BAD NOTES REACH $15,000

Estate Cannot Meet $6,000 Added, but Paper May Be Forged

Selinsgrove, Pa., March 29.—Another startling business transaction has been added to the developments since the death of the Rev. Dr. Charles M. Auran, Friday night, under suspicious circumstances after President Aikens, Dr. Thomas C. Houtz and Professor Herbert A. Allison, of the faculty of Susquehanna University, furnished both local banks with signed statements that many of the appearances of their names on Dr. Auran's notes in those banks were forgeries.

Charles I. Mattern, a Beavertown storekeeper, disposed of his business for $6,000 a fortnight ago to Dr. Auran. Notes bearing the name of President Aikens were given for the amount, but Charles Pulrich, of counsel for creditors, regards them as forgeries, as the Beavertown notes were not included in the list which President Aikens furnished as including all the bona fide indorsements he remembers of having made for Dr. Auran.

President Aikens has been in the northern part of the state for two days and could not be located to confirm or deny Mattern's suspicions. The Mattern developments increase the notes against Dr. Auran's practically worthless estate to an amount exceeding $15,000.

MINE MULES LOSE JOBS

Electricity To Be Used in Operating Machinery at Keystone Colliery

Wilkes-Barre, March 29.—Electricity is to take the place of the mine mule at the Keystone colliery, near Laffin. The Wilkes-Barre Company yesterday began the work of installing the system which is to sound the death knell of the mule about fifty miles.

Electricity also is to take the place of steam in operating the machinery in the breaker.

State Police Guard Topers' Mecca

Bloomsburg, Pa., March 29.—With Millville the only place, with the exception of a distillery, between here and Berwick, where intoxicating liquors can be sold legally, the citizens of that village have made application to have a member of the State police stationed there. The policeman was expected to arrive to-day.

BEAUTIFYING OF PRIVATE GROUNDS AND SCHOOL YARDS

Shade Trees and Ornamental Shrubs Recommended for Different Sections of the Country by the U. S. Department of Agriculture

Washington, D. C., March 29.—What kind of trees shall we plant to beautify our grounds?

What shrubs would be suited to our school yards?

These are questions which are frequently asked the United States Department of Agriculture. Soil and climatic conditions differ so greatly in the different sections of the United States that in answering such questions special consideration has to be given each section. The department's specialists have prepared a special list of trees and shrubs suited for general use on private grounds, streets, private parks and school yards for each of five general divisions of the United States. The five divisions are as follows:

- 1—New England States, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.
- 2—Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas.
- 3—Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.
- 4—New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and Nevada.
- 5—California, Oregon and Washington.

These lists are merely suggestive, but they include such trees and shrubs as seem well adapted to the particular locality, and they may be of assistance to those who are interested in the beautifying of towns and cities. Here is a list:

- District No. 1
Deciduous Trees—Sugar maple, Norway maple, silver maple, green ash, white ash, American white elm, red oak, white oak, pin oak, American linden.
Evergreen Trees—Norway spruce, white spruce, Colorado blue spruce, white pine, Scotch pine, balsam fir.

Shrubs (Coast Region)—Roses, weigela, European holly, lilac, laburnum, deutzia, Hydrangea paniculata, mock orange, Japan quince.
Trees (Columbia Basin)—Scotch elm, American elm, Norway maple, European linden, sycamore, green ash, silver poplar, Russian poplar, white willow.
Shrubs (Columbia Basin)—Lilac, hardy roses, Philadelphia, Eucalyptus hortensis, laburnum, spiraea, Tamarix amurensis, Rosa rugosa, hackberry.

Planting Suggestions

The beauty of a shade tree depends upon its normal and symmetrical growth. In order to insure this, before planting cut off the ends of all broken or mutilated roots; remove all side branches save upon evergreens, so that a straight whip-like stalk alone remains. Dig holes at least 2 feet in diameter and 1 foot deep in good soil, and make them 4 feet across in pool. The sides of holes should be perpendicular and the bottom flat. Break up soil in the bottom of the hole to the depth of the length of a spade blade. Place 2 or 3 inches of fine top soil, free from soil or other decomposing organic matter, in the bottom of the hole. On top of this place the roots of the tree, spread them as evenly as possible over the bottom of the hole, and cover with 2 or 3 inches of fine top soil as before. Trap firmly with the feet and fill the hole with good earth, leaving the surface loose and a little higher than the surface of the surrounding soil. When the work of planting is completed, the tree should stand about 2 inches deeper than it stood in the nursery.

In order to insure symmetry of growth, trees must be allowed unrestricted area for development. At least 40 feet should be allowed between trees intended to occupy the ground permanently. Quick-growing temporary trees may be planted between the long-lived ones to produce immediate results, but these should be removed as soon as they interfere with the development of the permanent plantations.

The lists of trees and shrubs contained in this publication are merely suggestive, but in all cases they include such sorts as are well adapted to the regions.

Reading's Oldest Woman Dies

Reading, Pa., March 29.—Reading's oldest woman, Mrs. Mary Geisweil, widow of John Geisweil, died yesterday of general debility after a short illness. Her 100th birthday would have occurred on June 26.

