C. V. NEWS
IS GUARDIAN FOR CHILD
HUSBAND HAD PROSECUTED

Mrs. Jasper Alexander, wife of Cumberland County's District Attorney, Share Home to Little One With the Hope of Reforming Her

Carlisle, March 16.—Believing the child deserves a better fate than to be committed to the Glens Mills school, Mrs. Jasper Alexander, wife of Cumberland county's District Attorney, yesterday obtained the custody of 9-year-old Goldie May Derr, whom her husband was prosecuting all because the mother of the little girl said she is incorrigible.

The court here already has made an order directing that the child be sent to Glens Mills when the District Attorney's wife went before the judge, expressed a willingness to give the youngster "a chance" and the sentence immediately was revoked. Mrs. Alexander explained that during the few days she had supervision over the girl, her deportment was good and she only showed a lack of home attention.

ENGINE AND AUTO COLLIDE
Greencastle Man Had Narrow Escape
From Injury at Grade Crossing

Waynesboro, March 16.—In endeavoring to cross the C. V. R. R. track on West Main street, Saturday afternoon in his automobile, A. A. Morgenthau, of Greencastle, collided with a shifting engine and had a narrow escape from serious injury.

The engine man and Mr. Morgenthau both put on the brakes when they saw that a collision was inevitable and this saved Morgenthau from injury.

The front part of the automobile was damaged but the engine in the machine was not hurt and Morgenthau was able to proceed on his way to Greencastle.

Many Tramps Were Fed
Gettysburg, March 16.—Many interesting figures are contained in the report of William F. Weaver, treasurer of the board of poor directors of Adams county, for the past fiscal year, just compiled.

The report of the county home shows that 2,713 meals were furnished to tramps during the year and 1,859 were given lodging.

On January 1, there were 94 inmates at the home, 40 of whom were in the insane department, 25 in the men's building and 29 in the women's building.

Man Horribly Mangled
Hagerstown, March 16.—The body of an unknown man, horribly mangled, his body being in six pieces, was found along the N. and W. tracks, about half a mile south of the Antietam station, near Sharpsburg, on Sunday morning. The gruesome find was made by Track-walker Ranneis. He at once notified Magistrate Hoffman, at Sharpsburg, who went to the scene, viewed the remains and decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Death Caused by Dropsy
Chambersburg, March 16.—Mrs. Mary E. Bohl, wife of Frederick Bohl, died at her home in Stoferstown, yesterday morning, after a long illness from dropsy. Mrs. Bohl had lived in that community much of her life. She was aged 87 years. Besides her husband the following children survive: William Sittler, of town; Fred, Edward, John B., at home, and Mrs. John Cool, of Stoferstown. Several brothers and sisters also survive.

Unit Orchestra Plays
Daily at the Victoria

Unit orchestra combines the grandeur of the cathedral organ with the finest symphony orchestra. Unlike any other instrument of its character, the tones are effected by the touch of the performer's fingers upon the keys. By means of its many tone controls he can reveal the same sensitive feeling as an artist upon his violin registering the shades of expression at will. In a word, it breathes the very temperament of the operator, and expresses his musical instinct.

This wonderful instrument is made up of innumerable pipes, stops, strings, flutes, clarinets, drums, cymbals, xylophones, harp and cathedral chimes, all at the command of the performer, who by his slightest touch can make each or all do his bidding.

The unit orchestra will be operated during the presentation of pictures by Professors Mallat and Johnson. Each action of the picture will be accompanied by the proper tone expression, thus lending a charm to the entertainment that is enjoyed only by the patrons of a few of the most pretentious houses in the country, such as the Vitaphone theatre, New York City, where the price of admission is five times as great as that of the Victoria theatre.—Adv.

BAN ON AUTOS IN BERLIN
GOES INTO EFFECT TO-DAY

Berlin, March 15, Via London, March 16, 1.31 A. M.—The new regulations restricting the number of automobiles in Berlin went into effect today, leaving the city almost without this class of vehicle. It was a typical spring day and a drizzling rain fell. Taxicabs were at a premium and private cars had almost entirely disappeared. Only one-third of the customary number of machines was available.

It was a frequent occurrence for two or three or more would-be patrons of a taxicab to be seen lined up before a chauffeur bidding his services or waiting patiently at a stand for a taxicab to come along. The antique horse-drawn cab once more was supreme.

The reduction in the street car service which was proposed coincident with the restriction in the use of automobiles has been only partly concurred in by the authorities. Beginning Tuesday, about half of the night street cars, instead of all of them, will be taken off and all the auto bus lines, except one, will be abolished.

EDITOR MAKES A PROTEST
Says Governmental Probes Place Newspapers Under Sort of Duress

Washington, March 16.—Vigorous protest against the tendency of governmental investigations to place the newspapers of the country under a sort of duress, was made by Charles R. Miller, editor-in-chief of the New York "Times," before the Senate Ship Lobby investigating committee. Chairman Walsh had questioned Mr. Miller at length as to editorials and news stories in his paper, bearing on the ship bill, trust prosecutions and railway mail pay.

At the conclusion of his examination Mr. Miller questioned the authority of the committee to inquire as to many of the matters discussed and said:

"I can see no ethical, moral or legal right in this committee to ask me many of the questions you have put to me. It seems to me it would be right for you to inquire whether I know of any improper activities in connection with the ship purchase bill. I have told you I know of none. There, it seems to me, the matter should have ended."

KILLED MEDICINE MAN
Indian Confesses Revenge for Bleeding His Two Children to Death

Fresno, Cal., March 16.—Charlie Davis, a Digger Indian under arrest here, confessed, the police said yesterday, to having killed Dr. Jack, aged medicine man of the tribe, in Squaw Valley on February 8 of last year, to avenge the death of his two children, who had been subjected to bleeding by the medicine man, "to drive away evil spirits." The arteries of the children's faces were opened with pieces of glass, it is said, and they quickly bled to death.

Another reason that prompted the killing, Davis said, was to prevent the medicine man from taking the lives of his remaining child, his wife and of himself, all of whom were subject, he asserted, to the doctor's will.
