COCOANUT OIL FINE FOR WASHING HAIR

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of lather, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil (it must be mulsified) at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

RUSSIAN MONASTERY SHELLED BY TURKS NEAR CONSTANTINOPLE

THE GOEBEN'S SHELLS DEMOLISHING RUSSIAN MONASTERY AT SAN STEFANO NEAR CONSTANTINOPLE.

This picture shows shells from the cruisers Goeben and Breslau demolishing the Russian Monastery of St. Stefano, twenty miles from Constantinople. After the bombardment the wrecked building was blown up. The monastery of St. Stefano, situated near the village of the same name, nearly two miles from the Sea of Marmora and twenty miles from Constantinople, was erected by the Russian government to commemorate the memory of the soldiers killed in the Russo-Turkish War of 1877, and marks the nearest point to the Turkish capital reached by the Russians before the making of peace.

SCENES ATTENDING THE TURKISH ATTACK IN EGYPT

TURKISH PRISONERS on the MARCH ESCORTED BY A STRONG GUARD

A NUMBER OF AUSTRALIAN SOLDIERS CROWDED ON EGYPTIAN TRAM-CARS

These pictures show scenes attending the Turkish attack in Egypt. Just before the upper picture was taken a quarrel broke out between some of the prisoners and was stopped by the guard before serious trouble had ensued. One of the quarrellers was the man seen mending his belt. The trams shown in the lower picture were not designed to carry passengers on the top. They usually take passengers from Cairo to the Pyramids, a distance of about eight miles, and are now being used to convey soldiers.
