After receiving an education in the public schools Mr. Roberts studied law in the office of his father and later was chief clerk in the Register's and Recorder's office. He thea turned his attention to civil engineering and spent the rest of his life in that profession. During his long career in this capacity he helped survey and construct the Middle and western part of the Pittsburgh divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad, acquiring the friendship of many men who are now officials of those divisions. Mr. Roberts was married to Miss Charlotte E. Geiger, in 1854, by the Rev. Afbert Cookman. He was one of the organizers of the diarrisburg City Passenger Railway Company and served of the Harrisburg Eurniture Company and the Harrisburg Burial Case Company and the Harrisburg Furniture Company, serving as a director of both.

Since 1843 Mr. Roberts was a member of Market Square Presbyterian church, and since the construction of the new church building in 1858 he has occupied the same pew. He served as a trustee of the church for thirty years and secretary for nearly the same length of time. It had been the custom of Mr. Roberts to walk nearly a miles each day until several days ago when he became unconscious and remained in that state until the time of his death. He is survived by three sous: John B. Alexander H. and George B. Roberts.

satisfied the bill will have at least 107 votes and possibly more. One hundred and four votes are necessary to passage with all. Representatives present.

Governor Brumbaugh is very hopeful of the result and at the executive mansion on Saturday night expressed the highest confidence in the bill passing by a good majority. Representative Woodward, of Allegheny, who is an apti-lecal option man, says that the friends of the bill have made no material gains and that the bill will be defeated.

WOODS DENIES HE IS TO HEAD SERVICE COMMISSION

A story originating in Pittsburgh and given publicity in Harrisburg, to the effect that Secretary of the Commonwealth Woods is to be appointed head of the Public Service Commission and reorganize that body was very promptly squiched by Secretary Woods was appointed to his present position by Governor Brumbaugh. He has been in office about three months and the report that he proposed to get out in order to reorganize the Public Service Commission was quite a surprise to port that he proposed to get out in order to reorganize the Public Service Commission was quite a surprise to those who have taken an interest in the Public Service Commission matters, especially since Governor Brumbaugh recalled all of the appointments of Commissioners made by Governor Tener just previous to leaving office. Whatever, the Governor may do in the matter of naming new Commissioners, it is not at all likely that Secretary Woods will have anything to do with it.

Asked this morning as to the truth of the story that emanates from Pittsburgh concerning his getting out of his present position to take the presidency of the Public Service Commission, Secreetary Woods said:

"The story is untrue in every particular. It is ridiculous and nonsensical, and, I may say, a grotesque proposition. There is not a word of truth in it. I like my present position, and it is not at all likely that I would change it.
