As an interpreter of the classic music of John Sebastian Bach, Wolle has an international reputation, second to none, having made an enviable record in the musical circles of Germany and England. He has also been active in concert work in this country and is known in many of the larger cities of the United States. He is a resident of Bethlehem, where he is organist and director of the Bach Choir of that city. On the death of Professor Gilchrist, Wolle was elected director of the Harrisburg Choral Society which holds a musical festival each spring.

CARRANZA REPLY TO U. S. PROTEST

He Denies the Responsibility for Constitutionalists in the Pending Crisis

TIMELY ADVICE TO FOREIGNERS

Says They Should Lose No Time in Quitting Mexico Until Tranquillity Shall Be Restored in the Disturbed Republic

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, March 11.—General Venustiano Carranza, in answer to the protest addressed to him by Secretary of State Bryan, through United States Consul Silliman regarding conditions in the city of Mexico, last night addressed a reply to President Wilson personally. He denies the responsibility of the Constitutionalists for a situation which is considered alarming for foreigners but expresses the hope that Americans and citizens of other countries will lose no time in departing from Mexico until tranquillity shall be restored. The Constitutional chief pledges himself to provide every facility for the exodus which he recommends. He suggests that if foreign residents do not desire to leave the country they should seek safer places in the republic. The following is the text of General Carranza's reply:

His Duty to Answer Note

"Although the terms in which this note is worded would afford my cause for not answering, it is my wish, notwithstanding, that my silence be not construed as a justification of charges contained in the same. I have tried to put aside for the moment references which are made to my personal responsibility and looking only for the good of my country and for the benefit of the cause which the Mexican people have entrusted to me, I thought it my duty to answer, at once.

"On the other hand, in view of the importance of the subject discussed in the aforesaid note, I have thought myself authorized not to follow this time customary channels to address you (President Wilson) personally concerning a matter which may involve the success of the Mexican revolution. In the note I am answering, it is taken for granted that the imputation made against General Obregon by an international committee of foreign residents in the City of Mexico, the substance of which also has been communicated to me by Mr. Silliman in his note of the first instant, are true and this assumption has been indulged in when the answer to those imputations was being prepared.

His Defense of General Obregon

"Reserving the privilege of answering more fully and in detail through the customary diplomatic channels the note referred to lately, I take this opportunity to state in an earnest and emphatic way that General Obregon never has intended to incite the hungry populace of the City of Mexico to commit outrages of any character. He has not prevented in any way the entrance of food supplies into Mexico City but on the contrary has facilitated such importations. He has not created wilfully the distressing conditions which prevail at present in Mexico City but has done everything in his power to alleviate them.

"Such a situation is the consequence of a painful but unavoidable state of

No Murder or Pillage

"In face of the charges expressed by the International committee in their complaint to the State Department, I point you to the fact that General Obregon has been in the possession of the city of Mexico since January 26 until to-day without mobs, assassinations, lootings or any other of the outrages which are apt to occur and which frequently do occur in times of war.

"During all this time large amounts of food supplies have been taken into Mexico City and large quantities of supplies have been distributed among the distressed people. Other important measures also have been taken looking to the further relief which I will mention in detail at the proper time.

Right to Evacuate City

"While it is proper to state to Your Excellency that the right to occupy or evacuate Mexico City or any other place in the republic must at all times be reserved and is to be exercised when deemed by the responsible military authorities to be in furtherance of the cause of the revolution, the obligation on the constitutional army to safeguard the lives of foreigners is nevertheless fully understood and realized.

You will, therefore, permit me to assure you that at the time of the evacuation of Mexico City every facility within my power will be afforded to all foreign residents in that city to depart the country or to go to other and safer places in the republic.

His Defense of General Obregon

"Reserving the privilege of answering more fully and in detail through the customary diplomatic channels the note referred to lately, I take this opportunity to state in an earnest and emphatic way that General Obregon never has intended to incite the hungry populace of the City of Mexico to commit outrages of any character. He has not created wilfully the distressing conditions which prevail at present in Mexico City but has done everything in his power to alleviate them.

"Such a situation is the consequence of a painful but unavoidable state of war in which we are and which for the first time really has reached Mexico City, but it has been aggravated by the conduct of the movements who were openly defiant and with concert of action closed their commercial establishments in moments of greatest public distress as a protest against the humanitarian relief tax which General Obregon imposed."
