"REDS" BANQUET "WHITES"

Largest Men's Bible Class of Cross River Towns Held Reception

Lemoyne, April 3.—A banquet by one of the largest Bible classes of eross river towns, was tendered the "Whites" by the "Reds," of the Paraca class of the United Evangelical church in the local fire house last night church in the local fire house last night.

The reception was given by the "Reds," as the losing side in a membership campaign, both sides securing thirty-seven members, the "Whites" having a majority of seven.

Previous to the luncheon in the fire house the members gathered in the Sunday school, where they enjoyed an interesting program. The principal address of the evening was made by the pastor. of the church, the Rev. H. T. Searle. Other talks were made by C. L. Eby and James Pryor, teachers of the class. An important feature of the program was a history of the class from the time of its organization in 1909, until the present. Musical numbers included selections by the men's chorus and a saxaphone solo by John R. Trott.

NOTED EXPLORER TO BE HERE Dr. Douglas W. Johnson Will Lecture Before Natural History Society Since the highly successful appear ance in this city of Sir Douglas sen, the Antarctic explorer, the Harris burg Natural History Society has been requested to bring other eminent explorers and scientists to Harrisburg. In consideration of this popular demand the Society will again offer to the publie an opportunity to hear a big man on a big subject.

Dr. Douglas W. Johnson is the man and the subject is the "Grand Canyon of the Colorado." Dr. Johnson is Associate Professor of Physiography at Columbia University and is identified with the leading scientific and exploration societies of America. For many years he lived in Arizona close to the Grand Canyon and has penetrated to practically all parts of this extraordinary and sublime spectacle of nature. He is peculiarly equipped to tell of this scenie wonder. He has lived within its influences until it has taken possession of him and inspired him to follow geology as his life's work. His appearance here will be in the Technical High school auditorium next Wednesday night.

Get a Victrola Now and Have Easter Music in Your Own Home

The spirit of Easter giving has within the past few years assumed vast proportions. And a charming sentiment it is. Easter, with its gladness of victory will be of more significance to you if there is a Victrola in your home to play the Easter music.

Easter is a most natural time to give the family a gift that will bring gladness all the year. That gift will find its best expression in the Victrola.

In our Victor booths you can hear any or all of the Easter music. And at the same time you can have our salesman explain how it is possible for you to have a Victrola in your home for Easter. They range in price
