

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Bandorin, at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Adv.

Wonderful Apes at Colonial

Demarc's baboons, in which some wonderful animal training is exhibited, will be one of the features at the Colonial theatre the first three days of this week. Demarc has a family of apes that have been educated to the highest degree. On the same bill will be Catherine Cadner and company in a comedy act called "Kate's Press Agent." This sketch was originally booked for the Orpheum theatre, but switched to the Colonial owing to the closing of the other house. Al and Fanny Stedman, who will appear in a pleasing song and dance act, were also booked for the Orpheum. Another act scheduled for the first three days at the Colonial is Billy Ellwood, a clever cartoonist. My Ellwood was formerly a resident of Harrisburg and has many friends here. He has worked on some of the biggest newspapers in America and his vaudeville act is a clever arrangement containing a great deal of originality.—Adv.

At the Regent

Mary Pickford, the inimitable idol of the "movies," in a spectacular production of "Cinderella" to-day marks the opening of a week of remarkable film plays at the Regent theatre. The elaborate piece will be repeated to-morrow. Mary Pickford as "Cinderella" is charm, grace and tenderness personified and immortalized in a screen production of rare art and appeal. "Cinderella" might have been written especially for Miss Pickford, so amazingly does she do the role of the ragged and beautiful cinder girl fit her. Surrounding the star is a company of the Famous Players Film Company's players who help to bring out every detail of the aged story instilled at all times into the hearts of every person. In addition to this production, "Ham Among the Redskins," and "Saved From the Vampire" will be shown to-night. New comedies will be shown to-morrow. For Wednesday and Thursday Manager Magaro has engaged Edward Abeles in a stupendous production of "The Million."—Adv.

The Photoplay

To-day's feature, "The Lady of the Shows," produced by the Essanay Company and featuring Edna Mayo and Richard Travers, is a wonderful three-act dramatic production. Taken from an old Indian legend, this tale of the north hills is wound around its characters in a manner shown only in these high-class Essanay releases. "The Bridge Across," a two-act Biograph drama, and an Edison Arty and Wady comedy complete the program. Wednesday, April 21, "The Ideal Man of the West." Victoria Theatre

This modern motion picture theatre is becoming known now as the home of the $25,000 pipe organ. Every day we are being complimented upon the good music that is delighting our enthusiastic audiences. Our mirror screen makes possible the showing of many distinctive features that would not look near as well under the old way—the pictures are clearer. This week will be a banner week for the Victoria because of the many exceptional features that will be presented. To-day we offer the 12th episode of "Runaway June" and to-morrow we present for the first time Augustus Thomas' great play of the West, "Arizona."—Adv.
