72,000 ASKED FOR ARSENAL

House Passes Finally the Bill Fixing the Marriage License Fee at $2 Instead of $1—Plan to Abolish Motion Picture Censors

A measure providing for separate taxes on buildings and land in third class cities, of which Harrisburg is one, was introduced in the House this morning by Assemblyman Oaks, of Cambria county.

The measure amends the Clark commission form of government bill. It provides that in the 1915 assessment the buildings bear nine-tenths of the amount required, reducing the building tax gradually until 1925 when the buildings and land tax will bear equal amounts of the sum required. The assessors, under this bill, will also return to the City Commission the names of all male residents of third class cities who are more than twenty-one years old.

Representative Wildman, of Dauphin, introduced three appropriation bills, one carrying a total of $72,000 for improvements at the State Arsenal, divided as follows: $52,500 for completion of the main building; $12,000 for retaining walls, and $7,500 for improved driveways. The second bill is to reimburse Henry C. Musser, of the Moravian Pottery Works, of Doylestown, to the extent of $469.68 for tiling placed in the Treasury Department in the capital and the third appropriates $233.80 to Pierce Rettew, of Harrisburg, for mailing 1,010 copies of the annual report of the Department of Health for 1914.

Other Measures Introduced

Other bills introduced include: Mr. Dadds, Allegheny—Providing that all vehicles carry lights at night and that all trolley cars be equipped with air brakes.

Mr. Myers, Washington—Providing for two assistant chiefs in the Department of Mines, one for bituminous and the other for anthracite districts, and fixing their salaries at $4,500; requiring banks to report quarterly on all moneys bearing interest together with the names of the depositors.

Mr. Walton, Lawrence—Prohibiting minors from entering places where liquor is sold or to induce minors to enter such places, except in the case where parents take minor children or a husband his minor wife.

Mr. Mellott, Fulton—Providing that County Commissioners build one bridge a year until all streams are provided with adequate facilities crossing.

Mr. Geary, Allegheny—Providing for the erection of a monument to Battery I, Independent Volunteers, known as the Hampton Battery, at Chancellorsville and Antietam and making the three remaining members of that battery a commission to provide for the monuments and appropriating $2,500 for each monument.

Mr. Willard, Philadelphia—Making the fee for the registration of nurses $10 instead of $5, providing for reciprocity with other States and requiring the State Department of Health to make annual reports on nurses' training schools.

To Abolish Picture Censors

Mr. Stein, Allegheny—Repealing the act of 1911 creating the State board of moving picture censors and making it a misdemeanor to discriminate against any person on account of race or color in places of public entertainment or accommodation.

Mr. Stein, Allegheny—An anti-vivisection measure providing a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500 and an imprisonment of not less than three months nor more than one year in the case of all animals operated on.

Mr. Lauer, Allegheny—Appropriating $25,000 to the Gettysburg Memorial Commission for erecting on the battlefield of Gettysburg of suitable statues of Generals Crawford and Gibbon; making repairs to the Pennsylvania memorials and printing 10,000 of the Gettysburg commission's report for the use of State officials and patriotic societies in the State.

Fourteen bills were passed finally in the House, most of them affecting first class cities in the State. One general bill which passed finally fixed the

GERBERICH INTRODUCES A "PURE LIQUOR" BILL

Senator Gerberich, of Lebanon, to-day introduced the bill known as the liquor bill, a measure similar to the one that failed to pass two years ago. The bill prohibits the manufacture or sale of adulterated or misbranded alcoholic liquors and specifies what constitute adulteration and misbranding. It defines as length whiskey, brandy, beer, ale and wine.

Bills were introduced in the Senate as follows:

Salus—Imposing additional liabilities on insurance companies for failure promptly to pay insurance losses; also, providing for the codifying of the laws relating to decedents' estates.

Catlin—Requiring the announcing of the vote cast at primary elections as soon as counted.

Martin—Appropriating $15,000 for a monument to Molly Pitcher in Carlisle.

Daix—Authorizing foreign religious and charitable corporations to hold real estate.

Warner—Fixing the number of councilmen of all boroughs at five.

Tompkins—Exempting all machinery used in manufacturing from taxation.

Gerberich—Appropriating $23,000 to the Home for Widows and Single Women in Lebanon; also, $20,000 to the Good Samaritan hospital, Lebanon.

Kline—Appropriating $50,000 to the Pennsylvania Association for Blind in Pittsburgh.

The Senate passed finally the following bills:

Empowering cities of the second class to construct and maintain street railway tracks.

Authorizing cities and counties jointly to construct county and municipal buildings.

Authorizing municipalities to operate underground railways.

The House bill authorizing third class cities, owning their water works, to extend their lines beyond the city limits to supply water to corporations and other municipalities passed second reading.

The bills authorizing four more employees of the Legislative Reference Bureau, the printing of the report of the commission to revise the penal laws, and the refunding to the Crawford County Trust Company money erroneously paid to the State, all of which carried appropriations, came up on second reading and were referred back to the Appropriations Committee.

To Demonstrate Use of Air Brake

In view of the apparent desire of a number of legislators to be enlightened on the matter of the workings of the air brake, in connection with the proposed "full crew" repealer legislation, Superintendent W. B. McCaleb, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, with headquarters in Harrisburg, announced to-day he has arranged that the air brake instruction room, at Seventh and Beily streets, be open from 8 a. m. to noon and from 2 p. m. until 10 p. m., for a time, with a competent instructor in charge to make clear the different workings of the air brake. The room will be open to all.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Makes Streaked, Faded or Gray Hair Dark and Glossy at Once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stop falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Adv.

PUBLIC TO ASSIST IN THE PARK IMPROVEMENTS

Municipal League Is Planning to Make Use of Arbor Day Next Month to Launch Improvements in Borough's Only Place of Recreation

At a meeting of the local Municipal League, held last evening, it was announced that the plans for the improvement of the Luther R. Kelker park had not yet arrived from New York City. It was decided, however, that the day to be announced as Arbor day by Governor Brumbaugh would likely be selected as the time when the first step would be taken to begin the improvements to this ground, and that the league would give a general invitation to the public, old and young, to participate at the launching of these improvements, which will consist of laying out of walks, planting shrubbery and young trees, trimming old trees and the removal of all the rubbish.

R. G. Cunningham, Harrisburg, appeared before the meeting last evening and delivered an address on the repeal of the "Full Crew Law." The speaker was accompanied by C. B. Hendrickson, local agent for the railroad. The league took no action following his talk.

WOODEN SHACK BURNED DOWN

Lucien Turner Lost His Small Stock of Merchandise

A small wooden shack, located on Ridge street, near Reading street, formerly used by Highway Commissioner Meshey to store tools used in keeping the borough streets in repair, but lately fitted out for a retail shop by Lucien Turner, caught fire early to-day and before the firemen, who were summoned at 5:15 o'clock arrived on the scene it was totally destroyed, together with its contents, the total loss amounting to less than $100.

It was reported there was no insurance and the origin of the fire is unknown to the borough fire officials.

What We Say It Is, It Is

Just Plain Carelessness

That is what ruins many a good watch.

You wouldn't think of letting any other piece of machinery run constantly without frequent cleaning and oiling—but you do that to your watch.

You can safely let your watch run a year without having it cleaned and oiled. When you wait longer, you're damaging the watch.

Bring it to Diener to-day and have it examined. If it needs any attention it will be economy to have it done now.

It is always economy to have Diener do your watch, clock and jewelry repairing because you get perfect work fully guaranteed, and the charges are always the lowest for which good work—the only kind you want—can be done.
