Starting To-morrow [Tuesday], and Continuing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

In other words, a Room-making Sale, in preparation for building operations which will take place soon, when every inch of space available must be utilized for selling purposes. This means every department must clear out a certain portion.

Only four days has been assigned for this clearing out to take place, and in order that this may be accomplished, it means:

A Radical Price Lowering On Seasonable And Staple Merchandise

The savings are all the greater because of the shortness of time allowed; and a number of departments are compelled to enter goods that formed a part of their stylish spring stocks; while others are determined to reduce their surplus of staples, including home-furnishings and the like.

All lengthy descriptions have been omitted, and we urge you to read every item; look for the special, blue-lettered price cards to-morrow morning.

Other items with exceptionally low prices will be announced in to-morrow's edition.

At These Severe Reductions

Garments In the Women's Suit, Waist and Petticoat Sections Will Disappear In a Day or Two

There's one thing sure: they must be cleared out sometime during this sale, for there'll simply be no room for them and former prices are a second consideration.

Formerly $15, $20, $22.50 $3.98 and $25 Suits, at . . .

These are suits that were bought last season. Excellent qualities, and most of them are black or navy blue. A wonderful opportunity to get a good suit for very little money.

Formerly $15, $20 $5.98 and $25 Suits, at . . .

These are the plain tailored models—as good one season as another. Some were bought early this season—others late last season. Mostly navy or black men's wear serges. Some poplins and broadcloths among them.

Silk Dresses—Some were $3.98 as high as $25.00, at . . .

—and these are not old and undesirable styles. Bought at the very close of last season they are very similar to the models of the present season, while among them are some of the present season's styles.

Skirts—

Formerly $5, $5.98 and $6.50; and some were even higher; they are not quite as wide as the present fashion's demand, but they are of splendid materials and of highest class tailoring. Price is . . . $1.50

White Waists—

Regularly $1.00 to $2.00; white voile and lingerie waists; about fifteen dozen and about ten styles. All sizes are among them, but not all sizes of each style. Some handkerchief linen waists among them. Price . . . 59c

Crepe de Chine Waists—

Regularly $2.50 and $2.98; about ten dozen in all; all colors and all sizes. The remainder of many assortments. Two or three of each style, and a great many styles. Price . . . $1.59

Petticoats—

Regularly $2.50; messaline and taffeta; only a few dozen in the lot; desirable shades. Price is . . . $1.00

Satine Petticoats—Regularly $1.00; black, mercerized; cut very wide, with sectional flounces. Price is . . . 59c

Black Satine Petticoats—Regularly 75c; cut full; deep flounces; all lengths; fast black. Price is . . . 39c

Second Floor—BOWMAN'S.
