

work with. This remains a mystery as nothing was found in the cell by which he could work them. This particular pair of cuffs belong to Detective White and he still refuses to believe that the boy got them off. The boy pleaded guilty to two counts of larceny in Javenile court this morn-ing and was sent to Glen Mills. The police had him charged with stealing two bicycles. Judge McCarrell express-ed a belief this morning that a deten-tion house for the commitment of jave-niles was necessary. Harrisburg Members of

PAYNE BUYS TAUSIG HOME

Tenant of Fleming Mansion, Recently Willed to Civic Club, Will Move

SUBMARINE: CREW IS SAVED

TRAVELED FAR The British steamer Aguila was sunk

London, March 29, 2.45 P. M .--

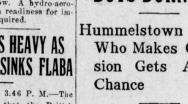

Order Surreptitiously Send Stuffed Spe-AGUILA IS SUNK BY GERMAN

Miss Tanzer's Statement Before United States District At-torney Marshall would take Miss Tan-zer's statement, he prepared a waiver of immunity for her to sign. She af-fixed her name and her signature was witnessed by her new counsel, Harold A. Speilberg. Then she sat down in the office of Assistant District Attorney Wood and began to tell her story. It was said she would be at it all after-noon. Although rapidly sinking for several months past, it was only recently that Mr. Lamberton was compelled to take to his bed. Drwever, he displayed re-markable optimism and only a week ago he spoke of planning a trip this summer with an intimate friend. on. Miss Tanzer, according to her law er, simply made a mistake in identi Continued on Ninth Page Born Here May 21, 1856

James McCornick Lamberton was one of Harrisburg's most prominent citizens, being widely known in church, legal, educational, historical and social circles. He was born in Harrisburg citizens, Deing viel in the state is most eminent attorneys, was state is most eminent attorneys, was prest frand Master of the Pennsylvania Grand Lodge of Masons, and, on his retirement from legal practice in Harrishurg became president of Lehigh rishnrg became president of Lehigh is the state of the state is most eminent attorneys.

steamer Falaba had been sunk by a PROMISES TO

LOSS OF LIFE IS HEAVY AS SUBMARINE SINKS FLABA

the Feeduces conditent they are from the F-4. Big Naval Crane Being Used The dredge California, whose chains are thought to have been securely fixed on the body, will be moored in a po-sition directly above it and tug boats will criss-cross it in all directions with their drag chains in an effort to wind them into a net around the hulk. A big naval crane having a lifting capacity of 130 tons dead weight will then attempt a direct lift on the sub-marine if the chains are made last to the eraft. The dreige will assist. W. C. Parks, a civil engineer, has started construction of an immense div-ing bell fitted with heavy plate glass ports which is expected to be ready for use by noon to-morrow. A hydro-aero-plane is being held in readiness for im-mediate flight, if required. Hummelstown Youth sonality. Although rapidly sinking for several Forts on Bosphorus Bombarded Petrograd, Via London, March 29, 6.30 A. M.—An official statement is-sued last night by the general staff says: "The Black sea fleet on Sunday bom-barded the outside forts and batteries on the Bosphorus on both sides of the strait of Constantinople, is a narrow passage which connects the Black sea with the Sea of Marmora. Constantin-ople stands on its west side at its out-let and partly on the Sea of Marmora. The strait is 18 miles long.) says

Hostile Ship Reported Sunk

Continued on Sixth Page.

to Front and Muench Streets

Frank Payne, who occupies the Fleming mansion, 612 North Front Terming manison, 612 North Front street, which was willed by Mrs. Wil-liam M. Fleming to the Civic Club of Harrisburg, is preparing to vacate that house on July 1, having purchas-ed the house at the northeast corner of Front and Muench streets, from Herman Tausig. The deal was closed Saturday. Saturday. This house was built by L. H. Kin-and, vice president and general man-ager of the Bell Telephone Company, and was purchased two years ago by Mr. Tausig, who has occupied it since then Wr. Parane's lobus on the Flom.

First Purloined From the Elks' Club House in Tacoma, Washington, and Has Since Been Coming East, From Lodge to Lodge

cimen Here

ANIMAL HAS

This is the story of the stuffed elk A dispatch from London last night that has been on its travels from the said that the Aguila had sent out dis-Pacific slope to the various cities and tress signals to the effect that she was towns in which there are lodges of the

Benevolent and Protective Order of <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

off Bishop Rook. Her crew of 23 men was saved. The Aguila was a vessel of 1.204 tons. She was owned in Liverpool. Bishop Rook is on the Scilly islands at the cutrance to the English Channel.

being pursued by a submarine.

200 OF VILLA FORCES DEAD

179 Wounded and 600 Horses Also Left on Field Upon Retirement at.

Matamoras Yesterday

By Associated Press. Washington, May 29 - A dispatch to the State Department says that when the Villa forces retired at Matamoras yesterday at 3 p. m. they lef 200 dead and 179 wounded, and 600 horses on were given as 8 killed and 36 wounded.

Reports from Progress said order was being maintained there under repeated assurances of protection to life and property by Carraaza authorities.

Dispatches received in diplomatic quarters here to-day from diplomatists n Mexico City said it was understood there that General Obregon with Carranza forces was returning to the capital and that Zapata forces were about to evacuate.

