A New Store for Men

To-morrow we shall place at the service of men and young men a new store.

It will be the only store of its kind in Harrisburg, in that it will be devoted exclusively to the sale of ready-to-wear clothing.

From our years of association with one of the city's best-known clothing houses, we know the wants of Harrisburg people and will make strong efforts to fill them.

Special attention will be given to providing dependable clothing at the popular prices—fifteen, twenty and twenty-five dollars.

By thus specializing we will be able to offer apparel possessing greater value than is customarily procurable at the prices mentioned and in greater variety than other stores show.

While the store will be located but a few steps off of Market street's beaten path, it is nevertheless out of the high rent zone. This means smaller fixed charges to be taken care of in our selling prices.

What is saved in this way will be given in added value—quality, workmanship and service.

Everything will be sold on a basis of absolute satisfaction—not only at the time of purchase, but after the garment has been subjected to the test of time.

We Extend to You a Cordial Invitation to Attend the Opening of This New Store To-morrow

You will not be importuned to buy—rather we shall strive to make it an occasion for getting acquainted, and revealing to you what will be most stylish for Spring and Summer wear.

We want you to see our display, and judge it for yourself. Be critical, if you will, in your comparisons, but come.

Again, we invite you.

FORMER GERMAN SHIP NOW FLYING THE BRITISH FLAG

New York, March 3.—The British steamer Gibraltar reached here to-day from Gibraltar with a tale of her conversion from the German to the British flag the first day of the war while she was on her maiden voyage.

For a few weeks the vessel was the German steamer Schneefels, 3,637 tons net, brand new and bound from Calcutta to Boston with produce from the East Indies. She steamed from the Mediterranean into the Strait of Gibraltar. A British torpedo boat ran close in, hailed the German and ordered the captain to bear up for Gibraltar.

"To blazes with you," the captain shouted back. "I'm going to Boston." The torpedo boat's guns were trained on the ship. A threat to open fire caused the Schneefels' captain to obey the order. Later the Schneefels was ordered sold by a prize court.

JUSTICE JOHN C. HITE DIES

Prominent Royalton Man Was Former Teacher and Once Tax Collector

Royalton, Pa., March 3.—John C. Hite, one of the most prominent residents of this borough, died at his home shortly after 4 o'clock last evening following a stroke of paralysis which he suffered early Sunday morning.

Mr. Hite, prior to Sunday, had been in comparatively good health, having been regularly employed at the Hershey Chocolate plant in Hershey for the last several years. He had been a resident of Royalton for more than thirty years, during which he was elected Justice of the Peace, an office which he filled up until the time of his death. He also served one term as the borough tax collector. In his earlier days he was a school teacher, having for seventeen years been an instructor in schools in Royalton and Londonderry townships.

Mr. Hite's wife died about twenty years ago. He leaves the following children: Oliver, Elizabethtown; Mrs. David Metzger and Eugene Hite, Harrisburg; Mrs. Elizabeth Hightower, Philadelphia; Mrs. Harry B. Legrove and Miss Mary Hite, Royalton. Funeral services will be held at the home on Friday morning at 11 o'clock, with the Rev. H. A. Smith, pastor of the Royalton United Brethren church, and the Rev. T. C. McCarrel, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Middletown, officiating. Interment will be made in the Hillsdale cemetery.

TO CHANGE UMBRELLA HANDLES

Sometimes a person would like to change an expensive umbrella handle to another umbrella and fasten it on solid. This can be done by cleaning out the hole left in the handle from the old rod and filling the hole with powdered sulphur. Place the handle in a solid upright position and after heating the umbrella rod red hot push the rod down into the hole containing the sulphur. The hot rod fuses the sulphur, and when cool it will hold the rod solid. This method may be applied to fastening rods into stone, iron or wood.—Popular Mechanics.

BROAD STREETS

Berlin boasts that Unter den Linden is the broadest actual street to be found in any great city. It is 215 feet wide. Other noble thoroughfares are the Ringstrasse, in Vienna, 188 feet; the Paris Grand boulevard, 122 feet; and the Andrássystrasse in Budapest, 155 feet wide.

