TO RAISE FUNDS FOR NEW CAMP CURTIN M. E. CHURCH

More Than Two Hundred Men and Women Will Next Week Endeavor to Get $38,000 to Erect Building On Historic Ground

A movement to be city-wide in-its appeal, will be the Silver Jubilee Celebration of the Camp Curtin Memorial M. E. church next week. Over 200 citizens will forward the campaign from April 19 to 27, in an effort to raise $38,000 for a new church building which will occupy the present site and front the chapel which has been on the spot of Old Camp Curtin for the last twenty-five years.

The citizens around Old Camp Cortin who are recipients of the influences of the church and who consider the Camp Curtin church as the community center, started the project. Sunday school of over 700 and a membership of 570, the present chapel is over-crowded and to make adequate room they are compelled to build. The new church will have rooms for the social features, the institutional activities and adequate auditorium room and Sunday school class rooms. The present chapel will be altered to accommodate the intermediate and adult classes of the Sunday school.

General chairman, J. A. Hass, announces the committee which will forward campaign during the eight days. In the men's division there are twenty teams of five men each, each team being headed by a captain. The women's division of 100 women is organized likewise. This committee of over 200 will call upon the people of the community, members of other churches in the city, citizens of the community who recognize the worth and influence of the church add who regardless of their church affiliation or whether they have any or not, will be likely to support the project. There are many identifying themselves with the movement as team workers who are not members of the church.

Headquarters have been established in the all charact.

The dinner may be held in the Chestnut street auditorium but that has against yesterday's final price of 125. The stock steadily ascended to 140, seened even more speedily to 130, losting three-fourths of its pyrotechnical rise. The balance of the list was strong but orderly, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and the coppers rising from 1 to almost 3 points, with further substantial gains in automobile shares. Trading was active during the first half hour and embraced all varieties of issue.

of issue. By midday something like 700,000 sbares had changed hands and Bethlehem Steel's influence showed steady diminution. The stock continued its feverish course, however, falling back from 136 to 131. In the general list higher prices were made during the second hour, but profit-taking helped to check the advance, U. S. Steel, Union Pacific and Reading falling back a point.

Commission houses were swamped with business, mainly from out-of-town sources, and brokers on the floor of the Exchange experienced considerable difficulty in executing orders because of the wide fluctuations reached while the market was most active.
