No Better Time Than To-day

To Come In and Investigate Our Special

VICTROLA

"Club Plan"

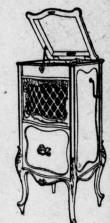

IF you do not already own a Victrola, take a few minutes to investigate our liberal "Club Plan." On this plan you can get any Victrola and a suitable number of records on very special payment terms, at the regular cash price, without interest. And this same liberal offer applies to the

New Edison Diamond Disc Phonograph

a new musical instrument, a triumph of invention, altogether out of the class of ordinary talking machines.

Come in and allow us to demonstrate the new Edison Disc to you. The result will be more convincing than anything we could say.

Daily Demonstration All This Week

The only store in the city displaying all models of Victrolas and Edisons

J. H. Troup Music House

Troup Building 15 S. Market Sq.

CLASSIC WAR POEMS

Selected by J. Howard Wert

THE ISLES OF GREECE BY LORD BYRON

The impetuous Byron, all on fire with his enthusiasm for the cause of Grecian independence when that land of story was attempting to shake off the Moslem yoke, as has already been told in this series,—wrote much that is destined to live while time lasts. The extract here given from one of his poems ranks among the most impassioned of his utterances in behalf of Grecian freedom. The poem abounds in historic allusions which will be understood readily by the classical scholar.

Sappho, the Greek poetess mentioned in the poem, lived about 600 B. C., whilst the poet Anaereon flourished about a century later.

The isles of Greece! the isles of Greece! But one arise,—we come, we come!"
Where burning Sappho loved and 'Tis but the living who are dumb.

where grew the arts of war and peace,—
Where Delos rose, and Phoebus sprung!
Eternal summer gilds them yet;
But all, except their sun, is set.

In vain—in vain: strike other chords:
Fill high the cup with Samian wine!
Leave battles to the Turkish hordes,
And shed the blood of Scio's vine!—
Hark! rising to the ignoble call,
How answers each bold bacchanal! sprung!
Eternal summer gilds them yet;
But all, except their sun, is set.

The Scian and the Teian muse,
The hero's harp, the lover's lute,
Have found the fame your shores

Their place of birth alone is mute To sounds which echo further west Than your sires' "Islands of the Blest."

The mountains look on Marathon— And Marathon looks on the sea; And musing there an hour alone, I dreamed that Greece might still be free; For, standing on the Persian's grave, I could not deem myself a slave.

A king sat on the rocky brow
Which looks o'er sea-born Salamis;
And ships by thousands lay below.
And men and nations: all were his!
He counted them at break of day;
And, when the sun set, where were they?

And where are they? and where art

And where are thought thou,
thou,
My country? On thy voiceless shore
The heroic lay is tuneless now;
The heroic bosom beats no more!
And must thy lyre, so long divine,
Degenrate into hands like mine!

Must we but weep o'er days more blessed?

Must we but blush?—Our fathers bled—
Earth! render back from out thy breast A remnant of our Spartan dead!
Of the three hundred grant but three, To make a new Thermopylae.

What! silent still? and silent all?
Ah! no;—the voices of the dead
Sound like a distant torrent's fall,
And answer, "Let one living head,

Fill high the bowl with Samian wine!
On Suli's rock, and Parga's shore,
Exists the remnant of a line
Such as the Doric mother's bore;
And there, perhaps, some seed is sown,
The Heracleidan blood might own. Fill high the bowl with Samian wine?
Our virgins dance beneath the shade;
I see their glorious black eyes shine:
But, gazing on each glowing maid,
My own the burning tear-drop laves,
To think such breasts must suckle slaves.

You have the Pyrrhic dance as yet; Where is the Pyrrhic phalanx gone? Of two such lessons, why forget The nobler and the manlier one? You have the letters Cadmus gave— Think ye he meant them for a slave?

Fill high the bowl with Samian wine! We will not think of themes like these!

The tyrant of the Chersonese
Was freedom's best and bravest
friend:

friend:
That tyrant was Miltiades!
O that the present hour would lend
Another despot of the kind!
Such chains as his were sure to bind.

these!
It made Anacreon's song divine:
He served—but served Polycrates
A tyrant: but our masters then
Were still at least our countrymen.

Place me on Sunium's marbled steep, Where nothing, save the waves and I, May hear our mutual murmurs sweep; There, swan-like, let me sing and die

A land of slaves shall ne'er be mine: Dash down you cup of Samian win

PERSONAL NEWS SOCIAL

BENEFIT BRIDGE AND TEA AT HOME OF MRS. GEO. KUNKEL

Charity Card Party Held by Board of at the Home of the President, 601 North Front Street

The board of managers of the Children's Aid Society, of which Mrs. George Kunkel is president, arranged a suoseription bridge and tea for the benefit of the society, which was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kunkel, 601 North Front street.

