OPPOSES JUDGE GILLAN

No-License League Has Selected D. Edward Long as Candidate for Franklin County Bench

Chambersburg, Pa., March 4.—The No-License League of Franklin county yesterday afternoon passed a series of resolutions condemning the course of Judge W. Rush Gillan in the matter of granting licenses, and named D. Edward Long, ex-District Attorney, as their candidate.

The meeting also passed resolutions endorsing Governor Brumbaugh's local option course. Ministers and active churchmen from all over the county were present and an interchurch federation was also formed. This organization will become semi-political and work for any candidate for Judge on the no-license platform.

Tampory Head Is Dead

Hagerstown, March 4.—William D. Byron, head of the Byron Tannery, at Williamsport and its allied interests, died at his home at Williamsport at 1.30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon from pneumonia, aged 83 years. He successfully underwent an operation at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, some time ago and returned home much improved. Some time later pneumonia developed.

Mr. Byron was born at Roxbury, Mass., August 29, 1832, being a son of Joseph Byron who came from Ireland to America, when he was 12 years of age. The Byron family fought under Cromwell and was rewarded by a grant of land in Westford county, Ireland.

Councilmen Were "Fussy"

Gettysburg, March 4.—The authorization of a 100-day dog quarantine, the decision to construct more concrete curbs and gutters, the ordering of Gettysburg College to lay two squares of pavements and curbs, and the proposed change to board of health regulations regarding the length of quarantines for minor diseases, were the principal points in Tuesday evening's meeting of the town council which developed so much personal unpleasantness among the members that President Butt took occasion to reprove several of them before the close of the session.

Wills Money to Church

Carlisle, March 4.—By the will of the late Mrs. Fannie M. Hunt Gibson, filed in the office of Register Dougherty yesterday, the greater part of her property will eventually go to St. Patrick's Catholic church of which she was a member. The Farmers' Trust Company is made executor and trustee for the estate.

The sum of $200 is placed in trust, the interest to be used to maintain the graves of Colonel and Mrs. Gibson in the Old Graveyard. All the remainder of the property is placed in trust for her niece, Fannie Hunt, and at her death goes to St. Patrick's church.

Sold Out by Sheriff

Chambersburg, March 4.—Charles S. McLaughlin, formerly of Fort Loudon, who purchased and operated what is now known as the Colonial hotel at Orrstown for several years prior to the granting of a license to Jacob L. Moser is again in possession of his old property.

McLaughlin executed a judgment he held against Moser in the amount of $375. The personal property of Moser was seized by the sheriff and sold Tuesday. The proceeds amounted to but $86.50. On Saturday last Mrs. Moser had sale of her property amounting to nearly $100.

Milton McLaughlin, son of the owner, is now conducting the hotel, without bar license, and will continue in charge.

Plan Municipal Hospital

Efforts are now being made to start a municipal hospital in this city, where contagious diseases can be treated, according to a plan taken up several weeks ago by the Dauphin County Medical Society. At a meeting of that body a resolution requesting county commissioners and city officials to work together was unanimously passed. A copy of the resolutions will be furnished Mayor Royal.

OUCH! LAME BACK, RUB LUMBAGO OR BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore cannot cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—Adv.

Miss Peterson, twenty-one years old, of Aurora, Ill., was killed by a strange man on February 25. She is the third woman to meet a similar death in Aurora within a few years. Of the three victims two were recent. Miss Jennie Miller, an elderly spinster, shared the fate of Miss Peterson. In both cases the forehead was crushed in by a noiseless instrument, a gas pipe being used in the last instance. At the time of the Peterson murder "a great, tall man in a long overcoat" was seen to leave the spot. The police think one person committed all the crimes.
