

YOU CAN PLAY THE ANGELUS

Herein lies the difference between the Angelus and all player-pianos. You can play as well as the expert demonstrator, because the Angelus devices, all patented, will do as much for you as for the skilled musician.

The Melodant accents the melody. The Phrasing Lever gives correct control of tempo. The Diaphragm pneumatics duplicate the human touch. The Sustaining Pedal introduces the loud effects at just the right points. These and other patented devices enable you to play the Angelus artistically the first time you try. Come in and investigate for yourself. A genuine Angelus costs only $700 on partial payments; others up to $1,050.

Come in to-day or any time it's convenient. This is the only store in the city displaying all styles of Victrolas and Edison Discs, $15 to $275. Demonstrations any time it's convenient for you to stop in.

BEYER'S EIGHT BILLS ARE SATIRES ON LEGISLATURE

Philadelphia Representative Has Fun With Fellow Law-makers in Measures That He Draws Up Governing Liquor, Chewing Gum and Things

The tendency of the present Legislature to censor everything and everybody by the establishment of county boards, and to have everything of importance submitted to the people for their referendum vote, has led Representative Beyer, of Philadelphia, to have prepared eight bills satirizing the practice, which he says he will present to the House on Monday night. Before leaving for Philadelphia last night Mr. Beyer announced that the titles of his bills, which express the general text, are as follows:

"An act to regulate the licensure of moving picture shows in this Commonwealth and providing for an election every three years by the qualified electors of any county to determine the question by a special election, whether or not the exhibition of such pictures shall be permitted within the jurisdiction of any county."

French Remedy Aids Stomach Sufferers

France has been called the nation without stomach troubles. The French have for generations used a simple mixture of vegetable oils that relieve stomach and intestinal ailments and keep the bowels free from foul, poisonous matter. The stomach is left to perform its functions normally. Indigestion and gastritis vanish.

Mr. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading druggist of Chicago, cured himself with this remedy in a short time. The demand is so great that he imports these oils from France and compounds them under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

EQUATORIAL ECUADOR.

A Land of Earthquakes Nearly All a Mile Above Sea Level.

The traveler arrives in Guayaquil laden with quinine pills, but he learns that in a journey of a day he can reach the temperate zone. He brings summer clothing for a country crossed by the equator and nearly perishes on the frozen slopes of high mountains. He finds a government as unstable as the volcano shaken soil. He notes important industries that thrive upon these turbulent shores. Ecuador is a land of contradictions.

It is the land where the Incas ruled after they came into Peru. It was the birthplace of Atahualpa, who fell before Pizarro. It was from his capital at Quito along the mountains that Gonzalo Pizarro rode out with Orellana to discover the Amazon.

The land which bears the name of the equator rivals her sister republics in variety of scenery and climate. Her feet rest on the dazzling chrome green shore of a tropic river; her head wears the fleecy crown of eternal snows. With one hand she points to the wide Pacific; with the other, to the matted jungle of the Amazonian valley. Colombia, Brazil and Peru are her neighbors, but who can say where the territory of the one actually begins and the other ends? Two-thirds of the people of Ecuador are Indians, pure and simple. Nine-tenths of the population live a mile above the sea. Her territory is three times as large as Pennsylvania. Her domain is practically unexplored, but commercially she is forging ahead.

United States Cuts Off Republic's Allowance of $2,000 a Day

Washington, D. C., April 2.—Difficulties over financial affairs of the Dominican Republic were brought to a head yesterday when the United States cut off the allowance of $2,000 a day which the Dominican government has been permitted recently to draw from its customs reserve fund to meet a deficit in current expenditures.

STARVING MAN DIES

Had Walked Streets With Wife for 3 Days After Being Evicted

New York, April 2.—William Holth, a rigger, suffered an attack of rheumatism some time ago and lost his job. His savings gone, he and his wife were evicted from their home on Monday.

For three days, Holth, who was fifty-eight years old, and his wife, Bridget, walked the streets without food or shelter. They were starving on Wednesday night when they applied for help at the Charities Building, Twenty-second street and Fourth avenue, and were sent to the Municipal Lodging House.

Dr. Blumsohn examined them and said they needed food, and needed it badly. They were placed on a diet and put to bed. Holth was found dead in bed yesterday.