Fragrant spring blossoms in a pretty color combination of pink and white decorated the card rooms and the card tables were in charge of the members of the board of managers, including:

Mrs. George Kunkel, president; Mrs. Francis Jordan Hall, first vice president; Mrs. Homer Black, secretary; Mrs. M. Jacobson, Mrs. Charles E. Covert, Miss Margaret Bowman, Mrs. D. Deitrich, Miss Lille G. Deeter, Miss Fannie Eby, Mrs. Carl B. Ely, Mrs. Charles B. Fager, Mrs. Martin W. Fager, Mrs. Henderson Gilbert, Mrs. James D. Hawkins, Mrs. Ross Anderson Hickok, Mrs. William Orville Hickok, Mrs. Frederick Morganthaler, Mrs. Joseph Nachman, Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, Mrs. J. Harvey Patton, Mrs. Mercer B. Tate, Miss Lillie Walton, Mrs. William E. Wright, Miss Anne McCormick and Mrs. Walter P. Maguire.

Mrs. James Henry Darlington, Mrs. Marchand and Mrs. Paul A. Kunkel poured tea, assisted by the debutantes of the season, Miss Myrvinne Leason, Miss Eleanor Darlington, Miss Mary Elizabeth Meyers, Miss Liouse Carney, Miss Anna Gay Bradley, Miss Constance Perriday, Miss Katherine Etter, and the ladies of the board of managers.

Mielsen-Ganz Recital

Miss Alice Nielsen, prima donna sopiano and Rudolph Ganz, the eminent Swiss pianist, were held to advantage in the concert given last night in the Chestnut street auditorium. Both artists were warmly greeted and honors were about equally divided.

Miss Nielsen's voice is lyric in expression, capable of much flexibility and grace and she possesses enough dramatic ability to add great charm to her songs.

her songs.

Mr. Ganz is to-day ranked as one of the world's greatest pianists and no greater nor more pleasing artist, has ever been heard in this city.

He has a wonderful technic always

He has a wonderful technic always at his control and his playing is authoritative.

Both Miss Nielsen and Mrs. Ganz were generous with encores, both responding several times. William Reddick, accompanist for Miss Nielsen, played most sympathetically and is an unusually gifted musician.

The program was given as follows: Variations on a theme by Bach, (Weinen-Klagen), Liszt, Mr. Ganz; (a) "The Day Is Done," Spross; (b) "The Weathercock," Lehmann; (c) "But Lately In Dance," Arensky; (d) "Love Has Wings," Rogers, Miss Nielsen; (a) "Three Etudes," (b) Noctrune in F sharp major, (c) waltz in A flat, Chopin, Mr. Ganz; (a) "Die Lorelei," Liszt; (b) "Verzebliches Standehen," Brahms; (c) "Wiegenlied," Brahms; (d) "Komm lass uns spielen," Bleichmann, Miss Nielson; (a) Etude Caprice from Op. 14, Ganz; (b) Pensive Spinner from Op. 10, Ganz; (c) The Elves from Op. 14, Ganz; (d) Petrarea Sonnett in A flat, Liszt; (e) Rakoczy March, Liszt, Mr. Ganz; (a) "The Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton; (b) "A Burst of Melody," Seiler; (c) "I Came With a Song," LaiForge; (d) "The Fairy Pipers," Brewer, Miss Nielsen, William Reddick at the piano.

Sang For Pupils

State street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Buehler, 604 North Third street, are spending several days in Philadelphia.

Miss M. Shields, 228 Forster street, Mrs are turned from a several days visit with her parents, in Lancaster. Donald Smith, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents in Bellevue.

Ralph I, Diehl, of Paxtang, is home after a two weeks' visit to Boston.

Miss Jean Gamber, 1529 North Sixth with her parents, in Lancaster.

Donald Smith, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his parents in Bellevue.

Ralph I, Diehl, of Paxtang, is home after a two weeks' visit to Boston.

Miss Jean Gamber, 1529 North Sixth with her parents in Bellevue.

Bapt Jean Gamber, 1529 North Sixth with her parents in Bellevue.

All Charles of the week-end with his parents in Bellevue.

Ralph I, Diehl, of Paxtang, is home after a two weeks' visit to Boston.

Miss Jean Grow a several days' vis

The Impression One Makes

plays a big part in deciding for success or failure.

The healthy-looking man usually leaves a mighty good impression-a big advantage in getting ahead in the world.

Keen minds and stout bodies are largely a matter of eating the right kind of

Grape - Nuts

made of choice wheat and malted barley, supplies all the nutriment of the grain, in-cluding the mineral elements required by Nature for build-ing active brains and vigor-

Grape-Nuts has become a household word in thousands of happy, prosperous homes.

