ATTEMPT TO KILL SULTAN OF EGYPT BY NATIVE

London, April 9.—An attempt was made at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon to assassinate the Sultan of Egypt, Hussein Kemal, according to a dispatch from Cairo. As the Sultan was leaving Abdin Palace, a native fired a shot at him. This went wide and the native was immediately seized.

Hussein Kemal was raised to the throne of Egypt with the title of Sultan last December by British proclamation. He is a son of the late Khedive Ismael, and, therefore, a brother of Khedive Abbas Hilmi, who was deposed at the time because he espoused the cause of Turkey, to which country Egypt had been till then nominally at least a tributary State.
