

Founded
1871A safe sure way to Get rid of Kidney Trouble

Kidney troubles disappear with sound healthy kidneys, and sick, weak, sluggish kidneys can be made strong and healthfully active with FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS.
C. A. GLOSSNER, ROCHESTER, N. Y., was so broken down with kidney and bladder trouble that he had to give up working. After taking FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS, he writes:

"I am only sorry I did not know sooner of Foley Kidney Pills, for I feel 100% better since taking them and my kidneys and bladder trouble have entirely disappeared."

Geo. A. Gorgas, 16 N. Third Street and P. R. R. Station

SUBURBAN*ELIZABETHTOWN

Philadelphia Physicians Seek Site for Hospital at Masonic Home
Special Correspondence.

Elizabethtown, March 24.—The Rev. Mr. Seldomridge, pastor of the U. B. church in this place, conducted the services at the Masonic Home on last Sunday. He was assisted by the U. B. church choir.

A delegation of physicians from Philadelphia, representing the Masonic lodges of that city, paid a visit to the Masonic Home last week for the purpose of selecting a suitable site on which to erect the hospital building.

The Misses Berthe Nissley and Sarah Keeney and George F. Greenawalt, of Hummelstown, were the guests of Mrs. J. H. Buch.

The old building, formerly the Black Bear Hotel, built in 1732, now being modeled and converted into a handsome residence by Dr. Vera Treichler, will contain a stone bearing the inscription, "Built in 1732, rebuilt in 1795." Another old landmark, the Black Horse Hotel, will be soon razed to make way for the erection of a large automobile garage.

The court has granted a charter to Unity Castle No. 420, Knights of the Golden Eagle. The signers to the application for the charter were John A. Balmer, E. R. Ebeler, H. L. Gise, F. S. Miller and H. Steiner.

J. Arthur Hoffer and Miss Evelyn Smith were married Friday evening, the Rev. Mr. Hoover officiating.

Hoffer Bros. have been awarded the contract for the erection of Klein Company's new chocolate factory in this borough and also a new residence for E. D. Shenk.

The Kreider Shoe Company, of this place, contemplate adding another story to the Washington and Poplar street buildings, thereby making the entire building four stories.

Mr. W. B. Schneitman has disposed of his farming implement business to Longenecker & Denny, of this place.

Perry Fuhrman, of Columbia, will take charge of the plumbing business of H. R. Schneitman, the recently appointed postmaster.

William Finnegan, of this borough, member of the Laux Shoe Company, Palmera, has moved his household effects to that place.

Horace Spinney, of the Kreider Shoe Company, has accepted a position with the United Shoe Company and is situated at Trenton, N. J.

There is some talk of establishing a motor bus service between this place and Middletown.

E. E. Coble, the local Ford agent, received two carloads of machines last week.

NEWVILLE

Christian Endeavor Society Celebrates Twenty-fifth Anniversary
Special Correspondence.

Newville, March 24.—The Christian Endeavor Society of Zion Lutheran Church celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization by a special service held in the lecture room of the church last Sunday evening. A program of hymns, prayers, scripture lessons, instrumental and vocal music was rendered. An interesting part of the exercises was the "History of the Society," by Miss Annie Greaver, as well as the reading of personal letters from former pastors. The history states that the Society was organized March 26, 1890, under the denominational name of Lutheran Alliance.

There were twenty charter members but that number was soon increased to 85. Four of the charter members are in the local church to-day. March 15, 1899, the name of the Society was changed to Christian Endeavor. Dr. John Snoke and Mrs. Snoke, who were members of this Society, were missionaries to China but at present are in the homeland.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is making plans for a reception which promises to be an enjoyable affair. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Borst, Main street, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Brenda Leidigh, of Carlisle, was the guest of Newville relatives over Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Glaser and daughter, Miss Rene, visited in Shippensburg several days recently.

MIDDLETON

Liberty Band to Give Concert In Realty Theatre, April 2
Special Correspondence.

Middleton, March 24.—Miss Vesta Shiley, of Ann street, was taken to the Harrisburg hospital yesterday morning. She is seriously ill.