"There's a Reason"

Sold by Grocers everywhere

News of Persons Who Come and Go

Miss Margaret E. Turner, 431 Ham-ilton street, is visiting friends in Co-lumbia.

ond street, is in New York on a business trip.

Miss Mary March, 410 South Thirteenth street, has resumed her studies at Hood College, Baltimore.

Miss Caroline McFarland, 158 Sylvan Terrace, has returned from a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Florence Wert, 411 Walnut street, spent the week-end in Hummelstown.

town.

John Stapf and son, John Stapf, Jr., 23 South Third street, are spending a week in Coaldale.

Mrs. Scott Leiby, of Marysville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tyson, 406 Briggs street.

Mortimer J. Wolff, 2116 North Fifth street, is home from New York.

Mrs. Arthur R. Rupley has returned to Carlisle after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Fisher, 709 North Sixth street.

Newton Leeds. 351 South Thirteenth

Newton Leeds, 351 South Thirteenth street, has gone to Williamsport, Md., where he will reside permanently.

Miss Katherine Wilhelm, 1706 Green street, is in New York.

Miss Anne Moran, 1111 Green street, was called to Carbondale by the death of her father.

Mrs. Chauncey Thorpe, 1635 Market street, is the guest of friends in Cham-bersburg.

Mrs. A. Cârson Stamm and Miss Julia Stamm, 333 South Thirteenth street, motored yesterday to Atlantic City, where they will stay for several weeks at Chalfonte. Mr. Stamm will join them on Saturday for the week-end.

Miss Katherine Stamm, 333 South Thirteenth street, has returned to the Ossining school, Ossining, N. Y.

Ossining school, Ossining, N. Y.
W. W. Lott, of South Seventeenth street, has returned from a four weeks'
stay at Atlantic City.
Miss Mary Steeker, of Milton, chairman of the Woman's Suffrage party of Northumberland county, left yesterday after a weekend visit with Dr. Ruth A.
Deeter, 132 Walnut street.

Mrs. J. V. W. Reynders left at noon yesterday for a short stay in Philadel-

Francis Jordan Hall is in Philadel-

Mrs. Harry Lightner, of Huntington, is the guest of Mrs. Skinner, 1252 State street. Mr. and Mrs. D. Buehler, 604 North Third street, are spending several days in Philadelphia.

campbell-Tipton; (b) "A Burst of Melody," Seiler; (c) "I Came With a Song," LaForge; (d) "The Fairy Pipers," Brewer, Miss Nielsen, William Reddick at the piano.

Sang For Pupils

Harry J. Mueller, city forester, who was superintending the planting of several trees in the yard at the Susquehanna school building, Fifth and Seneca streets, sang two solos this morning for the pupils in the open air school. The selections were well received and the pupils enjoyed the interruption to the school routine.

Simon-Bushler Wedding

Marietta, April 13.—Mr. and Mrs.
Jacob J. Bushler, of Lancaster, yesterday announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Magdalene E. Bushler, to John F. Simon, in St. Peter's Cathederal, Cincinnati, O., where they will make their home. The bridegroom is engaged in business there.

on in honor of Mrs. Catherine Stone and her granddaughter, Miss Catherine Stone, and her granddaughter, Miss C

PARTY FOR JAS. HAENHLEN Mrs. David Haehnlen Entertained in

·Honor of Her Son's Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. David Haehnlen entertained at her home, 1810 Green street, last evening, in honor of her son, James Finn Haehnlen's birthday anniversary.

The rooms were prettily decorated in red and green and the guests spent a merry evening with music, games and contests. A birthday luncheon was served to the following guests:

Margaret Graffner, Edith Graffner, Catherine Eyler, Margaret McDevitt, Adaline Yingst, Mary Haehnlen, Paul Gwaren, William Diener, Harold Eyler, Robert Gardner, George Gardner, Arbor Yingst, William Shuch, Edward Wilcox Hepford and William Haehnlen.

RECEPTION FOR DR. GRAVES Well-Known Educator and His Wife Will Be Guests of Honor

Will Be Guests of Honor
Teachers of Harrisburg and vicinity who have been enjoying a series of lectures on the history of education by Dr. Frank P. Graves, of the University of Pennsylvania, will tender a reception to Dr. and Mrs. Graves on Monday evening in the Technical High school. A short informal program will be rendered in the main auditorium at 7.45 o'clock at which well-known school men will make speeches. All teachers are requested to be present.

Lawyer's Removal Notice
C. H. Backenstoe, Esq., has removed his law offices from No. 14 North Third street to the Bergner building (Rooms Nos. 202 and 204 second floor) northwest corner of Third and Market streets, Harrisburg, Pa. (Entrance on Third street).