X

risburg became president of Lehig University until his death. His grand father was William Buehler, for year father was William Buehler, for years prominent in hotel and insurance cir-cles in Harrisburg, a courtly old-school gentleman who for years managed the Buehler Hotel, now the Hotel Bolton, and later became the head of large in-surance interests here. Of Mr. Buehler it was said by Charles Dickens, who was a guest at the Buehler Hotel while making his first visit to America, that years was a guest at the Buehler Hotel while making his first visit to America, that he was "the most polished and courte-ous gentleman" he met in this coun-try. The grandson inherited to a fine degree the traits of his ancestor. Mr. Lamberton was educated in the Hurrisburg Academy, St. Paul's School, at Concord, N. H., and at Yale Uni-versity, where he was graduated in the

Continued on Second Page.

$41,100 IN NEW BUILDINGS Kaufman Gets Permit to Put Up Store

That Will Cost $28,000

A permit for the erection of the new building at 6 and 8 South Mar ket square that is to replace the Kaufman stores, destroyed by fire on th night of January 18, last, was issued tothe field after a fight that lasted four hours and a half. The Carranza losses James H. Grove. The new building will cost in the neighborhood of $26,000 It will be built of brick and will be Three stories high. This improvement is one of several costing a total of $41,100, for which permits were issued this morning. The E. B. Mitcheli catate will build a $10,-000 structure on the site of the Stieff piano house. 24 North Second street, for the use of the piano company. Another permit calls for the erection of a 2½-story tile and stuce house on Hillside road, south of Twenty-first street, by Dr. B. E. Wright, to cost $5,000. three stories high.

street, $5,000.

John Snyder got a permit to build a one-story gazage at 1945 Kensington street, costing $100.

yesterday afternoon off Milford Haven, Says He Was With Another Youngster an inlet on the coast of South Wales. The loss of life probably was heavy The Falaba left Liverpool on Saturday for the west coast of Africa with 140 passengers and a crew of 120 men. Her officers stated that when the German submarine appeared it whistled thrice as a signal for the Three of the Falaba's life boats were swamped. Many persons aboard the vessel were thrown into the sea where they struggled while the sub-marine circled about, offered, according to stories told by those rescued, rested on several criminal charges, said he has made a resolution to be a better boy and then with a story that appeared to be truthful he related in detail, even down to the minute, how passengers and crow. Captain Davis, of the liner, was picked up dead. Eight other bodies incked up dead. Eight other bodies were recovered. The survivors were landed at Milford Haven. The Falaba was considerably larger than most of the British merchantmen which have been sunk by German sub-marines. She was 380 feet long and her net tonnage was 3,011. She be-longed to the Elder Line, was owned in Liverpool and was engaged in the African trade.

African trade.

Stock Exchange Open Good Friday New York, March 29.—Members of the Stock Exchange decided by viva voce vote to-day not to close the Ex-change on Good Friday.

Who Dropped Lighted Match in Hay in Barn-Pair Then Ran and Rang Fire Alarm

Bad associates, improper nourishment and lack of proper home training were among the causes of juvenile whistled thrice as a signal to the crime mentioned by physical session of bation officers at a brief session of juvenile court this morning. Judge MeCarrell presided. The smoking hab-

16 years old shortly after he was ar rested on several criminal charges rested on several criminal charges, said he has made a resolution to be a the On December 11, last, at 5.30 o'clock in the morning the two boys stole into the Brantner store, through the cellarway, so the youth testified this morning, and took a revolver, box of candy, sixty-three cents and some to-Br.

Continued on Ninth Page.

SHRAPNEL FIRE AT FRONT: 10,000 RUSSIANS TAKEN

VON KLUCK WOUNDED BY

Berlin, March 29, By Wireless to Sayville .--- The report of the progress of the fighting issued from headquarters to-day relates among other things that General Von Kluck, the German commander who led the famous Ger-man rush into France in the early days of the war, has been slightly wounded by shrapnel fire while inspecting advance positions of his army. The condition of the general is described as satisfactory. The text of the announcement follows: "On the west front the day of yes-

"On the west front the day of yes-terday passed rather quietly. Only in the Argonne and in Lorraine was there minor engagements and these were successful for the Germans. Gen-eral Von Kluck was slightly wounded by shrapnel while inspecting advanc-ed positions of his army, his condition is satisfactory. "German troops have stormed Tau-roggen, across the Russian frontier.

roggen, across the Russian frontier, northeast of Tilsit and taken 300 Rusnortheast of Tilsit and taken 300 Bus-sian prisoners. A Russian attack on the railroad from Wirballen to Kovno at a point near Pilwiszki broke down. "The Russians suffered heavy loss-es in the Krasnopol district. More than 10,000 Russians were taken prisoner among them being a squadron of lan-cers with their horses and five ma-chine guns. A Russian attack to the northwest of Ciechanow was repuls-ed."

WALL STREET CLOSING

By Associated Press.

By Associated Press. New York, March 29.—Bethlehem Steel's feverish movement continued to the end. Rock Island showed sud-den strength and activity. The clos-ing was strong. Another sensational advanced in Bethlehem Steel, which rose over 14 points to 89, with wide gains in other specialties. were the chief features of to-day's market.