Mrs. Benjamin Nause is spending some time at Philadelphia as the guest of relatives.

The Liberty band will give a concert in the Realty theatre on Friday night, April 2, and also one at Elizabethtown, Saturday evening, April 10. A. G. Banks transacted business at Lebanon yesterday.

Clyde Myers, of Waynesboro, has rented the Rambler room at Union station was performed on her for internal trouble.

Edward McCann has returned to his home at Waynesboro, after a couple of days' visit to his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Griffith.

Mrs. D. L. Kluck spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles De Pugh, at New Bloomfield.

DAUPHIN

George Wolf Shoots at Would-be Chickens Who Escape

Special Correspondence.

Dauphin, March 24.—The chicken thieves who have been disturbing Dauphin lately the past month tried to enter the coop of George Wolf on Monday night about 11 o'clock. Mr. Wolf hearing the noise came out on the porch and noticed two men at the coop. He immediately fired two shots from a gun but the thieves escaped unhurt.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. George W. Shoop, South Erie street, on Tuesday evening.

HALIFAX

G. W. Westfall Convalescing From a Severe Illness

Special Correspondence.

Halifax, March 24.—William Butter, of Millersburg, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Hannah Butter.

Warren C. Heisler transacted business at Harrisburg Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lobo and children of Millersburg, visited James M. Nelson and family over Sunday.

Mrs. George Tobias spent a few days the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Rauch, at Highspire.

Mrs. David G. Swiegel spent Monday at the home of her brother, William Matchett, at Millersburg.

Miss Helen Helt spent the weekend visiting relatives at Harrisburg.

A. H. Prenzel was a business visitor to Selinsgrove on Saturday.

U. S. Gauger G. W. Westfall, is improving from a serious illness.

DILLSBURG

Birthplace of the Late Senator Quay Will Be Razored

Special Correspondence.

Dillsburg, March 24.—One of the oldest and most notable buildings in town has been doomed. The old house on the east side of Baltimore street, known as the Quay property, has become so dilapidated that it became necessary to have it removed. This house is known as the birthplace of former Senator Quay, and a short time ago the Quay heirs purchased the property. Harry S.elman as received the contract to remove the old building and enclose the lot with a new fence.

W. S. Sheffer, the proprietor of the People's Cash Store, has recovered sufficiently to be at his place of business. He has purchased a horse and a new delivery wagon and in the future will make his deliveries with the team.

John Rodes, of York, spent Sunday with friends in and around town.

Mrs. V. B. Snock and daughter, Anna, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Stouffer on Baltimore street Saturday and Sunday.

Elsie Rineer, of Harrisburg, was the guest of D. K. Marin and family on Sunday.

J. O. Smith, electrician at Lebanon Valley College, spent Sunday and Monday with his family on York street.

A. C. Altland has been confined to the house for the past few days with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

W. C. Smith, of Harrisburg, was in town Monday.

On Friday evening the last one of a series of entertainments will be given in the Dillsburg opera house. The Fisher-Schipper Concert Company will entertain the townsfolk. It is the only number of the series that had been heard in the Dillsburg opera house before. The patrons of the Star Course were so well pleased with the entertainment given by these people last year that they were engaged as one of the numbers for the present course.

Laura Elicker, one of the students at Shippensburg State Normal, is spending a ten day's vacation with her father and mother on North Baltimore street.

Kathryn Altland has gone to Philadelphia to take training to become a trained nurse. Daniel Altland will be the new clerk in the postoffice to take her place.

Dr. and Mrs. Harding, of Reading, and Mrs. V. C. Kline, of Mt. Alto, were visitors at S. M. Ensminger's early in the week.

Postmaster Altland spent several days in Philadelphia.

FACES CONTEMPT CHARGES

Reading Striker Accused of Violating Anti-Picketing Injunction

Reading, March 24.—Francis Ertel, one of the striking knitters of the Nolde & Horst hosiery plant here has been summoned to appear before the court Saturday to answer contempt proceedings filed by the firm yesterday, it being charged that he has violated the injunction recently granted by Judge Endlich restraining the strikers from molesting the employees of the company.

