defenders of the city, which was considered impregnable."

London, March 24.—A semi-official statement issued by the Russian general staff, says a Petrograd dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, declares that, contrary to expectations, no epidemic of disease was found among the defenders of Przemysl. The number of soldiers seriously ill is said to be insignificant, although 20 per cent. of those in the garrison are suffering from scurvy.

McNICHOL'S EIGHT ELECTION BILLS FAVORABLY REPORTED

Of twenty-five bills reported from committee in the Senate this morning, the most important were the election bills first introduced in that body last night by McNichol, of Philadelphia, including the bill to compel the filing of nomination papers for candidates before the primary elections, which means that independent parties must declare themselves previous to the holding of the primaries. A second bill gives the first column on the ballot to that party that polled the largest vote at the last general election, instead of the last Presidential election, and a third gives candidates place on the ballot according to their priority in filing their papers.

The Senate passed a resolution to adjourn to-day until next Monday afternoon, doing away with the Monday night session.

The eight election bills reported in the Senate follow:

Repealing the non-partisan law relating to officers in second class cities; creating new parties before primaries; prohibiting nomination of candidates by nomination papers after primaries, which prevents fusion; prohibiting the withdrawal of candidates after primaries; providing for the rotation of names of candidates on the ballot and numbering of election districts; changing registration days in odd-numbered years; providing for payment of witnesses summoned before magistrates; providing that where candidates have similar names their occupation may be placed on the ballot.

Bills were introduced in the Senate to-day as follows: McNichol—Granting supervision over county and city inspectors of weights and measures to the Bureau of Standards.

Tompkins—Authorizing the Public Service Commission when requested, to compel the physical connection of telephone toll lines and compel telephone companies to receive and transmit messages from other telephone companies to lines, and to regulate and proportion the charges.

The bill regulating the fees of sheriffs recently recalled from the Governor was again taken up and passed finally.

Other bills were passed finally as follows: Increasing the number of game protectors from thirty to sixty; (House) Enabling first class townships to provide a water supply system; (House) repealing the act requiring road supervisors to construct foot bridges across streams where public roads cross; exempting telephone operators and establishments maintained by religious, charitable or educational institutions from the woman's labor act of 1913; authorizing cities to regulate and license certain motor vehicles.

MYSTERIOUS GERMAN CRUISER KARLSRUHE "CAUGHT" BY CAMERA IN WEST INDIAN WATERS

THE KARLSRUHE COALING AT CURACAO, W. I. FROM A RECENT PHOTOGRAPH

The German cruiser Karlsruhe, for many weeks the terror of allied shipping in the South Atlantic, has been heard of infrequently in recent weeks. Occasionally news of her reached America by steamships from South American ports, but it was not until a month ago she was definitely located in West Indian waters. This photograph of her was taken while she was coaling at Curacao.

CONDITIONS UPON WHICH AUSTRIANS AT PRZEMYSL OFFERED TO SURRENDER

Geneva, March 24.—A summary of what purports to be the conditions upon which the Austrian garrison at Przemysl offered to surrender to the Russians is printed in the "Tribune." The following stipulations are said to have been made.

First—Full honors of war for the garrison.

Second—Special treatment for the prisoners, providing that officers shall be paroled and that none of the troops shall be sent to Siberia.

Third—The right to transport to Austria those killed and wounded during recent attacks.

Fourth—Complete liberty for the civil population, with the right to leave or stay in the city.

"The defenders of the fortress marched out of Przemysl to Russian headquarters with colors flying," says the "Tribune" in its account of the surrender. "The Austrian governor surrendered his sword to the Russian commander while thousands of Austrian troops piled their arms and ammunition in front of the Russian regiments drawn up in line. The Muscovite troops cheered the unarmed Austrians after their last parade. The fall of Przemysl has made a profound impression in Hungary, as the flower of the Hungarian infantry was included among the
