

Don't Waste $10

The oftener you read that headline the more its message will impress you

"DON'T WASTE $10"

How apt is its application to the man who has for years paid $20 for his clothes! Each season he gets a suit, and each time he feels that he must pay $20 or he won't get his money's worth, and so often does this performance occur that it almost becomes a fixed habit.

But Wonder Clothes will break you of that habit. They are $20 clothes in every essential and detail, except in price.

CANTATA WELL RENDERED

Large Audience in High School Auditorium Was Well Pleased With Interpretation of Legend

Surprised and pleased was the large audience which witnessed the production of the fifth annual cantata, "Christoforus," by the local High School, under the direction of Professor W. M. Harclerode, supervisor of music, assisted by a number of vocalists, in the High School auditorium, last evening.

The surprising part of the entertainment consisted in the finished manner in which this difficult music was presented, considering the amateur material which Professor Harclerode had to drill. The pleasure of the evening consisted in the improved acoustics of the auditorium which enabled almost the entire audience to understand the singers at all times.

The solo work of Miss Rebecca Miller and Miss Martha Armstrong could not have been excelled, while Luke T. Butt, who took the difficult part of the giant in the play, added increased laurels. Other soloists were Miss Margaret Atticks, alto; M. C. Hummer, tenor, and Eugene Buck, boy soprano, who appeared to be the favorite of the audience.

The High School orchestra rendered the opening overture with spirit and followed the singers through the maze of notes with scarcely any breaks.

For the past five years the High School cantata has proven a big thing among the musical entertainments in the borough and has always drawn large crowds. In the four previous years the following pieces were sung: 1911, "The Building of the Ship," by Laube; 1912, "Jean of Arc," by Gaul; 1913, "Hero and Leander," by Lloyd; 1914, "The Rose Maiden," by Cowen.

Fractured Wrist and Ankle

Harry Geist, Enhaut, a tinner in the employ of H. C. Cramer, while putting up some spouting yesterday near noon, lost his footing and fell to the ground from the roof and fractured his right ankle and right arm. He also received a number of painful body bruises. He was taken to the Harrisburg hospital for treatment.

Death of Small Child

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lane, of Enhaut, died yesterday morning. Burial will take place tomorrow afternoon in Bakwin cemetery.

Doutrichs Takes a Firm Stand Against Cheap Merchandise

We are constantly endeavoring to convince Harrisburg that there is no comparison between quality at a fair price and cheapness at any price. Cheap merchandise never has, never will, never can give any lasting satisfaction.

are not cheap, yet they are always economical. Their advanced tailoring, supplementing superior fabric value, their style which stands so pre-eminently supreme, these things, though they cannot be had at cheap price are the very foundation stones of satisfaction, a satisfaction that we can safely guarantee on a money back basis.

That they may be had for as little as fifteen dollars' the garment is due to the new efficiency methods of The House of Kuppenheimer; to the volume of trade with which a community always well served has favored us; to an inside organization of men to whom "greater value giving" is much more than a mere advertising slogan.

The new spring styles are here, ready for your inspection, ready for your selection, ready for service now.

CELEBRATE SIXTY-THIRD WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rudy Will Receive Congratulations of Relatives and Friends Tomorrow at Their Conestoga Street Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rudy will celebrate the sixty-third anniversary of their wedding in a quiet manner at their home, Second and Conestoga streets, to-morrow, where they will receive the congratulations of their relatives and friends. They were married in York, York county, April 22, 1852, and resided in Manchester until April 29, 1886, when they removed to Steelton.

Mr. Rudy, early in life, learned the trade of shoemaking, which he followed until the Civil war, when the business went to nothing, and he then opened a general store in Manchester, which he continued until removing to Steelton. Selling part of his stock before moving, with what was left, he opened a store at Lincoln street and Daron alley, which he conducted for two years, when he sold the place to the late Ellisworth M. Daron.

The following eighteen months he clerked in the grocery store of W. A. Keister and then managed a dye cleaning establishment for a Lebanon firm for one year. His next venture was the opening of a shoe repair establishment in the Kelker building, on the site now occupied by the Steelton Store Company, dry goods department.