LOCAL SUFFRAGISTS PLAN A VERY ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

the Home of Bishop and Mrs. James H. Darlington and Plans for Cam-

An interesting and important suffrage meeting was held yesterday at the home of Bishop and Mrs. James Henry

Save $1.15 on Each of Those Silk Shirts At $3.85

YES! Men appreciate bar-

Y gains too—
We know—because these
$5 Silk Shirts now being sold at $3.85 are extraordinary values and are being snapped up by men who practice economy wherever possible.

McFall's

OPEN EVENINGS

Third and Market

OUTSHINES THEM ALL IN WHOLESOMENESS: PI

Patronize the Milk Man Who Really Serves Pure Milk and Cream

Unsurpassed in Quality—Tested by the City's Chemist in fat-specific gravity and freedom from Hoak's "Special" for infants is served to more families for children than any other milk.

Hoak's milk—cream—and cele-brated buttermilk delivered in all

Roy P. M. Davis. Other appointments will be made.

1,000 AT CHORUS REHEARSAL

It is Attended by Miss Eggleston and Miss King, of Stough Party

More than 1,000 persons were present at the rehearsal of the Harrisburg evangelistic chorus in Ridge Avenue Methodist church last evening, which was aftrended by Miss Eggleston and Miss King, of the Stough evangelistic party. Professor Spooner and E. G. Erwin were unable to be present and sent their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets.

Miss Eggleston and Miss King addressed the organization, telling how glad they were to be back with their regrets. worthless finishes and materials, by a good-looking imitation. Builders of good homes as well as those wanting the cheaper lines would do well to consult him and visit his show room before placing their orders. With his many years' experience he is yet on every job personally, to see that every detail is carried out. For further reference, ask any customer whom has tried him.—Adv.

INTEREST IN CURFEW LAW

to Renew Interest in This Important Measure

The Civic Club of the city under the direction of the special committee composed of Mrs. A. L. Martin, Mrs. George A. Gorgas, Mrs. Robert Hatfield Irons and Miss Fannic M. Eby is renewing the interest of the citizens in the curfew ordinance presented by the club to the City Commission some time ago and upon which no action has been taken.

Petitions are being airculated.

taken.

Petitions are being circulated through the city requesting that an early hearing will be granted.

The Civic Club has the endorsement of the Ministerial Association, the Teachers' Association and prominent officials of the city, as well as the parents.

The Lesson
"Winzer put on his wife's spats this morning." "Why, the old file must be growing "Why, the old file must be growing polite."

"You don't get me. He wore 'em. He wanted his wife to see how ridiculous they looked."
"Well"

"Well'"
"The first man he met said, 'By Jove, Winzer, never saw you so well dressed.' And the second man said, 'Why, old chap, you're looking positively distanggy!"
"What did the old guy say?"
"He said, 'This will be a good lesson to my wife. It's going to teach her that these extremes in fashion are meant only for the favored few." "Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Valley of Death
The Valley of Death is in the Island of Java. It is a crater of an extinct volcano, half a mile wide, filled with carbonic acid gas, which continually emanates from fissures in the bottom of the valley. The gas being invisible and entirely irrespirable, every living thing that descends is instantly suffocated.
The ground about the crater is covered with bones.

The earth is our workshop. We may not curse it; we are bound to sanctify it.—Mazzini.

Ladies, experience un necessary, refined, con-genial work, can sell in every home. 500 differ-ent models and mate-rials. The greatest prop-osition ever offered in made-to-measure corsets. made-to-measure corset made-to-measure corsets, special reducing and convalescing models. Exclusive territories, Agents' complete sample outfit at small cost. Work spare hours or full time and make a nice income. We teach you. Write or call,

Wolfe Corset Shop, 404 N. 2nd St.

What We Say It Is, It Is

Buy Diamonds Now

For a number of years come you will probably be able to buy Diamond Rings at Diener's for $25 to $425, but you will not be able to secure as fine quality stones as these prices buy now, because Diamond production, especially fine quality, decreases annually; the cost of mining increases and dealers are forced to pay higher prices and consequently ask

These figures show how expensive it is to delay Diamond purchases.

In the last ten years the value of fine quality Diamonds has advanced at the rate of 17½ per cent. a year; the value of good quality 11 per cent. a

See Diener's April display of Diamonds. Every stone is guaranteed as to weight, color and degree of perfection. Ask about Diener's "Grow a Diamond" plan.

Diener The Jeweler The Hallmark Store

408 Market Street

"Empress"

Totally different from the commonplace shoes of the town. The woman of Fashion and her conservative sister both find here the highest types of shoes produced for their individual uses.

Fawn and gray tops are acknowledged leaders by all Fashion Centers. We have the largest assortment in the city. $3.50 and $4.00

WALK - OVER BOOT SHOP

> 226 Market Street HARRISBURG, PA.