WHARF RIGHTS GRANTED ON ADVICE OF MANNING

Taylor, to Justify His Attitude, Publishes Letter of City Architect—McCormick Suggests Commercial Considerations Influenced Manning

Park Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor gave out for publication to-day a letter written by Warren H. Manning, the City's Landscape Architect, to Henry B. McCormick, on February 25. Mr. Taylor said he desired to have the letter published in justification of his action in supporting the measure recently passed by the City Commission granting the right to a public service corporation to establish a coal wharf on Island Park. The Manning letter, written from Boston, is as follows:

I have just returned to my office from the South after my Harrisburg visit, during which I received your note of February 12. The "Patriot" office as you requested and talked with Mr. Miller, but was not able to see Mr. Hoffman, who was out at the time. I have written Mr. Hoffman stating that I shall make it a point to see him the next time I am in Harrisburg, because, as I know you all are, to do everything that can be done to advance the interests of the city, I want the cooperation of the "Patriot."

I did not feel justified when I was in Harrisburg in giving an opinion for or against either site. I gave Mr. Miller my reasons for and against both sites. Must admit, however, that after thinking the whole matter over it does seem to me, after having gone into the matter thoroughly with all parties interested, that the interests of the greater number of people would be conserved if all handling of coal could be done at a floating barge wharf (where the filtration plant is) in an inoffensive manner, because so many more people use and are likely to use Front street shore and bluff for walks, and because there are so many more people living on Front street than ever will live on the Island wharf, and that to be annoyed by the clatter, the dust and the inevitable untidiness of the coal wharf.

One of the principal objections to the proposition is that only a part of the coal handling by this arrangement will be transferred to the Island wharf, and that some of the wharves along Front street will still be maintained for this purpose. If the plan is put on the island, however, it may become so obviously advantageous to the city that action may later be taken to transfer all such work to that point.

An alternate plan to this island coal handling proposition that was presented by the company seemed to me a very unattractive one. The alternative was a floating barge wharf with hoisting apparatus and bins that could be landed along the shores of Front street and that would be floated up and down the river. Such a structure could not be made as architecturally attractive as the island wharf. A structure on the Island can be made, and it would be likely to interfere much more with the recreation uses of the basin.

I felt that the 10,000 tons of coal and the 20,000 to 30,000 tons of sand that were taken from the basin yearly were too important a commercial factor for the city of Harrisburg to be ignored. It is certain that all this material cannot be handled at any point below the dam.

I might say that the picture in the "Patriot" of the coal handling plant did not represent what I have in mind for the treatment of the plant on the Island. This is a personal letter, copy of which I am sending to Mr. Taylor and Mr. Bertram, with the request that it not be published without their approval.

Vance C. McCormick, in his newspaper, the "Patriot," this morning published a letter that he wrote to Manning in reply to the letter to Henry B. McCormick. Vance C. McCormick "challenges" Manning's attitude regarding the wharf, saying in part:

"The position you have taken is at such variance with that of so many of your friends here, including the City Planning Commission and members of the Municipal League and the Civic Club, that I will not have gone into the matter thoroughly with all the parties interested and that you have probably heard only one side of the case."

RUSSIANS SACRIFICING MANY TO REGAIN MOUNTAIN CRESTS

Berlin, Via London, March 3, 10.55 A. M.—The "Fageblatt's" correspondent in Galicia telegraphs that the Russians have not won a single complete success in their efforts to regain Carpathian crests lost by them. Heavy fighting continues, he says, along the whole line, in spite of heavy snow storms.

The Russians are sacrificing many men, the correspondent declares, in their effort to regain mountain heights and prevent a threatened encroaching of their flank.

An Easy Way to Increase Weight

Good Advice for Thin Folks

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood. Where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when an amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. G. A. Gorgas and other leading druggists of Harrisburg and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

Caution:—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.—Adv.
