Ban on Potash Exports

The export of potash was forbidden two months ago because of the belief that exports to neutral countries were used to manufacture explosive for France and England. The prohibition resulted in a sharpecontraction in this trade especially with the United States. Mine owners are seeking government permission to increase the price to compensate them for their loss.

Textile factories engaged in turning out the cheaper lines of goods are hampered by a shortage of raw material. The import of wool has virtually ceased and woolen rags are in great demand for the making of shoddy. Some mills have taken to spinning shoddy yards. Inadequate receipts of American cotton have raised the prices of cotton yards and cloth. Weavers are trying to place long contracts

Geo. H. Mayr, of 154 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., a prominent druggist, has published a guide to health, in which he shows how he cured himself and brought relief to thousands of other sufferers from constipation, bilicusness, indigestion and intestinal troubles by the use of French healing oils. One dose usually convinces. The most chronic cases rarely need over three doses. This book will be mailed free on request. Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is solid by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.

The crowd approached the thousand mark.

It was a lively struggle from the start and although the Central High school had the advantage from the start, spirit ran high. The teams were keyed up to top notch and toward the close of the second period Rote and Melville were on the verge of a fight and both were ruled out of the game by Referee Early. The crowd serged out the floor but quiet was resumed and the game continued.

From the time Ford caged the first goal of the game the older school was leading the fray and had a five-point bargin at the close of the first period. Tech scored to within two points of the winners in the closing period. Scheffer, the Tech captain, was the best scorer on his team, making twenty-one of the points, nineteen on fouls. Melville scored Tech's only other field goal, Central scored ten times from the field. Rote and Ford each scoring three and Reed and Winn dividing the other four. House Kills Measure to Establish Separate State Bureau for Therapeutists

LAUREL VETO IS SUSTAINED

Plan to Make Myrtle the State Flower Is Introduced-Glenn Asks Probe of Alleged Activity of Liquor Interests in State Politics

Representative Glenn, of Venango

Representative Glenn, of Venango, introduced in the House last night a resolution directing an investigation of alleged illegal expenditures of money by the liquor interests in the political campaign of 1914. The resolution was laid over for printing.

A joint committee of three Senators and four Representatives, to carry on the investigation, is provided in the resolution. A minority member from each House shall be appointed. The committee will have the fullest power to hold hearings and compel attendance of wilnesses who must bring documentary evidence when directed to do so. The committee may employ cierks and have the advice of counsel.

Governor Brumbaugh's veto of the bill which designated the mountain laurel as the state flower was sustained by a vote of 174 to 6. Representative Geiser, Northampton, its sponsor, said he introduced the bill by request. About the same time Mr. Dunn, of Philadelphia, introduced a bill intended to make myrtle the state flower.

A bill creating a separate state bureau for the licensing of practitioners of drugless therapeutics was defeated by a vote of 94 nays to 76 ayes, after one hour's debate.
