

FRENCH WRITERS CRITICISE AERIAL DEFENSES OF PARIS

Paris, March 23, 4.45 A. M.—Georges Clemenceau and other prominent writers in the Paris press criticize the aerial defenses of Paris. They declare Zeppelins should not have been able to reach Paris Sunday night which was clear and starlight. The danger of an air fight over the capital with the possibility of the fall of a Zeppelin with its cargo of unused explosives is pointed out. These views are shared by the deputies representing the Paris district, who decided at a meeting yesterday to make representations on the subject to Premier Viviani.

BERKS "POISONED PEN" CASE

Arrest of School Teacher Followed Complaint of His Sister-in-law Reading, Pa., March 23.—A sensation without a parallel in their history holds the quiet boroughs of Kutztown and Hyde Park, this county, in its grip as a result of the arrest of Silas Hertzog, a prominent school teacher of both places, upon the charge of being the violator of a "poison pen" in an attack upon the character of a woman employe of a prominent Reading jewelry firm, carried on through the mail. Hertzog was arrested by Postal Inspector R. G. Gibbons and has been bound over in $300 bail for trial at the United States District Court, Philadelphia, by United States Commissioner Maltzberger, of this city.

LIVED AS MAN FOUR YEARS

Death Reveals Secret of Woman Who Hid Sex to Earn Higher Wage Springfield, Mass., March 23.—The death of Miss Florestine Albertine Beaudoin, whose body was found in Williamansett Saturday night, revealed that she had lived disguised as a man for four years. She resided with her sister, Mrs. Mary LaChapelle, and as "Albert Beaudoin," worked in the paper mills of Holyoke. The only motive suggested for her long masquerade is that she could earn more as a man, for the support of herself and her sister, who is a widow. Her death was due to heart trouble.

After her day's work in Holyoke she began loading a wagon with furniture from the house which she occupied with her sister. A little later she was found lying by the wagon, and died soon after. The post-mortem examination revealed her sex.

BANKER SENT TO PRISON

Edward P. Metcalf, of Providence, Sentenced to Serve Five Years Providence, R. I., March 23.—Edward P. Metcalf, former president of the Atlantic National bank, who was found guilty on January 22 on ten counts charging him with misapplication of funds of the bank, was sentenced in the United States District Court yesterday to five years in prison. Metcalf said he had not intentionally lamed the bank. Cranston was selected as the place for imprisonment, rather than a Federal institution, on the request of Metcalf's counsel, who explained that if his client were confined near Providence he would be able to help in clearing up the affairs of the bank.

COUGHS UP LIVE FROG

Sharon, Pa., March 23.—After spending time and money for medical treatment to relieve violent pains in his stomach, which puzzled physicians, James Smith, residing on the swampy road of Mount Vernon township, was seized with a fit of coughing and evidenced great relief after it was over. Investigation showed that he had coughed up a small frog, which, after a few moments, began to show signs of life.

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, softening and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

Item Welcomed By Many Men

This recipe can be filled at home, so that no one need know of another's troubles, as the ingredients can be obtained separately at any well stocked drug store. They are in regular use and many different prescriptions are constantly being filled with them. This will prove a welcome bit of information for all those who are overworked, gloomy, depressed, nervous and have trembling limbs, heart palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities, insomnia, fear without cause, timidity in venturing, and general inability to act naturally and rationally as others do, because the treatment can be prepared secretly at home and taken without any one's knowledge.

HERSHEY

Large New Dining Room and Other Buildings Are Erected Special Correspondence. Hershey, March 23.—The largest number of improvements in the park are being made this season of any in its previous history. The principal one is the addition of a new kitchen, 25 by 40 feet, to the old park dining hall. It will be equipped with a large refrigerator, four modern ranges and a modern dishwashing outfit. A number of new tables the entire length of the room are also being added. A handsome stone entrance from Park avenue has been completed and the exterior platform in front of the theatre has been removed and a cement entrance with iron railings is being substituted. The store house and photograph gallery are also being enlarged. The latest addition to the Hershey Zoo is a beautiful pair of silver pheasants. They are very fine specimens and are admired by the many visitors to the park. The Young Men's Five Hundred Club held a smoker at the Hershey cafe. Nineteen members of the club were present, prizes were awarded and a fine luncheon was served.

