SUBURBAN

HUMMELSTOWN

of Charles Spahr Took Place This Morning.

Special Correspondence.

Hummelstown, March 27.—The funeral of Charles Spahr, who was killed at Rutherford on Tuesday, took place this morning from his late home north of town. Services were held in the United Brethren church and were conterment was made in Shoop's cemetery.

tery.

The dwelling of Christian Capp situated on East Second street, has been sold through the real estate office of Richard B. Earnest to Mary A. Seibert, of Harrisburg for a private consideration. Possession will be given hard first.

Miss Pearl Behney entertained the embers of the I. T. I4 club at her ome on West Main street last even-

The funeral of Mrs. Jacob Gans, The funeral of Mrs. Jacob cans, who died Monday night, too kplace resterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late home on East High street. Services were held at the house and were conducted by the Rev. Herbert S. Garnes, pastor of Zion Lutheran thurch. Interment was made in the Hummelstown cemetery.

church. Interment was made in the Hummelstown cemetery.

Miss Katherine Nissley, a student at Smith college, Northampton, Mass., is spending the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Caroline Nissley.

Miss Ruth Fasnacht, of Harrisburg, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Cassel yesterday.

Misses Barbara and Anna Martin spent yesterday in Harrisburg.

There will be no preaching services in the Methodist church on Sunday.

Mrs. Jacob Nissley, mother of Dr. M. L. Nissley, of town, died yesterday morning at her home at Derry Church. Mrs. Nissley was aged about seventy years.

seventy years.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Zellers will leave April 5 or a trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Fran-

WILLIAMSTOWN

Walter Row, 69, Dies From An Attack of Paralysis

of Paralysis

Special Correspondence.

Williamstown, March 27.—Walter Row, aged 69 years, an old resident of this place, died of paralysis at his home on East Market street Thursday evening. He drove the stage from Lykens to Keffers twenty-five years ago before the Williams Valley Railroad operated in the valley.

Joseph Bond, a student at St. Stephen's College, Anandale, N. Y., is spending his Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bond.

Ray Donley, of Philadelphia, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Amelia Donley, Miss Florence Frish will go to Philadelphia to-morrow where she will enter the Jewish hospital as a student nurse.

Misses Esther and Ruth Keiter,

Harrisburg, are spending the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Daniel

The Rev. A. A. Hughes, of Jersey Shore, a former rector of the St. Paul Episcopal church, is visiting friends in this place.

A man about 70 years of age walked over the mountains from Shamokin to this place Thursday to visit Michael Flynn, who, he learned, died eight onths ago. Robert Muir, Jr., of Mt. Carmel, a Robert Muir, Jr., of Mt. Carmel, a student at Conway Hall, arrived here to-day to visit his classmates, Mark and Guiden Walkinshaw.

Solomon Kline, of Tower City, vis-ited town friends Thusday.
Miss Florence Bateman, of Wico-nisco, a student at Millersville State Normal school, visited Miss Ruth Hun-ter Thursday. ter Thursday.

DAUPHIN

George Landis Will Sing "The Palms" in Presbyterian Church

Dauphin, March 27.—George Landis will sing 'The Palms' in the Presbyterian church to-morrow morn-

Mrs. Harvey Garman, of Lucknow, was the guest of Mrs. H. G. Greena-walt on Thursday.

HERSHEY

The Misses Marquart, of Ohio, Are the Guests of Their Brother ecial Correspondence. Hershey, March 27.—Mrs. E. E. Bender, of Williamstown visited relative Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deichler and

Abraham Geyer at Hillsdale. W. Sneath is visiting relatives at

Mrs. Violet Freed, matron of Leb-anon Valley College, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nisslev.

Misses Ruth and Martha Marquart, of Springfield, Obio, are the guests of their brother, Robin Marquart.

