Suits That Are Out of the Commonplace---And Yet Within the Means of Every Woman

Every woman wants to wear clothes that express something of her own individuality, that mark her apart from other women—and that's the reason so many women, season after season, come to us for their new apparel.

One of the principal factors in the growth of our outer-garment section is our adherence to a standard of fair dealing—it was on this standard that the store was founded thirty-six years ago—

No garment carries an elastic price; the price quoted to you is the price to any other prospective buyer.

We want you to join our large circle of satisfied outer-garment patrons, and you will, we know, if you'll take the time to compare our garments and prices with those of other stores.
