HIGH SCHOOL FIVES PLAY

Central and Tech Will Meet in Chestnut Street Auditorium Tonight

The biggest scholastic basketball game of the season will be staged this evening in Chestnut street auditorium, when Central High and Tech meet in the game to decide the high school championship of the city. Both teams are confident on the eve of the contest, although the Blue and Grey team is slightly a favorite because of its individual stars and the better showing made against York and Steelton.

The Maroon team is evenly balanced and play well together. Their followers are depending on the team to take the game. Both teams will present their strongest lineup. Arrangements have been made to handle a record crowd. The game will be called at 8.15 o'clock.

Between the halves of the game the Central scrubs will play the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. Reserves.

VANDERBILT GIVES CUP

Donates Gold Trophy For Series of Schooner Races

Boston, March 5.—Officials of the Eastern Yacht Club announced yesterday that Harold S. Vanderbilt, owner of the schooner yacht Vagrant, had offered a gold cup as a prize for a series of races for large schooners around Cape Cod. The competition, as in former years, will be held late in June, the boats starting from either New London or Newport, and finishing at Marblehead.

The owner of the winning yacht will hold the trophy a year and will receive in addition a silver cup. The owner winning three races, not necessary with the same boat, will obtain permanent possession of the cup.

Mordecai Brown With Tinker

Chicago, March 5.—Mordecai Brown, former pitcher for the Chicago Nationals, who last year managed the St. Louis Federals and at the end of the season played with the Brooklyn Federals, is to play this year with the Chicago Federals. This announcement was made yesterday, after he had visited Chas. Weeghman. Brown will go South with the Chicago Federals on their training trip.

Tinker Goes to Second Base

Chicago, March 5.—Joseph B. Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals, after playing at shortstop from the start of his long career in the major leagues, has decided to switch to second base.

Tinker asserted yesterday that his place in the short field would be taken by James Smith, a 19-year-old star, who acquired his baseball knowledge at Duquesne University, Pittsburgh. Smith was signed late last fall.

JIM COFFEY STOPS PELKY

Dublin Giant Put Arthur to Sleep in Second Round

New York, March 5.—Jim Coffey made the hearts of 4,500 Irishmen thump with joy when the Irish champion stopped Arthur Pelky, of Chicago, Mass., near the end of the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout at the Fairmount A. C. last night. Coffey ended matters with three stiff rights to the jaw. The first two punches staggered Pelky against the ropes, where he was held up as a target for Coffey's well-aimed and well-directed long straight right, which crashed against his chin and toppled him over to the mat. It was then that Referee Billy Job asserted his authority as the arbiter of the milling. After assisting Pelky to his feet he waved Coffey to one side and pushed Pelky to his corner, at the same time stopping the bout.

M'CARON STOPS REVOIR

Had Him Down in Fifth and Out in Sixth

Allentown, Pa., March 5.—Before a record crowd, Jack McCarron, of this city, knocked out Eddie Revoir, of Philadelphia, in the sixth round with a short right to the jaw. Revoir was also sent to the mat for the count of nine in the fifth, and he had hardly regained his feet when Jack landed on his jaw again, sending him to dreamland, but the bell saved him. The bout was scheduled for ten rounds.

READING ELKS TO INVAD CITY FOR BOWLING MATCH

Accompanied by Forty Rooters the Visiting Team Will Be Given an Auto Ride Over City—Dinner and Luncheon and a Severe Beating

Now that the regular season of the Elks' alleys is finished and the Athletics have the championship—all the Bills are looking forward to the series with the Reading Elks who were trimmed beautifully last year and will come here for their first trimming this season to-morrow afternoon.

The bowling contest is a rare incident in the visit of the Bills from the German village, for Victor Bunsel Steigleman, a local Elk, in charge of the committee on arrangements, is mobilizing his forces for one big time. Accompanied by forty rooters the Reading team will arrive in Harrisburg at 4.35 o'clock to-morrow evening. Enough Harrisburg automobiles will be at the Philadelphia and Reading station to show our seventy-five miles of paved streets and park system to them.

At dinner time they will go to the Dauphin hotel for dinner. Here the visiting team will be given the richest food in the land in order that they will not be able to bowl to the best advantage when the game is called at 8 o'clock. Following the game which will take two hours or more, the visitors will be given a "feed" in the Elks' club house, 216 North Second street. Most of the Reading Bills will stay over until Sunday.

If Steigleman is too busy with his social duties he will not bowl but he will make every effort to be on the firing line. Captain Morrison will have other candidates for bowling honors in Ennis, Beck, Krall and C. Weber.

Mrs. Vanderbilt to Present Cup

San Francisco, March 5.—Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, wife of the donor of the Vanderbilt cup, wired to the Panama-Pacific exposition yesterday her acceptance of an invitation to be a guest of honor at the Vanderbilt cup race to-morrow. She will personally present the cup to the winner.

Bransfield Appointed Umpire

Boston, Mass., March 5.—Before leaving for Hot Springs with the Red Sox yesterday, T. H. Murnane, president of the New England League, announced that he would name William E. Bransfield, of Worcester, as an umpire in the New England League this season.

Hanover to Bowl Here

The Hanover Metropolitans will meet the Holtzman All-Stars on the Holtzman alleys to-morrow evening, the contest starting at 5 o'clock. Faver, Banks, Wharton, Kimmel and Barber will represent Harrisburg.

