WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Coroner's Jury Decides Death of Miss Flora Hubert Was Due to an Accident. Chambersburg, April 6.—Coroner Macley held an inquest yesterday afternoon over the remains of Miss Flora

Hubert, who fell under a moving Cumberland Valley freight train Saturday evening about 6 o'clock in Greencastle. The jury after hearing the evidence found that while temporarily deranged she ran into Cumberland Valley Railroad freight train No. 83 and fell beneath the train, receiving injuries which caused her death. Her head and face had been hit by the journal box of the car, the left arm was crushed and her neck was broken. Miss Hubert was a milliner and was engaged in business with her aunt, Emma Gaff.

GAS CO. SUED FOR $50,000

Heirs of Couple Killed by Illuminating Fluid Ask Heavy Damages. Hagerstown, Md., April 6.—Damage suits aggregating $50,000 were filed yesterday at Martinsburg against the Martinsburg Gas Company by attorneys representing the estate of the late George W. Rutherford and his wife, Martha J. Rutherford, and by John Rutherford, a son, and Mrs. Anna E. Gallaher. About a year ago Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford were found dead, having been asphyxiated in bed by escaping illuminating gas, while John Rutherford and Mrs. Gallaher, the latter a neighbor, were found unconscious and remained in a precarious condition for several days. Twenty thousand dollars damages are asked for the deaths of Rutherford and wife, $20,000 for alleged permanent injuries suffered by their son, and $10,000 for alleged injuries to Mrs. Gallaher. The plaintiff's charge that a broken gas main in the street permitted the gas to escape into the Rutherford and Gallaher homes.

Will Hold Spelling Bee Over

Gettysburg, April 6.—Edward Mummert, the Abbotstown school boy who captured first place in the county spelling contest on Saturday, rode sixteen miles on a bicycle to get here, and after it was over made the trip home in the same way, covering thirty-two miles in the worst weather of the past ten weeks. And now after all that Mummert may lose his much coveted prize. It was announced here this afternoon that the professor who conducted the classes improperly "drowned" three participants. It has been decided to hold the match over.

Third Death From Auto Wreck

Carlisle, Pa., April 6.—Captain Ray L. Early, former National Guardsman and hotelman, who was badly injured in an automobile accident here 10 days ago, when two companions were killed instantly, died at 10 o'clock last night in the Carlisle Hospital of pneumonia brought on by the accident. DRAUGHTS OF LIQUOR FATAL. Hold Man Whose Cheap Booze Caused Two Deaths. Coatesville, Pa., April 6.—Charles, better known as "Soek" Mann, who purchased liquor for 50 cents a quart in Lancaster and gave it to Earl Southern and Frank Short, each aged 27 years, of Coatesville, who were found dead in an open field on Saturday, was held for court in $500 bail last night before Squire George G. Myer. Mann is charged with giving liquor to the victims, who are alleged to have been persons of known intemperate habits. Mann said that he bought the cheap whiskey, known to "topers" as "scots," from a wholesale dealer in Lancaster. He met Short and Southern after his return home and they went into the field and drank until the two quarts were consumed.
