SAY RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE IN CARPATHIANS IS AT AN END
Berlin, Via London, April 21.—German newspaper correspondents, telegraphing from the Carpathian mountains, say that the Russian offensive in that region has come completely to an end. Small engagements still are in progress in the wooded Carpathians, but these are dying out. Occasional fights which take place for local advantage here and there are without importance. The situation generally is characterized as one of absolute quiet. Nothing of importance is said to be happening in Bukovina or in Russian Poland.

ROUT OF BRITISH IN AFRICA TOLD OFFICIALLY IN BERLIN
Berlin, April 21, via London, 12.15 P. M.—Official news from German East Africa of the defeat of British forces on January 18 and 19 in a two days' battle a point near Jassini has just reached Berlin. The British forces lost some 200 men killed. Their total casualties amounted to about 700. These include the capture of four companies of men. Three hundred and fifty rifles, one machine gun and 60,000 rounds of ammunition fell into the hands of the Germans. The loss to the Germans was seven officers and eleven men killed and 38 men wounded.

NO INCREASE IN STATE POLICE
House Votes Down Plan to Add 116 Men to the Present Force
The House of Representatives last night defeated the bill to add 116 men to the State police force and to arrange some of the salaries, by a vote of 125 yeas to 61 nays, after listening to speeches for an hour and a half. Mr. Maurer, Socialist, of Berks, said the State police "do not belong to our scheme of government."

BROTHER OUTLAWS KILLED
Mexicans Were Shot When Confederates Tried to Rescue Them
Tucson, Ariz., April 21.—Two Mexican outlaws, the Leon brothers, were shot and killed Monday night when confederates tried to rescue them from the hands of Pima county deputies, who were attempting to rid Greterville, a border community, of criminals.

DEPARTURE FROM PETROGRAD
Rome, April 21.—The "Messaggero" says Michael De Giers, the new Russian ambassador to Italy, is delaying his arrival in Rome because of his desire before leaving Petrograd to arrange with his own government for the conclusion of a thorough agreement between Russia and Italy not only concerning Italy's intervention in the war, but with regard to Italy's position when peace is reached.

McIntyre and Heath in "The Ham Tree" their talents appear to the greatest advantage. McIntyre and Heath joined hands in San Antonio, Texas, in the spring of 1874, at the Vandeville Theatre. They played many variety and circus engagements until the fall of 1878, when they organized McIntyre and Heath's Minstrels. One year later they made their first New York appearance at Tony Pastor's Theatre, introducing for the first time in the North the buck wing dancing, scoring an instantaneous and pronounced success.—Adv.
