ossibility That Blue Ridge League Will Move Further Into Pennsylvania-To Increase the Circuit to Eight Clubs

Hagerstown, April 1.—That there a possibility of Harrisburg and ork being represented in the Blue idge League, a class D organized II association, at present composed Chambersburg, Gettysburg and inover in Pennsylvania, Hagerstown and Frederick, in Maryland and Mar-insburg in West Virginia, was an-ounced by President Charles W. Boy-last night.

ounced by President Charles W. Boy-last night. President Boyer returned yesterday rom a trip to York where he was in conference with several men who are anxious to get that eity back on the baseball map. Harrisburg was repre-sented at this conference by a promi-nent business man who was actively interested in the Tri-State team sev-eral years ago.

neent business man who was actively interested in the Tri-State team sev-eral years ago. Although no definite action was taken the Blue Bidge official was as-sured that it would be possible for York and Harrisburg to join his cir-cuit and that it was believed the ven-re would prove a success. Bhould those interested in the pro-dition be able to put it across in a places and formal applications i admittance are received by Presi-it Boyer, he will immediately call neeting of the league officials to se organized ball this season it will be be necessary for York to put a feam into the field so that there would be an even number of clubs. That an eight-club league composed of the six teams now in the Blue Ridge circuit with Harrisburg and York will flourish is the belief of President Boyer and it is understood that he will use his influence toward that end.

Reading, April 1.—In reply to the statement made by Manager Howard C. Henry, of the Camden Eastern League club, that A. A. Berliner and Andy Sears, of the Reading team, had approached Jackie Adams pad James Kane, official timekeeper, to have the Eastern League race end in a tie, Sears in a public statement yesterday said "I am through with basketball in Reading as long as the present mar-agement bus control of the team. "I add that I spoke to Adams in Hazleton ut the race. After our exhibiting me there, Adams and I were discuss of the vace and I said (Jackie, wouldn't it be a good thing for the players if it Would end in a tie! Jackie said at that particular . "After the last game here I spoke to Adams again and asked him wheth-er anybody else spoke to him about a tie. I said, 'You know, Jack, I never did anything like this before and the best way and only way is to let the best team win. At this time we had four games away from home and two and two away. .
