MISS CHARLOTTE ADAMS BRIDE OF EARL MACKENSON

Engagement to Dr. W. J. Scheffley Announced at Luncheon Given by Miss Lappley's Mother

Ceremony was Solemnized This Afternoon at Home of Bride's Mother—The Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, Officiating

A pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Adams, 217 Forster street, when her daughter, Miss Charlotte Adams, became the wife of Earl Mackenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Mackenson, 1213 North Second street. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, pastor of Grace M. E. church, who used the double ring service. Only the immediate members of the families and a few friends were present.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, Southern smilax and bride roses, and the ceremony was performed under a canopy of smilax and roses.

The bride wore a gown of cream lace over accordion pleated pink chiffon and black tulle hat trimmed with pink roses. A Tokio corsage of Japanese roses were the flowers worn by the bride. There were no attendants.

The lesser orchestra furnished the wedding music and played during the dinner served immediately after the ceremony. The table appointments were in pink and white, Japanese roses and softly colored candelabra carrying out the color scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackenson will leave to-night for a wedding trip to Palm Beach, Fla., and on their return will reside for the present at 217 Forster street.

MISS LAPPLEY TO WED

Engagement to Dr. W. J. Scheffley Announced at Luncheon Given by Miss Lappley's Mother

At a luncheon given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. John Lappley, at the home of Mrs. John M. Lappley, 2031 North Fourth street, announcement was made of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ruth Lappley, to Dr. William J. Scheffley, 1624 North Third street.

The table appointments were in pink and white, with sweet peas as a centerpiece and a single rose as place favors.

Miss Lappley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lappley, 1800 North Fourth street. She is a graduate of the Central High school, class of 1913, and will graduate from the Froebel Kindergarten Training School this June. She is teaching at the kindergarten school conducted at the Bethany mission on Herr street.

Dr. Scheffley has been appointed professor of dentistry in the Severance Medical College, Seoul, Korea, and will take up his new work at the coming fall term. He is a graduate of the Boys' Central High school, Philadelphia; the Philadelphia Dental College and Temple University. He is a member of the Psi Omega Dental Fraternity, the local and State dental societies and graduating president of his class at the Philadelphia Dental College until the time of the five-year class reunion.

He is a member of the advisory boards of several union church movements in Philadelphia and this, with his experience in rescue mission, Christian endeavor and Sunday school work in the same city, gave him valuable experience for his new work.

The young couple will sail from San Francisco about August 1. Dr. Scheffley will devote his time to the study of dental radiography, several educational systems, the methods of conducting charitable institutions and attending a number of conferences and conventions before leaving.

Those present were: Miss Maude Graybill, Mrs. Charles B. Lambert, Miss Elma Lyter, Miss Ines Miller, Miss Emma Lorenz, Miss Blanche Sebald, Miss Ethel Miller, Miss Kathryn Alsdinger, Mrs. Geo. J. Schuman, Miss Della Woods, Miss Elizabeth Dunn, Miss Marion Williams, Miss Evelyn Garber, all of Harrisburg; Misses Margaret and Grace Rummel, of Reading; Miss Margaret Middleton, of Steelton; Miss Sarah Muth, of Hummelstown; Miss Ruth Lappley, Mrs. John M. Literary Note.

"I must confess that I don't understand Henry James. His style is so involved."

"I'll tell you how to go about reading him. First run over a life insurance policy. After that Henry James will seem lucid and clear."—Pittsburgh Post.

A Veteran.

The chef was interviewing the young man who had applied for work.

"Have you had any experience in the lunch business?" he asked.

"Why, I should say so," replied the energetic youth. "I've been lunching for almost twenty years."—Lippincott's.
