BASKETBALL SEASON A THAW

Eastern League Officials Decide to Let Season End With Camden and Reading Tied

Philadelphia, March 30.—As a result of a meeting of the Eastern Basketball League at the Bingham last night the forfeiture of last Saturday night's game to Camden by Referee Whitey Mallon was declared null and void, and the season of 1914-15 was declared to have ended in a tie between Reading and Camden for first place. The proceedings leading up to this were complicated, but the result of three hours of heated controversy, motion-making and voting amounted to just that.

The complications regarding tickets that led up to the fiasco were threshed out thoroughly pro and con, the main point that was brought out being that manager Berliner is only part manager of the Reading club, and that the last word regarding any action by Reading

FRANK MORAN STOPS WELLS

Bombardier's Tender Jaw Again Proves His Undoing When Fighting Well

London, March 30.—Frank Moran, the American heavyweight, who hails from Pittsburgh, and who lost to Jack Johnson in a 20-round bout in Paris on June 27, 1914, knocked out the English champion, Bombardier Wells, in the tenth round before 4,500 spectators in the London Opera House last night. The match was for 20 rounds and a purse of $3,500.

Moran sent a right to Wells' jaw and the English champion fell flat on his face in the ring as if dead.

The crowd, which had watched Wells' clever boxing enthusiastically, seemed stunned; then cheers burst forth, and Wells' second lifted his prostrate form and carried it over the ropes.

In the first round Moran outfought

Victoria's Pipe Organ Proves That Merit Wins

That merit always wins no matter in whatever particular line it may be, has been very successfully demonstrated by the crowded houses at the Victoria ever since the installation of the $25,000 Hope-Jones unit pipe organ orchestra. It has always been the aim of the management to make the Victoria stand out as the one moving picture theatre that would be up-to-date and modern in every detail and wherein its patrons might find rest and comfort as well as to enjoy the highest class silent dramas under the most favorable conditions. This could only be accomplished by the installation of our wonderful pipe organ. During the presentation of our motion pictures the operator of the pipe organ can give each action its proper tone expression, thus adding greatly to the pleasures of film plays. By means of its many controls, the operator can reproduce the same sensitive feeling as an artist can upon his violin, cello, harp or almost any musical instrument, regulating the shades of expression at will. In a word, it breathes the very temperament of the player and expresses his every musical instinct.—Adv.

FIGHTERS WORK HARD

Johnson and Willard Getting Near to Their Desired Weight

Havana, March 30.—Jack Johnson and Jess Willard continued yesterday their training routine to fit themselves for the heavyweight championship fight in which they are to engage one week hence. Both men worked hard in their training quarters before large crowds and also on the road.

Yesterday morning Willard went over the road, jogging and sprinting for five miles. He did not expect to do any work to-day. He will make his final spurt Wednesday and then will gradually let down in his training. He says he expects to enter the ring at 233 pounds, so he has six pounds to take off.

Johnson did six miles on the road yesterday morning, running and walking. Yesterday afternoon, in the Stadium, he punched the bag, threw the medicine ball and then went eight fast rounds with Bob Armstrong, Colin Bell and another sparring partner. Despite his hard work Johnson showed no signs of exhaustion.

The big black fighter is heavier and seemingly is slower than he was at Reno five years ago, but he says he is satisfied with his condition. He gives his weight as 225 pounds, and says he expects to "dry out" an additional five or seven pounds.

HART WANTS TO FIGHT

Kentucky Heavyweight Thinks He Can Still Battle

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—Ten years after he won a twenty-round bout from Jack Johnson, Marvin Hart, heavyweight pugilist, of Louisville, Sunday, announced his intention to return to the prize ring.

March 28, 1905, he was awarded the decision over Johnson at San Francisco. Hart's last fight was in 1911, when he was knocked out by Carl Morris in three rounds at Sapulpa, Okla. Since his retirement Hart has been serving as a deputy sheriff in Jefferson county. He says he is as excellent as ever and is in excellent condition. Hart's age is 38.

BLOW KILLS A PUGILIST

Tully, Struck Over the Heart, Dies Soon in a Hospital

Stuebenville, O., March 30.—In the first round of a fight between Clyde Sharp, of Stuebenville, and "Special Delivery" Tully, of Pittsburgh, here last night, Tully fell unconscious. He died soon in a hospital. Sharp is held by the police.

The boxers, welterweights, clinched as the bout started, and in breaking away exchanged body blows. Tully was struck on the left side and dropped. The hospital physicians said he probably had suffered from heart disease.

VINCONE TEAM HERE SATURDAY

At the Orpheum

Henrietta Crossman heads a long and varied list of Keith stars at the Orpheum this week, the whole combining into a fine array of attractions. Names like Swor and Mack, Mr. and Mrs. McGreevy, Milo, and several others, form a great setting for the dramatic efforts of Miss Crossman, whose playlet is strongly pathetic, timely and excellently enacted. "Thou Shalt Not Kill" is its theme, and along with a story that emphasizes a mother's love, its denouement war in stirring lines and emotional situations. Swor and Mack are here again too, this time with nearly all new comedy material. What-over this team of comedians brings forth may be depended upon for being all wool and a yard wide. Their bling face comedy is a scream from start to finish.

Another continuous laugh is in order when Mr. and Mrs. McGreevy, the rural musicians, come on the boards. Such rural cut-ups haven't been seen here in moons and their take-off is so realistic that it's artistic. Milo? With the question point, please, must be seen to be appreciated. Just Milo? must suffice here, the smiles will come with the surprise. And there are three or four other splendid acts and all of them are varied and interesting.