Twenty-two years ago he erected his present residence at Second and Conestoga streets and after completing a small building in the yard moved his repairing plant to his home, where he has conducted it ever since. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rudy are active and able to attend to their work, although, as Mr. Rudy said this morning, "We are beginning to feel our age." Mr. and Mrs. Rudy are 85 and 82 years old, respectively.

Former Resident Dead
Mrs. Margaret Thompson, a former resident of the borough, was brought from Herminie, Westmoreland county, yesterday for burial. She is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Rachel Brown; three sisters, Mrs. Ellen Matthews, Mrs. Susan Staley, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Charlotte Brown, of Steelton, and one brother, Jackson A. Brown, of the borough.

ANNOUNCED WEDDING

Reception Was Held Thursday Evening in Honor of Wedding of J. H. Keath to Miss M. Thorne

The wedding of Miss Mammie Thorne to John H. Keath, of Harrisburg, was announced at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thorne, 181 Christian street, Thursday evening. The wedding was solemnized at the parish house of St. James' Catholic church, by the Rev. J. C. Thompson, rector.

The entertainment of the evening consisted of a musical program presented by the Lamke family and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Keath were the recipients of many useful and handsome household necessities. The

CALLAGHAN-KENNEDY NUPTIALS THIS MORNING

The Ceremony Was Performed This Morning at 8 O'clock at St. James' Catholic Church—The Groom Is Borough Engineer

William Paul Callaghan, of the borough, and Miss Marguerite Marie Kennedy, 1520 Allison street, Harrisburg, were married in St. James' Catholic church this morning at 8 o'clock. The bride is a graduate of the Sisters of Mercy Academy, Philadelphia, and attended Mt. St. Joseph's College. She was an employee of the Department of Health in Harrisburg. The groom is a graduate of the local High School and Pennsylvania State College, class of 1908, and is engineer for the borough.

Miss Kennedy was attired in a wedding gown of white crepe meteeur, with chiffon underskirt, trimmed with white rosebuds, and wore a white leghorn hat. Her going away gown is of dark blue serge, with hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Shannon, maid of honor, wore a pink crepe de chine gown trimmed with pink rosebuds and a leg-horn hat with pink trimmings and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Charles Callaghan, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were John Ryan, Pittsburgh, a classmate of the groom; Andrew McCall, William Regan and Philip Daylor, of the borough. A wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and immediate families. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Callaghan will be at home at 1520 Allison street.

THE WHITE MASK

Yvonne, Duchess of Granville, left penniless by the death of her husband after a life of luxury at the Belgian Court, becomes a dancer, in order to provide proper advantages for her son, Victor. She hides her identity behind a white mask, which she always wears. Her identity is finally discovered by Prince Norodom and the heart-rending drama which follows is graphically portrayed in motion pictures at the Standard Theatre to-night.—Adv.*

HARRISBURG MAN IS NOW HAPPY

I. E. Beckwith Says Wonderful Remedy Gave Him Great Help

I. E. Beckwith, of Harrisburg, Penn., was a victim of disorders of the stomach and intestinal tract. He tried treatment after treatment. Nothing gave him relief.

Then one day he discovered Mayr's Wonderful Remedy—and soon was happy.

Mr. Beckwith wrote to Geo. H. Mayr, the maker of the remedy and for twenty years the leading druggist of Chicago.

"I believe that Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is the greatest stomach remedy on earth. One dose would convince any one who is troubled with his stomach of its wonderful merit. It removed some of the most awful looking stuff from my stomach. I have taken other remedies, but they never helped me."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much as whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

LEBANON NOW IN LEAGUE

Iron and Steel Company Team, That City, Is Admitted

Frank Stees, president of the Central Pennsylvania Baseball League, last evening closed the deal admitting the Lebanon Iron and Steel Company team into the league. This new member won the city of Lebanon championship, as well as the Lebanon county championship, in 1914. White, the Lebanon Valley College twirler, will join the staff of pitchers at the close of the college season.

The new league member is well backed financially, having the support of such men as Charles F. Zimmerman, of the Lebanon Valley Trust Company, a former fan of the Steelton baseball team, as well as the backing of the Lebanon Valley Iron and Steel Company.
