"Robin Hood"
The attraction at the Majestic this afternoon and evening will be the De Koven Opera Company in an ambitious production of "Robin Hood." This is the company, organized by Reginald de Koven, the composer, for the purpose of restoring the glories of English light opera, and giving a jaded public more and better music than is afforded in the modern musical comedy.

The principals were recruited from the grand opera houses of Europe and America, and a revival of "Robin Hood" was made at the New Amsterdam theatre, in New York two seasons ago, where it ran for six months to capacity houses, was then transferred to the Knickerbocker theatre for another run and subsequently toured the country to enthusiastic welcome.

It was Mr. de Koven's intention to make it a permanent organization consequently most of the original company have been retained and are making their third tour of the country, taking in only the large cities.—Adv.

Grand Opera Successes
A short interview with some of the leading artists of the Boston English Opera Company, which comes to the Majestic theatre, Saturday, March 13, matinee and evening, in the mammoth production of Verdi's beautiful opera "Il Trovatore" seems to develop the fact that there is at least one subject on which opera stars agree and that is, that there is much more than a good voice necessary to acquire success in grand opera. That is why great opera singers are so scarce and why they command such huge salaries. It is said that each generation produces only one or two great tenors of opera. John F. Sheehan, one of the Best English Opera Company's stars is without question the one of the present generation. It is conceded that he is one of the foremost American tenors of the day. Luckily, he also has great histrionic ability; in other words, he acts as well as he sings. That is what makes his impersonations so enjoyable.—Adv.

"Under Cover"
A thrilling detective narrative combined with an entrancing love story, is the theme of "Under Cover," the new play by Roi Cooper Megee which Selwyn & Company will present at the Majestic next Wednesday, matinee and night. The play is one which gives promise of rivaling the popularity records established by "Within the Law," also produced by Selwyn & Company, and already "Under Cover" has passed its 200 performance in both New York and Chicago. "Under Cover" deals with the secret service and an effort to discover the smuggler of a valuable necklace. It is full of surprising incidents and reaches a totally unexpected ending. According to press and public of New York and Chicago, "Under Cover" is a play which will delight all classes of playgoers and no matter what inroads moving pictures may have made with the patrons of the gallery and balcony, in reference to other plays, they will return at least once to see this production.—Adv.

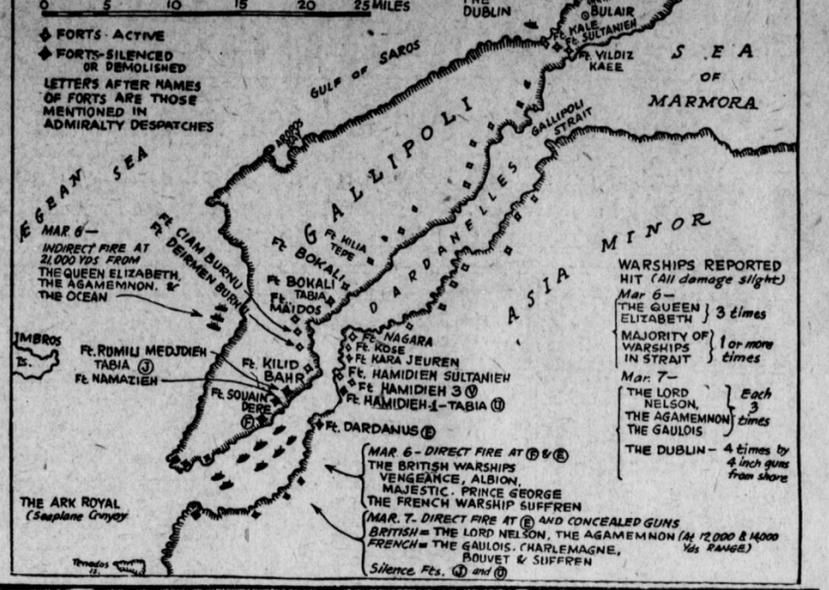

"When Dreams Come True"
One of the greatest theatrical successes of the past year was scored by Philip Bartholomae's musical play "When Dreams Come True." The engagements of this fascinating story of youth have been confined to Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and New York, during that period, and it will be presented in this city for the first time next Thursday, matinee and night at the Majestic.—Adv.

