CAPITOL HILL

STATE MINE ACCIDENTS SHOW BIG DROP FOR 1914

Fatalities Decrease 32 Per Cent. Over 1913—Coal Production Increases 70,121 Tons Per Life Lost During Past Year

A statement issued by the Pennsylvania Department of Mines shows a great decrease in the number of accidents in 1914, as compared with 1913. In 1914 there were 413 fatal accidents in and about the mines and in 1913, 611, showing that the careful and strict enforcement of the laws of prevention by the State inspectors has had the effect of reducing the accidents 32 per cent.

The amount of coal produced during 1914 per fatal accident was 353,207 tons as against 283,086 tons in 1913, an increase of 70,121 tons per life lost.

The fatalities per 1,000 employes in 1914 was 2.10 as against 3.22 in 1913, a reduction of 1.12.

The production in the bitumious region was 145,884,530 tons as against 172,965,659 tons in 1913, a decrease of 27,081,129 tons.

The number of employes in 1914 was 195,949. In 1913 the number was 189,909, showing an increase of 6,040.

The department is gratified at the reduction in fatalities, which were less in number than in any year since 1897.

The fatalities from falls of coal, slate and roof amounted to 61.21 per cent. of the total; by cars, 23.75 per cent.; by gas, dust and suffocation, 2.11 per cent.; by electricity, 6.33 per cent.; by miscellaneous causes, 6.60 per cent.

The accidents from falls and cars amounted to 84.96 per cent., and any reduction in the number of fatal accidents to be hoped for in future must be made by lessening the number from these two causes. This can only be accomplished by the most stringent rules and the enforcement of the greatest discipline by the mine foremen, superintendents and inspectors.

State Doctors Busy

Two cases of smallpox have been reported to the State Department of Health from Cornplanter township, Venango county. The two patients, Mrs. W. P. King and a daughter, have traveled extensively on the electric cars in that vicinity and the child has attended the Clap Farm school while the disease was in the eruptive state. A general vaccination has been ordered of known contacts in Oil City and vicinity.

Eighty cases of typhoid fever have been reported in the boroughs of Oakmont and Verona, Allegheny county, since the first of January. The State Department of Health has begun an investigation of the cause of the epidemic.

An epidemic of typhoid fever in Greenville has been reported to the State Department of Health. There are thirty cases now under quarantine. The schools have been closed.

Treasury Money

Close tabs are being kept on indigent insane in State hospitals to see that their estates or their responsible relatives are made to pay for their maintenance. Yesterday $362.50 was paid into the State Treasury from this source. Foreign insurance companies paid tax on premiums amounting to $101,645; the money from motor licenses yielded $6,558 and $1,033 came from oleomargarine licenses. The total receipts for the day were $140,477.25.

Force of Habit.

A consul in Guatemala tells a story of a man who ran a store in Retalhuleu who had been ordering candles from Germany for many years. Each candle was wrapped in blue paper One shipment came wrapped in yellow paper. The people would not buy them In vain he argued and showed that the candles were the same as he had been selling. It was no use, and he could not sell those candles until he sent to a paper supply house in Guatemala City and bought sufficient blue paper in which to wrap them. Then he had no difficulty in selling them.

Speed of Animals

It is believed that no animal has ever exceeded the speed which can be attained by the horse. Instantaneous photographs of one famous specimen showed the full length of a complete stride to be about twenty-six feet. The hare has not, in reality, the speed of the dog. The dog, on the other hand, does not attain the speed of the horse. The giraffe is said to run at the rate of fifteen yards per second under the most favorable conditions. The elephant, going at the rate of two yards a second, carries a weight approximating to that carried by six horses—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Expert botanists have found that the age of trees can be told by the leaf markings—the older a tree the smaller and more numerous its leaf cells.
