CONSIDERS ALLIES' ATTACK AUTOISTS AND FAMILIES COURT HOUSE MR. ALSOP BEGINS ACTION FOR DIVORCE FROM HIS YOUNG WIFE

Finding the three generation barrier unsurmountable, Edward B. Alsop, eighty years old, a wealthy resident of Pittsburg, who also maintains a home in Washington, D. C., has begun divorce proceedings against his beautiful young wife, Effie Pope Alsop. The suit asking for the annulment of the ties which bind him to his wife, who is twenty-three years old, was filed before Judge Brown, in Common Pleas Court. He charges his wife with desertion. When seen after the action was filed Mr. Alsop refused to make any comments concerning his shattered romance. He had no complaints to make regarding the treatment he received from his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Alsop separated more than a year ago, the wife suddenly leaving Mr. Alsop's home in Washington, The filing of the divorce action is the culmination of a romance which had its inception eight years ago at Lake Toxoway, North Carolina, when they were stopping at the quiet resort. Eff Pope Hill was then but fourteen years old. Mr. Alsop soon became attracted by the girl's unusual charm and beauty and began paying her attention, and five years later the friends of Mr. Alsop were shocked when his wedding to the young woman, then but nineteen years old was announced.