Miss Carrie Blanning spent Sunday with her mother.

Miss Erma Kaufman, of Reinerton, was the guest of Miss Gracey Thompson over Sunday.

Miss Annie Miller, Max Byerly and Evert Fasold attended a party at Schuykill Haven Saturday evening.

Joseph Condell, who died Wednesday, was buried from the home of his nephew, John Condell, Saturday. Interment in the old Catholic cemetery with the Rev. Mr. Clarke officiating.

E. S. Row is digging out the foundation for a dwelling and his hardware store on the lot adjoining the Schoffstall property, on West Market street.

Joseph Durbin resumed his studies at Mercersburg Academy yesterday after spending his spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Durbin.

DUNCANNON

Grade School Children Give Entertainment on Three Evenings

Special Correspondence.

Duncannon, March 24.—Mrs. Robert Kelly and two daughters, Misses Ethel and Naomi, are the guests of Mrs. Charles W. Sieg.

Fred T. Lowe, of Enola, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Flickinger, of Altoona, spent over Sunday with relatives.

The pupils of the lower Duncannon public schools held an entertainment in the school room Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of last week which were largely attended.

Mrs. Samuel Hoffman, in charge of Dr. B. F. Beals, was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital, Monday, where an operation was performed on her for internal trouble.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Adv.

FEEL YOUNG!

It's Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation. It develops from just a few constipated days, unless you take yourself in hand.

Coax the jaded bowel muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistency and Nature's assistance.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets open the bowels; their action is gentle, yet positive.

There is never any pain or griping when Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are used.

Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two occasionally and have no trouble with your liver, bowels or stomach. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Adv.

Call 1991—Any Phone

Bouman's*A Millinery Surprise
Two Hundred Exclusive Models From A Fifth Ave. Show Room,
At Special Prices

'Twas a favor from a maker who appreciates the large business we give him that brings at this odd time some of the smartest and most distinctive trimmed hats that this well-known Fashion Shop only displays. Exclusive models, made to sell at $5 to $10. All go on sale to-morrow at

$3.75, $4.75, $5.75 and $7.50

There are large and small sailors, poke shapes, new small turbans and side roll effects.

They come in lissures, hemps, milan hemps, leghorn, and soft, fine braids; made by hand; faced with French crepe, taffeta and fancy silks.

An excellent finish indicates the class of hats offered.

Popular shades—black, sand, rose, Army blue, white, navy, Russian green, purple and geranium red.

The window gives but a slight idea of the beautiful hats, an investigation will reveal the wonderful values.

Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.

Let the Boy Select His Easter Suit Early

Come with him—or send him alone; this makes him feel "mannish," and then we like to show you how youngsters are cared for when they come unescorted.

Suit styles and patterns are many and varied, of durable materials and excellent workmanship.

And what pleases the boy folks, are the little touches that usually come in men's suits only.

Prices begin at $1.98 and gradually climb to $12.50.

A striking display of Boys' Norfolk Suits with two pairs trousers, come at $4.95.

Third Floor—BOWMAN'S.

To-morrow Will Be Another Busy Day In the Sale of Bedspreads, Sheets and Cases

'Tis a fact that many housekeepers, as well as rooming house and hotel owners are only awakening to the saving opportunities that this sale affords. The fact that they are slightly spotted, or have a little bluing on, matters not, as every thread is intact, and a trip to the wash tub will make them perfect. The display alone is worth seeing.

There still remains a goodly assortment from the—

2,174 Sheets

Utica, Mohawk, Pequot, Portland, Nesponsitt and other mills are represented—sheets mostly "blind" trademarked to distinguish them from first qualities. These names are a guarantee of quality and dependability—note the greatly lowered prices:

Sheets at 76¢—first quality sells at 98¢; made of Utica sheeting; marked "O"; 81x90 inches before hemming.

Sheets at 69¢—first quality sells at 95¢; extra good quality muslin