At the Orpheum
Not the least interesting of the clever players at the Orpheum stock exchange, Helen Grayce, who now successfully appearing in vaudeville and who, with a very capable cast is presenting a comedy playlet called "Bill 999." The story of her vehicle is just as interesting as it is well interpreted. It deals with a suffrage bill that is to be passed in the Senate, Miss Grayce essaying the role of the suffragette, while the Senator, who Miss Grayce suspects of opposing the bill, is detained in her home until it is too late for him to make his speech. Just how her scheme works out must not be told here. But the playlet nevertheless gives theatregoers a new phase of women polling at the strings of politics and the lines and situations are clever and well handled.

It is interesting to note that "Bill 999" was written by Miss Ursula Clayton, who was at the Orpheum a few weeks ago herself, and who has presented many very clever sketches in vaudeville. As the suffragette, Miss Grayce is very clever and very funny as the suffering husband, while Francis Morey is all that could be desired as the Senator. The best of Miss Grayce's admirers in Harrisburg, who have enjoyed her many appearances in stock companies at the Majestic, are taking a keen interest in her local vaudeville engagement. She and her company are presenting one of the very interesting attractions supporting Trixie Friganza, the notable headliner of the week.—Adv.

At the Colonial
Another week has rolled around and once again the popular turn "Country Store" will be a feature of to-night's performances at the Colonial theatre. This big comedy turn will appear in conjunction with the last engagements of Tom Linton and His Jungle Girls, one of the breeziest and most tuneful musical comedy features that has appeared at the Busy Corner. Other clever turns of this bill include Marshall and Crumby, monarchs of colored comedy; Soretti and Antoinette, novelty funsters, and Grace Pomeroy, dainty songstress. The Sig Franz Troupe, of nutty cyclists, one of the funniest bicycle comedies in vaudeville, comes to the Colonial for the last half of the week.—Adv.

DARDANELLES FORTS AND POSITIONS OF ALLIED SHIPS

FRENCH ADMIRAL'S VESSEL STRUCK BY TURKISH SHELLS

Paris, March 10, 5:30 A. M.—A fragment of a Turkish shell fell yesterday (Tuesday) at the feet of Rear Admiral Guepratte, commander of the French division operating with the allied fleet in the Dardanelles, as he was directing the operations of the battleship Suffren, which had executed a daring maneuver by penetrating the extreme limit of the mine fields, says a Teneos dispatch to the "Petit Parisien." Several shells are reported to have struck the warship, but the correspondent makes no mention of her having been damaged.

After yesterday's operation, the battleship Gaucuis was warmly praised by Vice-Admiral Carden, the British commander, for the assistance lent in the reduction of the Dardanelles redoubt. Powerful Turkish batteries were silenced by the Gaucuis, which was herself struck by two six-inch shells, although the damage done is declared to have been insignificant.

Operations of the French warships have been delayed for a few hours by the necessity of taking aboard coal and ammunition.

TWO NEW BRITISH SQUADRONS ADDED SINCE THE WAR BEGAN

Berlin, via Amsterdam and London, March 10, 8:45 A. M.—In an article in the "Vorwaerts" the former London correspondent of the newspaper, in dealing with the Dardanelles attack, says:

The composition of the British fleet appears to confirm the rumor that Great Britain has added two squadrons of new ships to her navy since the war began. The sending of the Queen Elizabeth type vessels to the Mediterranean shows how little is the anxiety the British Admiralty feels concerning its superiority in the North sea.

The view is generally expressed that the Dardanelles cannot be forced without a heavy landing party. However, this difficulty should not be given exaggerated importance. It is a great mistake to view the operations against the Dardanelles as a mere bluff.

BERNHARDT TAKES A "WALK"

In Characteristic Telegram Actress Tells of Convalescence
Paris, March 10.—The "Gaulois" has received the following telegram from Mme. Sarah Bernhardt at Bordeaux:

"I am sending this telegram from the balcony, where I have been walking for the last hour."