P. A. Takes the Razoo Out of the Jimmy Pipe

The one reason why P. A. has so many tried and trusty friends is because it's so gosh-ganged tasty and peaceful on the tongue. You can smoke it packed in your old jimmy-pipe or home-made cigarette just as fast and hard as you want to, from the time the sun peeps out till the little stars twinkle, and there's nary a trace of a bite or sting.

PRINCE ALBERT

is made biteless and stingless by a patented process controlled exclusively by us. You just charge a pipe or cigarette with this fragrant, satisfying tobacco and you will wonder why you held out so long and let your tongue curl up and crack every time you took your old jimmy pipe into your confidence.

Any store that sells tobacco can supply you with Prince Albert in the tidy red tin, 10c; tippy red bag, 5c; pound and half-pound tin humidors and that dandy P. A. pound crystal-glass humidor which not only keeps your supply in splendid condition, but is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

CARVED A LIVING FISH.

Part Was Cooked and the Other Part Swam Around Till Needed.

Not many years ago, being one of the few foreigners permitted to reside in the interior of Japan, I was favored with this interesting experience:

Living near a small fishing village and out of convenient reach of the treaty ports, I found it necessary to content myself to a great extent with native subsistence. However, a daily supply of delicious living fish went far to compensate for the absence of beef-steak and bread and butter.

The peddlers of fish carry their finny merchandise in shallow tubs filled with water, suspended from the ends of a yoke across the shoulders. In this fashion they trot along for miles on their rounds.

Having the advantage of first choice, I could usually select one of a size suitable for the day's needs, but one morning they were all entirely too large, and when it was pointed out that the smallest was double the size wanted he replied:

"Oh, but you can cut it in two; use half today, the other half tomorrow."

This suggestion would seem simple enough in American markets, but when he was told that stale fish was undesirable he explained that the remaining half would be as lively tomorrow or any day thereafter until used; that the operation would not hurt the fish in the slightest respect. At this point curiosity prompted me to direct the flip vivisectionist to proceed with his barbarous act.

He immediately laid one of the fish on a board and placed his long, keen edged knife just back of the gills and quickly sliced off all of one side down to the tail and so close to the ribs that you could almost see them. The part containing the vital organs was returned to the water, where, of course, owing to loss of equilibrium, it turned on its side. But to my astonishment it swam round lively as ever, seemingly undisturbed by the loss of so much flesh, and remained so until the next day when I was ready to cook it.

My native friends smiled at the suggestion of cruelty and related the story of a distinguished daimio who caught a fish sliced in this manner that had been placed in the river years before and lived this long time happy and lively as other fish. But the idea of carving a living fish made me shudder, and I never tried it again.—C. D. Weldon, in New York Tribune.

SYMBOLS AS SHOP SIGNS.

A Legacy From the Old Days When Few Persons Could Read.

The man on the street, and especially the man on the street in Manhattan, does not realize that he is every day perpetuating in the signs that he uses the customs of a people who could not read. In the old days it was useless to put up the sign "apothecary," because few could read it. So the apothecary decorated his shop front with a mortar and pestle as a sign of his trade.

We can read now, most of us, but we cling to signs of this sort still. The symbol lingers.

FORMER BANDIT CHARGED WITH ISSUING PAMPHLET PLEADING GERMAN CAUSE

Paris, March 5, 6.10 A. M.—Persons said to have been connected at one time with the notorious Bonnot band of automobile bandits are charged by the police, according to this morning's papers, with being responsible for the authorship of a seditious pamphlet with the title "People, You Are Being Deceived," in which a plea is made for the cause of Germany. Several arrests have been made.

It is stated that those taken into custody include Lorulot, former editor of the newspaper "Anarchy" and Jeanne Benardi, a friend of the anarchist bandit Couroy who committed suicide in his cell in the Conciergerie prison after he had been sentenced to life imprisonment for his share in the sensational exploits of the outlaw gang which was not broken until the melodramatic battle with the police at Choisy-Le-Royon, April 28, 1912.

It is understood that those under suspicion will be tried by court-martial at Marseilles. The police are maintaining the strictest secrecy regarding the case which the newspapers declare is likely to have important ramifications.

LONG DRAWN OUT.

Uncle Jeff, an aged negro driver of Augusta, was piloting several northern visitors around just after the first golf links had been put in there. Uncle Jeff was a little short in his knowledge according to St. Andrew, but long on local pride.

"How many holes have they?" inquired a visitor, "eighteen?"

Uncle Jeff pulled up to make his answer more impressive.

"More'n dat, sub," he said. "Dey's got a passel er land, and de holes ain't bigger'n a tin can. I reckon dey's got a thousand holes already, sub."—New York Post.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Shortness of Breath.
There are many ways in which shortness of breath may arise. It is often one of the symptoms of illness. When a person begins to complain of habitual shortness of breath it is important to have a physical examination made without delay. One reason is that tuberculosis often begins with no other symptoms than shortness of breath and a slight cough. If these cases are seen and diagnosed very early it is not difficult to arrest them.

The symptom is, of course, present in such troubles as pneumonia, broncho-pneumonia and pleurisy, which attack the organs of breath directly. Violent exercise naturally causes temporary shortness of breath. In the case of healthy people it disappears quickly when the exercise ceases. If it does not do so it is a good plan to have a careful examination in order to find out what is wrong. Young people sometimes persist in a favorite form of exercise after they have begun to notice their shortening breath. In that way they may do themselves lifelong injury.