Miss Mary Painter visited friends at
Mr. Love

WEST FAIRVIEW

Miss Catharine Cranford Given a Social at Her Home

West Fairview, March 27.—Miss Catharine Cranford, a student at Ship-pensburg State Normal School, but now pensburg State Normal School, but now home for the Easter vacation, was given a social on Thursday evening at her beme on Stateroad street. A very pleas and evening was spent in the playing of games and other pastimes. Refreshments were served to the following: Miss Mary Baughman and Van Nunemaker, of Enhaut; Victor Neiman, Lykens; Miss Catharine Harro, Miss Eleanor Walters and Daniel Peters, of Harrisburg; Carl Humphries, Philadelphia; Miss Catharine Cranford, Miss Ruth Shettel, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cranford and Russell Cranford. Miss Ruth Shettel, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cranford and Russell Cranford. The Junior class of the High school met at the home of Vernon Hawbaker, Railroad avenue, on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hawbaker served W. C. T. U. Meets at Home of Mrs. Henrietta Borst on Thursday evening by the Woman's Christian Temperance Cunion. The officers of the union, Miss ham Mrs. and Mrs. J. F. Hawbaker served them refreshments. The following members of the class were persent: Luther Eckert, Robert Marshall, Frank Everhart, Vernon Hawbaker, Joe Wachtman, Edna Barnhart and Ro-

Reformed church Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

O. H. Watts, of Müllersburg, called on friends in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Keiter, son, Ray, and daughter, Ruth, of Washington, D. C., are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

A public baseball meeting will be held in the band hall on Monday evening to stimulate interest in the Halifax baseball club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fasnacht entertained at a party a number of their little friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Mildred's 6th birthday.

LINGLESTOWN

Reformed Pastor To Conduct Services

secial Correspondence.

Linglestown, March 27.—Services will be held in Wenrich's church toof God to-morrow morning by the pastor, the Rev. Lewis Reiter.

Services will be held in the Church of God tomorro wmorning by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Sigler.

Services will be held in the United Brethren church tomorrow evening by the pastor, the Rev. Clyde Lynch.

Twenty-two pupils took the examinations to enter High school, held on Thursday by Professor King.

Miss Tillie Schromberg spent Thursday in Harrisburg.

Daniel Grubb and family, of Penbrook spent Thursday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grubb.

Frank Hench and con, of Progress,

Presbyterian church to-morrow morning.

Mrs. George W. Heck has returned from a visit to her son, Dr. Maurice Heck, St. Augustine, Florida.

Mrs. C. W. Talley and daughter, Mrs. W. G. Garverich, attended the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Walters at Mechanicsburg on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speece, of Specaeville, were the guests of Mrs. Mary Cofrode yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis returned Thursday from a visit to York and Baltimore.

Sale of Edwin Spacht Attended by Many Persons

Special Correspondence.

Curtin, March 27.—Mrs. I. H. Schreffler, Mrs. N. A. Schreffler and son, Earl, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Holtzman.

Mrs. W. and Mrs. David Lewis returned Thursday from a visit to York and Baltimore.

The Storoity selected orange and black as the colors.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Weaver Tuesday, April 6, instead of March 29. The date was changed on account of the revival services which are being held in the U. B. church.

Mrs. Alonzo Tuckey spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Anetta Waggoner, near Hogeetown.

Mrs. John Gray has returned to her home in Harrisburg after being the guest of Mrs. Daniel Spangler.

The Misses Eberly moved to the Miss Swartz property on Railroad avenue Wednesday. Joseph Rupp will move to the Eberly property which he recently purchased.

MIDDLETOWN

Special Services in the M. E. Church To-morrow Morning

Special Correspondence.

Middletown, March 27.—Earnest Bard, of Lewistown, transacted business in town vesterday uspersond, in the more special correspondence.

Middletown, March 27.—Earnest Bard, of Lewistown, transacted business in the wasterday vesterday to reverse the services of the services of the more special correspondence.

Middletown, March 27.—Earnest Bard, of Lewistown, transacted business in the wasterday to reverse the services of the serv them refreshments. The following members of the class were persent; Luther Eckert, Robert Marshil, Frank Eurehart, Vernon Hawbaker, Joe Wachtman, Edna Barnhart and Remaine Honich.

Mrs. Loize mother at Maryaville.

Mrs. Loize mother at Maryaville.

Mrs. Loize mother at Maryaville.

Mrs. Mark's Lutheran church tomorrow at 10,30 a.m. in connection with the Palm Sunday services. It will be rendered by twenty voices, consisting of home talent.

DILLSBURG

The Rev. E. M. Allen Appointed M. E. Church Pastor

Special Correspondence.