"Walking" is of course, somewhat of an exaggeration in view of the fact that Mme. Bernhardt's right leg was recently amputated, but the telegram shows that her convalescence has commenced.

Philadelphia, March 10.—Gifford Pinchot, formerly chief forester of the United States and Progressive candidate for United States Senator from Pennsylvania, has been appointed by the French government as special agent to distribute food to indigent French people in the northern part of France, occupied by the German troops.

The news of Mr. Pinchot's appointment reached here yesterday in a cablegram.

Mr. Pinchot's headquarters will be at Rotterdam. He went to France in January to aid in organizing a base hospital planned by his sister, Lady Johnstone, wife of Sir Alan Johnstone, British Minister to The Hague.

U. S. NOW SUPPLIES GREECE WITH MANY TONS OF WHEAT

Washington, March 10.—With the Russian wheat supply cut off by the closing of the Dardanelles to merchant ships, Greece has now turned to the United States and is buying from this country from 25,000 to 40,000 tons of wheat a month, according to Consul General Alexander W. Wedell at Athens.

The Hellenic government has taken this step with a view of keeping down food prices and checking speculation in foodstuffs.

The "Volksblatt" has been suspended.

WILL HOLD ANNIVERSARY

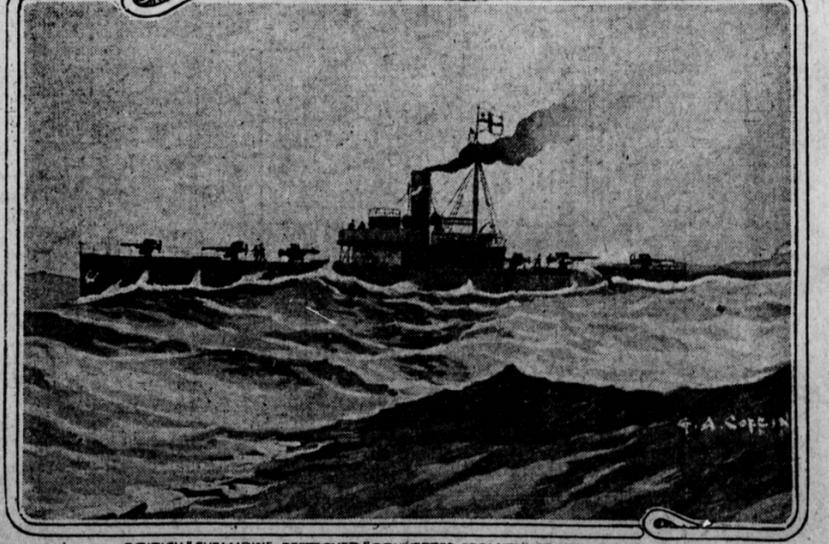

Wormleysburg to Celebrate One Hundredth Year in August
Wormleysburg, March 10.—The one hundredth anniversary of the borough will be celebrated here during the week of August 1.

The plan for the celebration was decided upon last night at a meeting of the citizens in the Town Hall. The appointment of a committee was practically the only business transacted, but from the manner in which the proposition was received it is believed that the celebration will be an elaborate event.

The committee consists of Fred J. Hummel, permanent chairman; Linwood B. Wunbaugh, secretary; A. J. Wright, treasurer; Ralph Schrack and R. F. Baker. This committee will meet Saturday night to appoint sub-committees.

The question of a new Town Hall was also raised and it was decided the borough should have one. It is likely $3,000 will have to be borrowed for this purpose. A plot on Market square has been considered for the proposed new building.

BEAUX PARLORS FOR Y. W. C. A.

New York Woman Tells Milwaukee Folk Counting Is Necessary
Milwaukee, March 10.—"Beaux parlors" is one of the things Miss Blanche Geary of New York said would add to the present facilities of the Milwaukee Y. W. C. A. in her talk to a gathering of ministers, their wives and church workers yesterday afternoon.

There should be plenty of opportunity for courting, Miss Geary said, just as long as there are pretty girls to live in associations there will be beaux to entertain and there is no use to sidetrack the beau question.
