OLD FOLKS' CONCERT GIVEN UNDER AUSPICES OF S. P. C. A.

Program of Rare Old Songs and Quaint Dances Presented by Big Cast—Beautiful Costumes and Elaborate Stage Settings a Feature

In the quaint old drawing room of Colonial days with its furnishings of beautiful old furniture and softly glowing candles, prominent men and women of the city, last evening presented a program of old songs, old dances and choruses at the Old Folks' Concert given under the auspices of the S. P. C. A.

The stage, with its antique furnishings and quaint costumes, presented an attractive picture. At the right was a Martha Washington sewing table and near it the pianoforte. Silver candelabra and willowware plates made a most effective plate rail decoration.

The program was opened by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the chorists followed by "Love's Old Sweet Song" beautifully and tenderly rendered by Miss Mary Seaman.

"Come Back to Erin" by Earl Rhoades was followed by several numbers by the men's chorus, with Carl Brandes Ely singing the solo parts.

Next came the first of the two dancing numbers, a pretty arrangement danced by eight daintily costumed "maidens," Mrs. William K. Bumbach sang "Mary of Argyle" and "I Cannot Sing the Old Song," and "Off in the Stilly Night," by Dr. Ruth A. Deeter, Mrs. Hertzler and Miss Catherine Heicher, and "The Old Oak on Bucket" and "In the Gloaming," by George Sutton were followed by the men's chorus singing "Darling Nellie Gray" which closed the first half of the program. A suggestion of the modern dance, the fox trot, was displayed by the eight dancers, who danced the London Lancers to the music of a single fiddle played by W. Walley Davis. The satchet was a little like the Polka Brazilienne, and made quite a hit with the audience.

"Old Uncle Ned," "Don't You Cry My Honey," "Annie Laurie" and "Sweet and Low" were sung by the men's chorus under the direction of Dr. Moffitt.

Mrs. Roy G. Cox was heartily applauded for her rendition of "I've Been Roaming" and "Sally in Our Alley." "All Through the Night" and "Loch Lomond" by Jerome Hamilton, left nothing to be desired.

"Scotland's Burning" was given with great expression by the chorus, directed by Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, and accompanied by Miss Ruth Swope Conkling on the pianoforte. "Three Blind Mice" was given as an encore.

The program closed with the singing of "Janita" and "Johnny Sads" by Miss Belle Middaugh and "Home Sweet Home" by Mrs. Harris, who played her own accompaniment. The audience joined in singing "America."

Remarkable Skin Cure in Harrisburg

Tells of Complete Relief From Skin Disease by Use of D. D. D.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 18, 1914. I herewith submit a voluntary testimonial to the value of the D. D. D. for skin trouble. Three years ago eczema developed on my left wrist.

Finally the affected surface became entirely raw and was exceedingly painful and interfered with my work to the extent of causing me to remain away from my work at different periods.

I tried remedies prescribed by a physician and a number of patent medicines with but little relief and no permanent benefit. Finally I told my troubles to a friend of mine, Harrisburg druggist, and he at once recommended the D. D. D. remedy to me.

I waited until I was satisfied that a cure had been effected before writing you and I trust that if there are any persons suffering in the way I did that they will use the D. D. D. prescription and obtain the cure that I did.

Respectfully,
 R. F. McKEE,

So confident are we that the D. D. D. Prescription will reach your case too, that if the very first full size bottle fails to do exactly as is claimed, it will not cost you a cent. Drop in and let us tell you more about this great remedy.
