ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR THE CHARITY SHOW
Reserved Seats Will Be on Sale at Frum's Jewelry Store To-morrow Morning at 9 O'clock—Committee Announces Fine Program

The committee in charge of the vaudeville entertainment to be held in the High school auditorium Tuesday evening, April 6, under the auspices of Steelton Lodge, No. 411, Knights of Pythias, for the benefit of the local Associated Charities, announced this morning that all arrangements for the big show were completed and the program, which follows, will be presented by the best entertaining talent in the borough and vicinity.

A feature of the entertainment will be the presence of an orchestra selected from the Steelton band which will play the overture and a number of sections of the latest in popular music. Farce and comedy will divide the time with very inspiring music, both vocal and instrumental, the former to be furnished by the Knights of Pythias octet and the Hillcrest quartet.

Miss Ella Sharosky and Mr. Dickey will divide honors in a play of one act. The former is the most popular amateur thespian in the borough and she and Mr. Dickey will display their individual talents to the delight of their audience.

The fact that all the proceeds will be turned over to the Associated Charities has caused a large demand for admission tickets and the sale of reserved seats will be opened at Max G. Frum's jewelry store, North Front street, at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The program:

Orchestra: William Hoover, basso; orchestra; Sharosky and Dickey, "A Mix-up on the Phone"; Knights of Pythias Octet, Neff, Evans, Shank, Shipp, Ditlow, Krause, Stouffer, Rupp; Elmer George, Jr., cornet; Hillcrest Quartet, Miss Lawrence, soprano; Mrs. Brown, contralto; G. W. Neff, tenor; E. Lawrence, basso; Miss Finger, pianist; Chester R. Kirk, impersonator; Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, soprano; farce, "Judge Hasenpfeffer's Court," in one scene; Judge, Mr. Rupp; officer of court, Mr. Kenney; Lawyer Pleece, Mr. Stouffer; Lawyer Skin, Mr. Foust; bigamist, Mr. Shipp; Italian, Mr. Shank; newsboy, Mr. McCoy; Bill Gall, Mr. Kennedy; The Widow Gilhooley, Mr. Allen.

MRS. CONRAD BAUAUS DIES

Funeral Services Will Be Held Sunday

Mrs. Conrad Bauaus died of paralysis at her home, 311 South Fourth street, last evening at 8:45 o'clock, aged 72 years. Funeral services will be held at her late home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Rev. C. F. Tiemann, pastor of Trinity German Lutheran church, will officiate and interment will be in Prospect Hill cemetery. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Emil Ulbrecht, of the borough; Fred G. Ulbrecht and Mrs. Ida Waldeman, of Perth Amboy, N. J.

STEELTON NOTES

An interesting Easter program was rendered yesterday afternoon by the freshman class of the local High school, the program rendered consisting of vocal and instrumental music, in connection with several selections by the High school orchestra.

Fred W. Byrod, a graduate of the Steelton High school, class 1910, has been appointed as one of the internes at Medico-Chirurgical hospital, Philadelphia. Byrod is a son of George B. Byrod, South Fourth street, and is now a senior in Medico-Chi University. He graduated from the local High school in 1910.

The Clover Club, of the borough, will hold the second of a series of dances in Bentor hall, North Front street, Friday evening, April 9. Wiegner's orchestra will furnish the music.

Preparatory and confirmation services will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the First Reformed church. The Rev. William B. Smith, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, will deliver a sermon this evening on "Jesus Crucified and Buried." Preparatory services will also be held at this meeting.

The Benton Catholic Club will give an elaborate dance in its hall on North Front street Monday night. Refreshments will be served.

Burgess Wigfield will name the week of May 2 as spring clean-up week in a proclamation to be issued by him in a few days. An effort will be made to get the co-operation of the foreign residents of the borough in the project.

PERSONAL

Harry O. Warner, of Philadelphia, is spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner, 35 South Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bickel have changed their residence from Locust street to 318 North Second street, Harrisburg.

Patrick Norris will be removed from the Harrisburg Hospital to his residence in the borough to-day. Norris has recently undergone an operation.

Charles Hoffman and family, who formerly resided in South Second street, have removed their residence from Midland to the borough.

Standard Theatre's Offerings
Unexceptional opportunities are offered the patrons of this show place this evening for getting rid of the "blues" in the program announced elsewhere on this page. This magnificent show must be seen to be appreciated.—Adv.

Miss Marie Wiseman, the visiting nurse employed by the Steelton Civic Club, will be in her offices from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m., from 12:30 p. m. to 1:30 p. m.

Easter Greetings

From the "Live Store"

That's the one day above all other days in the year when we menfolks try to keep pace with the fair sex in the matter of new and correct attire—the day that never seems quite complete without at least something new to wear. The very spirit of Easter, in fact, suggests new clothes—and good clothes.

For proper Easter attire—for confidence in your clothes—for self assurance on the question of a personal appearance in tune with your ideas and in keeping with the latest dictates of Fashion, this Live Store recommends the

FINE CLOTHES FROM

The House of Kuppenheimer

Here are suits for men and young men—English, semi-English or conservative models in every fabric, pattern or shade.

They're designed by an organization which has been and is setting American style standards. They answer definitely the question of absolute correctness in every detail. They're tailored from the finest foreign and domestic woollens possible to secure. Their quality is beyond question.

They're sold under a guarantee of satisfaction at each price—giving them added value in that they must make good or your money is yours again for the asking. All in all, you'll find no clothes of better style, of greater through-and-through worth than these, and no store which strives as hard to make the transaction of serving you so thoroughly pleasant as this one.