Dillsburg, March 27.—To-morrow morning the Rev. Mr. Voil will preach morning the Rev. Mr. Voil will preach morning the Rev. Mr. Wolf will preach morning to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will preach morning the Rev. Mr. Wolf will be reversed to the Rev. Mr. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to the Mr. And Mrs. Wolf will be reversed to

The following order of services will e observed in the borough churches United Brethren—The Rev. H. F. Rhead, pastor. 10.15, "The Judgment." 7.30, "Who Is This?" Sunday school at 1.30. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.20. Church of God—The Rev. B. L. C. Baer, pastor. 10.15, "When Jesus Triumphed." Sunday school at 1.45. 3, general mass meeting in interest of local option in U. B. church for everybody. Prominent Harrisburg speakers. C. E. at 6.30; speaker, Mr. Will, of Washington Boro. 7.30, evangelistic services, "The Greatest Parade to Be Held" (a Palm Sunday prophecy).

NEW CUMBERLAND

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Coover Entertain at 500 Party

Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Coover entertained on Thursday evening at their home

MEWVILLE

W. C. T. U. Meets at Home of Mrs.

Henrietta Borst

Special Correspondence.

Middletown, March 27.—Earnest Bard, of Lewistown, transacted business in town yesterday.

Special services will be held in the M. E. ehurch to-morrow morning an 10.30 o'clock when new members will be admitted on probation. A welcome will be extended the pastor, the Rev. W. Twin Courselond was held at the home of Mrs.

Henrietta Borst on Thursday evening by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The officers of the union, Miss held in the afternoon.

A cottage prayer meeting was held or any course of the two Sunday schools will be represented. Rally day exercises of the two Sunday schools will be held in the afternoon.

A cottage prayer meeting was held

Go Bermuda

MILLERSTOWN

John Beacham, Civil War Veteran, Dies From Attack of Asthma

years. Mr. Beacham served in the Un ion army during the Civil war. He also was a miner for a number of years.

STEAMSHIPS

owest Rates.

Win S. S. "BERMUDIAN" 10,513 Tons
Grew S. S. "BERMUDIAN" displacement Screw of the control of the control furniture and all the accepted finishes.

Call 1991—Any Phone

Opening the Season of

Summer Furniture

In a few short weeks, your porch will be your home. The entire home surroundings will have changed into a bright, airy, cheerful, warm-weather abode.

Suggestive of your porch-home, is a great, magnificent pergola built within the Furniture Department, in which are displayed late achievements in summer

New, are combinations of Scotch grey, French grey, and green with white, owmani

You will want to see this refreshing, flower-decked, mid-summer scene.

in sets and separate pieces. The famous Kaltex line (similar to illustration) is featured in elegant styles, and soft colorings that will not fade.

Mrs. J. Z. Prowell visited relatives in Harrisburg yesterday.

On Wednesday a little daughter was born to the Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Pegley, of Allentown. Mr. Fegley is a son of Dr. H. N. Fegley, of this place.

Leon Swartz is home from State College for the Fester, heliday.

Dies From Attack of Asthma secial Correspondence.

Millerstown. Masch 27. — John acham, a Civil war veteran, of this ace, died at his home on Thursday ening of asthma at the age of 70 ars. Mr. Beacham served in the Un-Beacham, a Civil war veteran, of this place, died at his home on Thursday Keller. evening of asthma at the age of 70

EASTER SEASHORE

Sixteen Day tickets at reduced rates on sale for all trains.

SATURDAY, APRIL 3 Via Reading Railway

SAYS BLOCKADE WILLEND WAR SOOI

COLONEL JOHN S. MOSBY "England's blockade of Germany is just and, I believe, will end the w within two or three months at the outside. I predict the Dardanelles will pened and the Turk driven from Europe, as he should be. And to Mr. Eli Root, the ablest man in the country, the United States owes a great debt, f he defeated the Ship Purchase bill and thereby kept America from be involved in the present conflict." Such was the opinion expressed by t famous cavalryman, Colonel John Singleton Mosby, of Warrenton, Va., o war veteran, lawyer, author and story teller, who is more than eighty ye old, but is still active and as military in mien as he was when he led t famous Mosby Partisan Rangers in the days of '61, causing great damage the rear ranks of the federal army and giving no little amount of worry to Sing Maunder's "Olivet to Calvary" The choir of St. Stephen's Episcopal church will sing Maunder's sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" at the 4.30 o'clock Vesper service to-morrow afternoon. This cantata recalls simply and reverently the scenes which mark the last few days of the Saviour's life on earth, and is most appropriate for this season of the year. The solos will sung by A. G. Shantz, tenor; Clared H. Sigler, bass, and Master Willia Webster, boy soprano.

LAWYERS' PAPER BOOKS Printed at this office in best style lowest prices and on short notice.

Artistic Printing at Star-Independ