Some Victims of La Grippe Never Fully Recover the Health of the Lungs

La Grippe and Bronchial Coughs Often Result, Pneumonia may Develop, and Weak Lungs Lead to Tuberculosis.

THESE are the reasons why you should stop those violent, weakening grippe coughs. They're dangerous. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR masters them quickly, and leaves the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs in a sound, healthy condition.

MRS. T. A. TOWNE, Watertown, N. S. Dak., says: "I had a severe case of grippe and my doctor prescribed FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and it soon overcame my attack of grippe. When my children have colds I never think of any other medicine but FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, for it always depends on it."

J. D. ENTERKIN, Winston, Ga., writes: "I had a terrible attack of pneumonia, both lungs involved. After recovering somewhat, my doctor prescribed FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and it soon overcame my attack of pneumonia. I bought a 50c bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and it alone entirely cured me."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR has a record for general health that no other cough medicine can equal. It is absolutely free of opiates and is the favorite cough medicine of a majority of people. Use it for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and all other grippe coughs. It will not disappoint, or harm the most delicate person.

NEW WAGE RATE PROPOSED

Employees of Wilkes-Barre Railway Asked to Accept 26 Cents an Hour

Wilkes-Barre, March 29.—Petitions are being circulated among the employees of the Wilkes-Barre Railway Company by which the signers designate their willingness to accept a wage of 26 cents an hour and thereby come to a new working agreement with the company. The petitions were in the hands of inspectors employed by the men early yesterday morning.

The old agreement expired January 1, and two arbitrators, Samuel L. Warner, of Philadelphia, for the company, and Attorney Thomas D. Shea, of Wilkes-Barre, for the men, have so far been unable to settle the controversy.

ANOTHER BANK SHORTAGE SHOCKS LEBANON COUNTY

Myerstown Trust Treasurer in Jail Accused of Embezzling $8,300—Was Close Friend of Alvin Binner, the Schaefferstown Suicide

Lebanon, Pa., March 29.—Amos Hassler, treasurer of the Myerstown Trust Company, is in Lebanon county jail, charged with embezzling $8,300 of the funds of the company. Hassler is reported to have made a confession and, while expressing his entire willingness in every way to help the bank officials to make good the loss, has up to this time steadfastly refused to tell where the money went.

Hassler was arrested early Saturday evening, but the action was kept a secret until last night, when it caused a mild sensation here, where the accused bank official is well known. The discovery of the shortage in Hassler's accounts was made by State Bank Examiner Charles E. Gebhard, of this city, in the course of a regular inspection. Hassler was brought here by automobile at once, and, in default of bail, committed by Alderman O. B. Siegrist.

Hassler is 30 years old and has a wife and one child. He is a native of Berks county and was employed in the Womelsdorf bank at the time of his election as treasurer of the Trust Company, when it was instituted in 1910 as the Farmers' Bank. Less than a year ago its name was changed to that of the Myerstown Trust Company. It has a capital of $125,000 and a surplus of $25,000. Hassler was bonded by the American Surety Company for $25,000 by Edwin H. Kurtz, of Reistville, president of the company, the directorate of which is composed of substantial business men and farmers in the eastern end of the county.

It is a coincidence that Hassler and the late Alvin Binner, cashier of the Schaefferstown National Bank, were close friends. It was following Binner's suicide, February 4, last, that it was learned Binner had looted the bank, requiring the stockholders to make good a shortage of $42,000, his participation in the bank's failure, Arthur J. Hoever, of this city, is now in the same jail as Hassler, awaiting sentence in May for aiding and abetting Binner.

It was stated officially last night that Hassler's shortage was $8,300, as disclosed by a complete examination of the books. Hassler himself kept an account of his shortage and his figures agree with those of the examiner. Hassler took his arrest quietly, and it seemed it came to him as a relief from a crushing burden.

SUNDAY SUICIDE WAVE

One Made Complete Job of It, Two Will Recover

Reading, March 29.—An epidemic of suicidal attempts kept the police busy yesterday.

Dependent because he had long been out of work, Albert Strohm, 59, pulled both triggers of a double-barreled shot gun in his bed room at noon almost tearing his heart and left lung out of his body. He leaves a widow, to whom he spoke a few minutes before the suicide, and five children.

Charles Trout was taken to a hospital, suspected of having taken strychnine. He was found in violent pain at the home of his father-in-law.

An officer was called to the home of William Royer, suspected of having taken wood alcohol with suicidal intent. He resisted removal to a hospital and had to be taken by force.

Melancholy, Woman Doubles Suicide

Lancaster, March 29.—The body of Miss Mary Sawyer, a cigar maker, 65 years old, was found in her apartment yesterday, and the coroner's verdict was that it was a case of suicide due to melancholia. Her sister, Mrs. William Hutton, called, but was unable to enter; then the police forced the door. An empty vial showed she had first drunk carbonic acid and had then turned to two gas jets.

WHEN HEADACHY TAKE CASCARETS FOR THE BOWELS

To-night! Clean Your Bowels and End Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box now. You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleansing up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.—Adv.