SHE—, SHEMEES, SHE-MEASLES

Something Fell, but Newsies Had Hard Time Naming It New York, March 23.—Place: Park Row. Time: Yesterday afternoon. Huge stacks of "de lates" wuxtrees" arrive on the street at various news stands. Six inch headlines read: "Przemysl Falls." Newsboys see the long expected crisis has arrived. Consternation. Profanity. Blue streaks of it. Despair, disgust and similar words. Derision from the mob. Boys take bunches of papers and dispose themselves in passing pedestrian traffic. Ominous and unprecedented silence. Papers held out without a shriek. Then all along the line with varying degrees of courage: "Here yah, wuxtree! Big fortress taken!" "Y'extraw! Big lates! Just out! (Looks despairingly at headline. Mob waits for it) Per-rem-ees falls! Yeh, Jimmie, I got it. Per-rem-ees. De 'I aint in it." More of the unusual silence. "Woh! Speshul! Final just out! Woomsil, bit fort captured!" "Haw, haw, listen! Woomsil. Hey, Abie. Get yer Swedish uncle. He'll know." "Y'ustree! Waldeya read dare? Austrian Sheemes falls! 50,000 captured!" "Here yah, get dat latest. Allies get She-measles!" "Weak voice: "Paper, mister! De Russians got Sha—Sha—Oh, hell! It fell mister." Some one discovers "Phay-mish-1" is correct. Joy. Shouts. Unusual noise. Somebody buys a paper.

TO SAVE HUSBAND TROUBLE

Penniless but Well-gowned Woman Left Letter Explaining Suicide Philadelphia, March 23.—A well-dressed woman of 35, known both as Mrs. Joseph E. Rea and Mrs. Fanny McFay, committed suicide yesterday in a lodging house at 123 North Sixteenth street. She was found with the end of a hose, attached to an open jet, in her mouth. A letter to Jos. Rea, general delivery, Boston, which lay on a bureau, said: "My Dear Husband—I am sorry I had to do this, but I think it is best after all. My prolonged illness would only have caused you more trouble and worry in the end. I will meet you on the other side." The woman was apparently in extreme financial difficulties, being unable, when she came to the lodging house on Sunday, to pay the rent of $4. She was expensively attired, however, and was of evident refinement. Mrs. Charles Miller, 117 North Sixteenth street, who conducts the house, said that a year ago the woman lived in her house with her husband and the couple were known at that time as Mr. and Mrs. McKay. The man was supposed to be in some way connected with the Haver D. Gray case track. He was ejected from this place, however, for alleged intoxication. Deputy Coroner McKeever telegraphed to the police of Boston to look for the woman's husband.

HOUSE TO CATS AND DOGS

Old Homestead Theirs to Occupy as Long as They Wish Elizabeth, N. J., March 23.—Occupying a house in Ashland avenue, East Summit, a company of dogs and cats which were the pets of the late Mrs. Mary Romaine Wright will be allowed to enjoy undisturbed their present abode until they go voluntarily to another home. In the will of Mrs. Wright, made known yesterday, Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Frederick C. Kelley, is asked to see that this wish is carried out. The home is kept heated and the animals are fed regularly. They seem to be waiting expectantly for the return of their protector. Mrs. Kelley said yesterday that she hoped to have the animals become sufficiently attached to her to live at her home, which is only a short distance from the Wright homestead. Mrs. Wright was noted for befriending dumb animals. With her husband, the late Seamon L. Wright, she lived for more than forty years at the old homestead.

INJURED MINER LOSES SUIT

Accident Held Due to Negligence of Foreman, a "Fellow Servant" Pottsville, Pa., March 23.—Because of the Supreme Court's ruling that a mine foreman is a "fellow servant" of a miner, Judge Brumm yesterday ruled out of court the suit of Frank Incalzi, who asked $5,000 damages from the Pine Hill Coal Company, after meeting with an accident in a drift that necessitated the amputation of a leg. While riding on a motor, Incalzi was struck by a fall of top rock. Court ruled that if this fall was caused by negligence it was the negligence of the foreman, a co-employee. Judge Brumm expressed sympathy for the defendant.

A Queer Eye

An orator stated that "the worst enemy any cause can have is a double lie in the shape of half a truth," and the newspaper reported it "a double eye in the shape of half a tooth."
