

Do you know, friend reader, that there is a doctor named Moroney? He prescribed for a patient and the latter went to the druggist to have the prescription refilled. The apothecary looked up in surprise and said: "Why bless you, we could never refill Moroney and get away with it." The druggist knew, for he drank Moroney's Army and Navy Whiskey himself.

Moroney's Army and Navy Whiskey is on sale at all first-class bars and cafes.

STEELTON HIGH FALLS TO CENTRAL IN HARD GAME

Locals Miss Basket in First Period but Come Back Strong and Win by Score of 31 to 20—Blue and Gray Scrubs Are Victors

Central High played a sensational come-back in its second game with Steelton High in the Chestnut street auditorium last evening, winning after forty minutes of hard basketball by the score of 31 to 20. The locals had a three-point lead to overcome at the start of the second period.

Rote's floor generalship was in a large degree responsible for Central's victory. Wins was outplayed at center by Crump, the Steelton pivot man, and it was up to the forwards on the local team to get the ball away. Rote proved himself equal to the task. While his mate, Ford, made more field goals than Rote, still the latter made the opportunities. Ford made a splendid showing from the fifteen-foot line, caging sixteen of twenty-three fouls, making eight out of nine in the last period when points were badly needed.

For Steelton, Dayhoff and Crump did the best work. The former made but fourteen of twenty-three fouls. The game was unusually rough and time was called in seven instances to give the players a breathing spell. Central High was off in locating the basket in the opening period. The line-up:

Central: Steelton. Rote (Capt.)... F... Brandt... F... Wins... F... Crump (Capt)... F... Reed... G... Gardner... G... Bingham... G... Dayhoff... F... Field goals—Central, Rote, 2; Ford, 4; Wins, 1; Steelton, Brandt, 1; Star... 1; Crump, 2; Gardner, 1; Dayhoff, 1. Foul goals—Central, Ford, 16 of 23; Steelton, Dayhoff, 14 of 23. Referee—Homer Geisel. Time—Meisel. Score—Hamer. Time of halves, 20 minutes. Central, 8 field goals; Steelton, 6 field goals.

The Central scrubs won the second game from the Steelton second team by the score of 27 to 23. Houtz played a good game. The line-up:

Central Scrubs. Steelton Scrubs. Wallower... F... Coleman... F... Smith... F... Breckenridge... F... Nisley... G... Levitz... G... Hall... G... Morrette... F... Field goals—Central, Smith, 2; Houtz, 3; Hall, 1; Steelton, Coleman, 1; Breckenridge, 5; Morrette, 1. Foul goals—Central, Smith, 13 of 19; Wallower, 3 of 4; Steelton, Coleman, 9 of 18. Referee—Mike Yoder. Time of halves—20 minutes. Field goals—Central, 6; Steelton, 7.

Boxers Put One Over At Altoona. Altoona, March 27.—The boxing game in Altoona received a solar plexus last night when Tommy Lowe, of Washington, and Frankie Nelson, of New York, put up the worst stall ever seen in an Altoona ring. During the third round the referee walked from the ring, after declaring the match off. The two fighters continued their exchange of "blows." Afterward, a youngster finished refereeing the match. The fight fans left the theatre in disgust.

Ten Years' Misery Ended

J. T. Chambers, merchant, Jonesboro, Ark., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured me of a ten-year standing case of rheumatism. I suffered miserably. A friend told me of being cured; so I used them, and they cured me, too."

Most middle-aged men and women are glad to learn that Foley Kidney Pills afford a way to escape sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, puffiness under eyes, stiff and swollen joints and other ills attributed to kidney troubles. Geo. A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street.—Adv.

SAYS THE ALLIES WILL WIN

Field Marshal Sir John French, commander in chief of the British forces in France, in discussing the military situation, declared he never was so confident of victory as he is to-day. He praised the fighting qualities of the Germans, but says the outcome of the war will end in victory for the Allies.

The emperors of Abyssinia are in the habit of inviting the 40,000 soldiers of the Ghibi garrison to a great dinner every Sunday. At the foot of the emperor's place is the imperial box. Its tables are resplendent with European silver and glass, surrounded by unimpeachable waiters, who serve the high dignitaries and distinguished visitors with a repast of immense variety with French sauces, Italian macaroni and so on. In the vast hall one can see nothing but a compact homogeneous crowd of black faces and woolly heads, among which the high officials are in no way distinguished.

Above all is the red throne on which sat his majesty, the Negus Neghesti, under a great canopy, supported by four gilded columns, with two tall candelabra lighted in front and on either side a row of Ras Degghah, Lig and Ato. He ate with the fork provided by nature—viz. his five fingers—the engiers and the berberi produced in his dominions.

When he took in his hand the horn goblet full of the twenty-year-old tetch, the Ras, the Degghah, the Lig and the Ato closed round him and covered him with their scaramma and their mantles so that the profane eyes of the European guest might not see the "lion of the tribe of Judah" drink. They also crowded round him and covered him when, tired of any dish, he washed his hands and turned to another.—Washington Post.
