

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC All week "Public Ledger" War Pictures. Monday and Tuesday, April 12-13, with daily matinees, Leroy, Talma and Bosco Co. Wednesday evening, April 14, Sousa's band. Thursday evening, April 15, David Warfield, in "The Auctioneer."

"Evening Ledger" War Pictures In the Philadelphia "Public Ledger" "Evening Ledger" War Pictures, now being shown at the Majestic theatre, two strips of film are particularly interesting. Each is a picture of the Kaiser in action. One was made shortly after this war commenced. The other was made in February and was received in this country only a few days ago—while the presentation of the pictures at the Forrest theatre, Philadelphia, was in its third week.

LeRoy, Talma and Bosco With one of the largest magical productions ever seen in America, LeRoy, Talma, Bosco, the great triple alliance of conjurers, with a company of 50 European variety artists, will be at the Majestic for two days, commencing Monday, with daily matinees. LeRoy, Talma and Bosco, with their company, reached the United States from the war zone early in December. Their first appearance in this country took place at the Cort theatre, San Francisco, where they played a remarkably successful engagement for a fortnight.

No Wonder Sousa Is Liked There is a saying among producers of opera that "the public likes what it likes." That this is not confined to opera is proved by the world-wide popularity of Sousa and his band. When one considers Sousa's recognized ability, the excellence of the individual musicians, the superb possibilities of this experienced body of players, the peculiar merits of its different sections, wood, wind, reeds, cornets, horns, trombones and basses, of which the finest symphony orchestra might be proud, it is no wonder that the organization is recognized as a tremendous power in the musical world and its conductor a foremost leader.

David Warfield One of the season's most notable dramatic events from a local theatrical standpoint will be David Warfield's coming engagement at the Majestic on Thursday evening, April 15. It will be the occasion of his return to this city in "The Auctioneer," the comedy that charmingly mingles smiles and tears, and in which this popular actor last appeared eleven years ago.

At the Orpheum One of the very welcome additions to the current offering at the Orpheum this week is the delightful trio of character singers, Charles Lawlor and Daughters, who are offering one of the most artistic acts of its kind in vaudeville. Mr. Lawlor, who, as the program states, is the father of these two charming sisters, as well as the composer of the various songs the trio sings. He is also an excellent singer himself. The girls' voices are beautiful, being musical and splendidly trained.

At the Colonial There's a whole garden of beautiful girls in "The Rose of Panama," the beautiful and spectacular musical comedy that leads the Colonial's bill during the last half of the week. Unusual attractions are just revealing in this fifty attraction and there are reasons to believe that it will prove one of the best drawing cards the Busby Corner has had. Other clever turns on the same bill include Howard Chase and company in a clever comedy playlet; Francis and Ross, the scenic dancers, and Harry Sauber, the singing and talking comedian. At the Regent "False Colours," a Paramount picture, is the attraction at the Regent Theatre to-day and if this afternoon's attendance can be taken as an indication, there will be a record-breaking crowd at the theatre to-night to see the film. One of the features of the picture is the interior of a theatre, taken when a certain drama was given its first production. The audience is true to life and the expressions on the faces of the many persons in this part of the filmploy are remarkable. "False Colours" is told by the Bosworth Company and it is a foregone conclusion that no other group of players could produce the exciting story better. For to-morrow Manager Magarzo has arranged to show "Your Girl and Mine," a great suffragette picture and members of various suffrage committees in Dauphin county will attend the

After Easter Clear-Away of Trimmed Millinery

Embracing styles that were a part of the Easter procession; and all the latest effects of a few weeks' origin. The policy of the Bowman Millinery Department is to follow a plan that enables us to present the very latest ideas as soon as they take shape.

This means that certain of the former styles must be disposed of at a reduction, but before they become common or "antiquated," as it were, so a clear-away sale at this time is a necessity. You have probably delayed buying a new hat. Well may you be delighted now that you did so, for this sale will mean an unusual saving on perhaps the very hat you admired a few days ago. All the wanted shades.

Divided into four price lots: $12 to $22.50 Hats $10 to $15 Hats $6.50 to $10 Hats $4 to $6 Hats. Large prices displayed in boxes: $10, $7.75, $4.75, $3.25.

Some have really been trimmed only within the past week, and you'll note the perfect condition of the entire assortment.

The Victoria's $25,000 Pipe Organ is a Musical Marvel The bugle call, the drum beat, the clarinet, the xylophone, the violin, the cello and almost any musical instrument can be duplicated on this great pipe organ which has just recently been installed at a cost of $25,000. This musical marvel is composed of thousands of miles of wire, numerous stops, keys and controls together with the various musical instruments enables the player to render any selection under the most favorable conditions. It is so constructed that the player can form a combination of the different pieces of an orchestra and render the selection as if it were really being played by 8, 10, or 12 pieces as the class may be. The person of any imagination can quite readily appreciate the great pleasure that such an instrument can add to the motion picture entertainment. Think of it, each action of the play carefully followed and given its proper tone expression. It's really wonderful. The Victoria has always taken great pride in its reputation to show only the very best pictures obtainable and every day the show proves conclusively that the policy of "quality first" never changes. To-day we present one of the best pictures that has ever been shown in this city entitled "In the Shadows" in five parts.—Adv.

At the Photoplay After an absence of three weeks, Francis Bushman and Beverly Bayne again appear at the Photoplay in a three-act special Essanay drama "The Great Silence." This dramatic production made in conjunction with the $100 Lost Paragraph story in the "Ladies' World," is one of the best works of these two favorite stars who are known the world over as everybody's Sweethearts. Bushman, a man of the silent North comes East to Chicago for a change from the great silence of the gold fields. Through chance he becomes acquainted with Beverly Bayne, and there starts three reels of fine dramatic work by an all-star Essanay comedy. Saturday, the king of comedians, Charles Chaplin, appears in a new Essanay two reeler, "The Jitney Elopement," and Charley has some time getting married.—Adv.

To Preach Annual Flower Sermon Lebanon, April 8.—The presiding elder of the Episcopal church, the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., has appointed the Rev. A. A. V. Binnington, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, this city, to preach the annual flower sermon at Christ church cathedral, St. Louis, provided for by the will of the late Henry Shaw, founder of the Missouri Botanical Garden, of that city.

DEER NUTMEG STATE PEST Farmers Want Law to Shoot Barnyard Invading Herds Hartford, Conn., April 8.—The House of Representatives has adopted a bill which would permit a land owner or his agent to shoot deer with a shotgun on his own land at any time in the year. The Senate had rejected the bill. Members of the House declared that deer are a nuisance; that there are more to the square mile in Connecticut than in any other State in the union; that herds of twenty-five are ordinary sights in farmers' barnyards, and that peach and apple growing suffers more from the animals than from any other single cause. Childhood's Ills at 95 Norristown, Pa., April 8.—Elizabeth Riggers, who a week ago on her 95th birthday, fell and broke a leg, is now quarantined on account of being ill with mumps.

Hen Finds Monstrous Egg Marietta, April 8.—A hen on the farm of Mrs. Sue Seldomridge, near Farmersville, laid a double-yolked egg yesterday that measured eleven inches in circumference. It was the largest egg ever seen in the section. Wife Finds Husband Suicide Doylestown, Pa., April 8.—The body of John Myers, a prominent Plumstead township farmer, was found hanging in the barn yesterday morning by his wife. People Say To Us "I cannot eat this or that food, it does not agree with me." Our advice to all of them is to take a Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet before and after each meal. 25c a box. GEORGE A. GORZAN
