PARSONAGE OPENED

Services held Thursday at home of Grace Methodist pastor. Services were held Thursday at the opening of the new parsonage, 216 State street, of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, erected as a memorial to the ladies of the church, and at the placing of the bronze tablet therein in testimony of their devotion.

INJURIES A MYSTERY

Nesquehoning Man Found Unconscious In Bed With Skull Fractured. Nesquehoning, April 10.—Thomas Gallagher was found in an unconscious condition in his bed by his mother, with his head and face a mass of bruises and cuts. He has revived sufficiently since to say that he fell, but this is not believed by those who knew him best. Blood was traced from the bottom of the stairway of his home to his bed, and it is believed he was attacked by thugs. Gallagher was removed to the Coal-dale hospital Thursday night, where an examination revealed the fact that his skull was fractured. There is no hope for his recovery. Officers are investigating the case.

ARREST SOON IN BANK CASE

Action Against Uniontown Officials Awaits Findings of Investigator. Washington, April 10.—Arrests will be made in the First National bank of Uniontown case as soon as Frank B. Albert, representing the Department of Justice, makes his findings. This was announced yesterday at the department, where it was also said that the investigation conducted by Mr. Albert showed a worse situation than was at first reported by Chief Examiner Sherill Smith. Mr. Albert left Uniontown late last week to testify in a government case at Omaha. He is under instructions to return to Uniontown as quickly as possible and complete his inquiry.

Catch Handcuffed Fugitive

Altoona, April 10.—After tramping all night, C. R. Froelicher, aged 35, alleged blackmailer, who escaped from a constable in the court house at Hollidaysburg Thursday, was captured yesterday near the city limits. He got away by taking the officer unaware and despite the fact that he was handcuffed, he outdistanced pursuers.

Pail For Train Riding Count

Pottsville, April 10.—"Count" Frank Delazars, an alleged Italian nobleman, was taken from a luxurious Pullman car on the Pennsylvania railroad yesterday and lodged in jail because he refused to pay his railroad fare. The "Count" referred the conductor to the Italian consul at Philadelphia.

LOCAL OPTION DAY TO BE OBSERVED IN MANY CHURCHES TO-MORROW

Members of the Fourth Street Church of God Will Wear White Ribbons or Flowers

PASTORS WILL GIVE LECTURES

Teacher Training Class of Second Reformed Church at Graduation Exercises Will Be Addressed by Prof. J. J. Brehm and by Pastor

Local option day will be observed in a number of city churches to-morrow. The meetings will follow up the local option demonstration held in the city last Tuesday. Subjects concerning the relations of the churches to the local option question are given by the pastors in their regular announcements for the day.

The Rev. Dr. William N. Yates will preach companion sermons at the Fourth Street Church of God, dealing with the local option question at both morning and evening services. The members of the church will wear white ribbons or white flowers at the meetings.

Local Option Song on Program. At the Market Street Baptist church the Rev. Walter H. Dallman will at the evening service present statements coming from Maine and Kansas, the latter from the Governor of the State, telling of improved conditions in the dry territory of those States. The Tippecanoe local option song will be a feature of the service.

Plans have been made by the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, to make the local option meeting to-morrow evening a notable gathering. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker will address the meeting on "Shall John Barleycorn Control Our Legislature?"

Teachers to Be Graduated. Graduating exercises for the Teacher-Training class of the Second Reformed church will be held at 10.30 o'clock to-morrow morning. The address to the class will be given by Prof. J. J. Brehm, supervisor of city schools, and the diplomas will be presented by Professor Howard Onwacke, of the Harrisburg Academy.

Dr. H. C. Myers, of the Lancaster Classis will be present. The pastor, the Rev. Harry Nelson Bessler, will speak. The class is composed of the following: Miss Mae Crouse, Mrs. E. S. Johnson, Mrs. H. C. Koons, Mrs. G. A. Myers, Mrs. John T. Selsam, Miss Minnie Stambaugh, Miss Elda Stambaugh, Miss Vanie Wingert and W. H. Cocklin.

At Pine Street Presbyterian church the evening service will be begun with an organ recital, played by Mr. McCarroll at 7.15 o'clock. The program will be: "A Pastoral Suite," (a) Sunrise; (b) Sunset; (c) Thanksgiving, Demarest. All the music will center around the topic of the sermon, the choir music being, anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," Shelly; duet by Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Hertzler, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," Decevee.

For the past six weeks nine groups of women have been meeting at Pine Street to study the American Indian on the New Trail. On Friday evening these classes will meet in the social room for a final summary of the work. A box lunch will be served and the Indian question will be discussed and illustrated with lantern slides. More than one hundred have been interested in these classes.

Holy Communion at Park Street

One hundred and fifty-six persons attended the mid-week prayer meeting at the Park Street Evangelical church this week following which a reception was given the new members received last Sunday. To-morrow at 10.30 and 7.30 Holy Communion will be celebrated. The pastor will have for his subjects: Morning, "The Lord's Supper and Self-Denial," evening, "Booze Busting vs. Booze Boosting, or Why Local Option?" This church has begun the publication of a weekly bulletin called, "The Park Purveyor," and as its slogan has adopted, "The Praying Working Church."

The Choral Society of St. Mark's Lutheran church, West Fairview, will render to-morrow at 7 p. m., at St. Paul's Lutheran church, New Cumberland, the sacred cantata, "It Is Finished," by A. M. Reed. The solos and quartets will be sung by Miss Mary Morgan, soprano; Miss Lillian Boughter, alto; Bernard Gladfield, tenor, and Harold Malsh, bass.

A sacred cantata, the Second Baptist church will be held to-morrow as follows:
