

DOES RHEUMATISM BOTHER YOU?

The Doctors Say "Use Musterole"

So many sufferers have found relief in MUSTEROLE that you ought to buy a small jar and try it.

Just spread it on with the fingers. Rub it in. First you feel a gentle glow, then a delicious, cooling comfort. MUSTEROLE rouses the twinges, loosens up stiffened joints and muscles.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It penetrates to the seat of pain and drives it away, but does not blister the tenderest skin.

It takes the place of the mussy, old-fashioned mustard plaster.

MUSTEROLE is recommended for Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, Pleurisy, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Sprains, Bruises, Stiff Neck, Headache and Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

IN LINE ALL NIGHT FOR BENEFIT SHOW TICKETS

Grand Rush Made for Seats for Performance to Be Given by Elks—Was Somewhat Like Run for World Series Tickets

Carlisle, March 11.—Rivalling the World's Series reservation rush, for unique features, the chart for the Carlisle Elks' Annual Frolic opened yesterday morning with the largest advance sale for the Elks' productions on record.

Unwilling to take any chance of being less than one, two, three in the line of ticket-seekers, several young men sat in line all night in the basement of the Elks' home waiting for the little pasteborders that were placed on sale at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

This little group of all-nighters began to grow at about 5:30 yesterday morning when others, with visions of being first on the scene, began to arrive to take their places in the long line. From that time the gathering was gradual, until about 9:30 o'clock people began to pour in to await their turn at obtaining seats for the big production.

Tells of Berlin's Horrors

Gettysburg, March 11.—Mrs. Frances H. Walter, of this place, who with her daughter, Miss Cornelia Walter, is in Berlin, Germany, has written interestingly to her friends in this place of conditions in that city. In one of her letters she says:

"We are busy as can be, trying to help all we can in this sad time. There are between thirty and forty American ladies who sew every morning from ten to one for the soldiers—making shirts, drawers, chest and back protectors, and some knitting stockings, scarfs, stomach bands, pulse warmers and caps. I go to the hotel (where we have our meetings) three mornings a week and give another day to sewing for the poor."

To Observe Arbor Day

Chambersburg, March 11.—A movement for a general observance of spring arbor day in Chambersburg was set afoot at the regular meeting of the King street branch of the Parent-Teacher Association, held in the King street school building last evening. The association decided upon a celebration of the day at that building, with the planting of shrubs and vines by the scholars and a committee was authorized to arrange with the school board for permission to plant, on school property, and with the County Commissioners for permission to plant vines against the jail wall.

Rescues Child From Burning Bed

Gettysburg, March 11.—Asleep in a burning bed in Frederick boarding house, four-year-old Frances Kane, daughter of Herman Kane, and grand daughter of John D. Kane, both of 119 West Middle street, Gettysburg, was saved from death or serious injury by her mother, Mrs. Agnes Kane, who, unheeding of harm to herself, dashed into the room and carried the child to safety. The fire is believed to have been caused by matches left on the bed by Frances when she fell asleep. How she obtained possession of them is a mystery.

To Inspect Statues

Gettysburg, March 11.—Statues to the Pennsylvania division commanders, Hays, Humphreys and Geary, have been completed and will be inspected by General H. S. Hudekoper, chairman of the State Monument Commission, this week. They will be dedicated in April.
