FOUR LIVES LOST IN BIG FIRE

$200,000 Blaze Nearly Destroys Entire Village of Norfolk

Watertown, N. Y., March 31.—Four lives were lost and damage to the extent of $200,000 was done by a fire which practically destroyed the village of Norfolk early to-day. Fourteen stores were destroyed as well as two hotels and several residences. The dead are: Mrs. J. Thomas, her two children and her sister.

TO BE MARRIED TO-NIGHT

Miss Priscilla May Duncan and B. Boyd Harrington Will Be Wedded at Duncannon

Miss Priscilla May Duncan, of Duncannon, will be married this evening to B. Boyd Harrington, of 111 South Front street, this city. The wedding will take place in the Duncannon Presbyterian church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. Duncan.

Dr. George H. Johnston will officiate. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Benjamin Stiles Duncan, as matron of honor; Miss Jean Stewart Duncan as maid of honor, and Miss Anna Duncan Wills and Miss Ruth Wills as bridesmaids. Miss Mary Stewart Duncan the bride's youngest sister, will act as flower girl.

Mr. Harrington will have for best man William Stewart Duncan and the following ushers, Farley Gaunett and George Shotwell, of Harrisburg, and B. Stiles Duncan and Patrick F. Duncan, Jr.

Miss Duncan's gown will be a lovely creation of ivory panne satin worn over accordeon plaited Gougette crepe en train of point d'Alencon lace and old point lace will adorn the corsage. The veil will be most dainty with touches of old point lace and natural orange blossoms of Florida. She will carry a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley tied with white satin ribbon.

The matron of honor and maids will wear quaint Empire gowns of corn-colored taffeta over ruffled skirts of gold net with simple trimmings of black velvet ribbons and small old-fashioned flowers. They will carry shower bouquets of yellow daisies and forget-me-nots tied with blue chiffon. The flower girl will wear an Empire dress of white organdie and val lace over accordeon plaited chiffon, scallops of dress touched with yellow rose buds, a broad white satin sash, poke bonnet of white tulle and yellow daisies with black velvet tie strings complete this charming little costume. Edwin B. Wase will play the wedding march and Mrs. James Lynn Fitzgerald, of Clarion, will sing. Looser's orchestra, of this city will furnish the music at the reception.

OBERLIN

Burning of Mortgage Will Be Celebrated Sunday by U. B. Church

Oberlin, March 31.—Easter services will have special significance to the membership of Neidig Memorial United Brethren church Sunday because that congregation will then celebrate the burning of the mortgage which signifies its freedom from debt. To-morrow the last remaining dollar of debt on the church will be liquidated, but the celebration of the event will be postponed until Easter Sunday evening. The payment to-morrow will be the last of a debt of $4,200 which has all been gathered together since the Rev. C. E. Boughter assumed the pastorate four years ago. The Sunday school will hold a spring rally Sunday morning at 9:15 o'clock. Special music will be furnished by the choir at all the services.

The official board of the local United Brethren church will hold a business meeting in the church this evening at the close of the prayer services.

Milton Wise, of town, and his son, William, residing in Harrisburg, having jointly purchased a double frame dwelling house on Highland street, will occupy the same to-morrow. The father, with his family, will occupy the western end of the dwelling and William and his family will be domiciled in the eastern end of the home.

The Rev. John B. Rupley, of Gettysburg Theological Seminary, is spending the Eastern vacation with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. D. E. Rupley.

David Keammerer, a student at Susquehanna University, is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keammerer.

Miss Catherine Rupp, Steelton, was entertained Tuesday evening by Miss Ruth Lebo, at her home, Highland street.

Harry Stouffer, Main street, was entertained by Hummelstown friends on Sunday.

Herman Myers, Chambers street, has returned from a short trip to Philadelphia.

J. Frank Chambers has moved from Highland street to the Zoll property on Main street.

It's Mighty Encouraging

To see so many familiar faces--men whom we have fitted out in seasons past--among those who are coming to this Live Store for new Spring wear, is a source of much encouragement.

It is pleasant to know that the principles first adopted for the guidance of our business have never required changing in any essential detail, but, amplified by time, growth and experience, still serve to maintain and increase our prestige in this community.
